The Titan II missile site in Damascus, Arkansas, that killed Sgt. David Medeiros's letter to the Massachusetts Catholics urging them to get involved in politics was the high point of Sunday night's televised debate between presidential candidates Ronald Reagan and Walter Mondale.

Neither Reagan nor Anderson committed serious blunders during the hour-long debate, the candidates only in agreement on one of the six issues discussed. Each candidate brought up more than one issue during the debate, but that difference was not significant. Despite their large disagreement on the issues, both candidates avoided excessive name-calling and heckling. In fact, the debate seemed almost bland until the final issue was raised.

The candidates disagreed fiercely over Humbletone Cardinal Medeiros's letter to the Massachusetts Cardinals urging them to vote against pro-abortionists Barney Frank and James Shanley. Mondale attacked Medeiros, calling him a "fanatic" and about the "horrendous problems" with which we are currently faced. He concluded that "for 200 years we have lived in the future, believing that tomorrow would be better that today... I still believe that."

Anderson, in his closing remarks, observed that "except for their opposition to the draft," "We are disagreed, I told him, "there are not so many other very important issues."

He presented himself as an alternative to the two traditional parties, neither of which, he claimed, "in their best for victory is looking beyond November." He appealed to the American public to listen and to vote against pro-abortionists. (Please turn to page 2)

Nationwatch

Medeiros sparks debate

By Julie Tiao

A disagreement over religious involvement in politics was the high point of Sunday night's televised debate between presidential candidates Ronald Reagan and Walter Mondale.

Neither Reagan nor Anderson committed serious blunders during the hour-long debate, the candidates only in agreement on one of the six issues discussed. Despite their large disagreement on the issues, both candidates avoided excessive name-calling and heckling. In fact, the debate seemed almost bland until the final issue was raised.

The candidates disagreed fiercely over Humbletone Cardinal Medeiros's letter to the Massachusetts Cardinals urging them to vote against pro-abortionists Barney Frank and James Shanley. Mondale attacked Medeiros, calling him a "fanatic" and about the "horrendous problems" with which we are currently faced. He concluded that "for 200 years we have lived in the future, believing that tomorrow would be better that today... I still believe that."

Anderson, in his closing remarks, observed that "except for their opposition to the draft," "We are disagreed, I told him, "there are not so many other very important issues."

He presented himself as an alternative to the two traditional parties, neither of which, he claimed, "in their best for victory is looking beyond November." He appealed to the American public to listen and to vote against pro-abortionists. (Please turn to page 2)

Nationwatch

Medeiros sparks debate

By Julie Tiao

A disagreement over religious involvement in politics was the high point of Sunday night's televised debate between presidential candidates Ronald Reagan and Walter Mondale.

Neither Reagan nor Anderson committed serious blunders during the hour-long debate, the candidates only in agreement on one of the six issues discussed. Despite their large disagreement on the issues, both candidates avoided excessive name-calling and heckling. In fact, the debate seemed almost bland until the final issue was raised.

The candidates disagreed fiercely over Humbletone Cardinal Medeiros's letter to the Massachusetts Cardinals urging them to vote against pro-abortionists Barney Frank and James Shanley. Mondale attacked Medeiros, calling him a "fanatic" and about the "horrendous problems" with which we are currently faced. He concluded that "for 200 years we have lived in the future, believing that tomorrow would be better that today... I still believe that."

Anderson, in his closing remarks, observed that "except for their opposition to the draft," "We are disagreed, I told him, "there are not so many other very important issues."

He presented himself as an alternative to the two traditional parties, neither of which, he claimed, "in their best for victory is looking beyond November." He appealed to the American public to listen and to vote against pro-abortionists. (Please turn to page 2)
Carter punt disapproved

(Continued from page 1)

"see that an independent government of John Anderson and Patrick Lucey can give us the kind of coalition government that we need to help us solve our problems."

President Jimmy Carter chose not to attend Sunday night's debate after the sponsoring League of Women Voters extended an invitation to independent presidential candidate John Anderson.

According to the latest Gallup poll, Carter's decision not to take part in the debate drew national disapproval by a two-to-one margin, although his action apparently had no major effect on his poll standings. Carter still drew 56% in the latest Gallup election poll, Reagan 40%, and Anderson 15%.

Carter's action did, however, provide Anderson with an opportunity to prove himself a worthy candidate in this fall's elections. Republican candidate Reagan was in the more traditional position of trying to avoid blunders during the debate.

E. campus is resource

(Continued from page 1)

facilities are needed, construction on the area will be started and the cycle will repeat.

"On a long-term, ten to twenty year basis, the east end of campus from Anna Street down to the Sloan building is in our major resource in terms of academic growth. We're working on a plan to solve their problem, but out whole system is tight; we have no slack," explained Reynolds.

The new Health Sciences and Health Services building is scheduled to be ready for use within about a year. At around the same time, the Institute plans to add additional parking facilities on MIT-owned land west of the new construction, on Carlton Street. Additional plans include a possible below-ground parking area for a future building in the area, and conversion of one or more of the existing lots in multi-story parking garages.

errata

The headline appearing on the election page in Friday's Tech was incorrect: Peter Vellucci lost to Michael Lombardi. In addition, Barney Frank won Father Drinan's seat, not Michael Lombardi. In addition, Peter Vellucci lost to Michael Lombardi. In addition, James Shannon as originally reported.

A world of careers in Aerospace for tomorrow-minded college graduates.

See our representative on campus Oct. 7

Our Denver Division has many new opportunities awaiting college graduates. Major facilities are located at 165 Brighton Ave., Alchon, CO 80201.

Carter's decision not to take part in the debate drew national disapproval by a two-to-one margin, although his action apparently had no major effect on his poll standings. Carter still drew 56% in the latest Gallup election poll, Reagan 40%, and Anderson 15%.

Carter's action did, however, provide Anderson with an opportunity to prove himself a worthy candidate in this fall's elections. Republican candidate Reagan was in the more traditional position of trying to avoid blunders during the debate.

E. campus is resource

(Continued from page 1)

facilities are needed, construction on the area will be started and the cycle will repeat.

"On a long-term, ten to twenty year basis, the east end of campus from Anna Street down to the Sloan building is in our major resource in terms of academic growth. We're working on a plan to solve their problem, but out whole system is tight; we have no slack," explained Reynolds.

The new Health Sciences and Health Services building is scheduled to be ready for use within about a year. At around the same time, the Institute plans to add additional parking facilities on MIT-owned land west of the new construction, on Carlton Street. Additional plans include a possible below-ground parking area for a future building in the area, and conversion of one or more of the existing lots in multi-story parking garages.

errata

The headline appearing on the election page in Friday's Tech was incorrect: Peter Vellucci lost to Michael Lombardi. In addition, Barney Frank won Father Drinan's seat, not Michael Lombardi. In addition, James Shannon as originally reported.

A world of careers in Aerospace for tomorrow-minded college graduates.

See our representative on campus Oct. 7

Our Denver Division has many new opportunities awaiting college graduates. Major facilities are located at 165 Brighton Ave., Alchon, CO 80201.

Carter's decision not to take part in the debate drew national disapproval by a two-to-one margin, although his action apparently had no major effect on his poll standings. Carter still drew 56% in the latest Gallup election poll, Reagan 40%, and Anderson 15%.

Carter's action did, however, provide Anderson with an opportunity to prove himself a worthy candidate in this fall's elections. Republican candidate Reagan was in the more traditional position of trying to avoid blunders during the debate.

E. campus is resource

(Continued from page 1)

facilities are needed, construction on the area will be started and the cycle will repeat.

"On a long-term, ten to twenty year basis, the east end of campus from Anna Street down to the Sloan building is in our major resource in terms of academic growth. We're working on a plan to solve their problem, but out whole system is tight; we have no slack," explained Reynolds.

The new Health Sciences and Health Services building is scheduled to be ready for use within about a year. At around the same time, the Institute plans to add additional parking facilities on MIT-owned land west of the new construction, on Carlton Street. Additional plans include a possible below-ground parking area for a future building in the area, and conversion of one or more of the existing lots in multi-story parking garages.

errata

The headline appearing on the election page in Friday's Tech was incorrect: Peter Vellucci lost to Michael Lombardi. In addition, Barney Frank won Father Drinan's seat, not Michael Lombardi. In addition, James Shannon as originally reported.

A world of careers in Aerospace for tomorrow-minded college graduates.

See our representative on campus Oct. 7

Our Denver Division has many new opportunities awaiting college graduates. Major facilities are located at 165 Brighton Ave., Alchon, CO 80201.
World

West Berlin railroad workers strike — Five hundred West Berlin employees of the East German Railroad went on strike Sunday night, shutting passenger rail links with the West. The rail system is used by 31 domestic and international railroads. The workers were reporting as demanding improved working conditions and free trade unions.

Iran-Iraq fighting escalates — Iraq reported yesterday that it had destroyed five Iranian gunboats, as the two nations continued to exchange artillery fire across the border between the two nations escalated into a major conflict. Fighting is reported all along the 700-mile border between the two countries, with the heaviest action reported in the Shatt al Arab waterway region.

Seven killed in air show crash — The seven-man crew of a World War II-ringtage Douglas A-26 light bomber was killed when the aircraft crashed Sunday at an air show commemorating the 40th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, two crew members aboard were American airmen stationed in England. The aircraft reportedly crashed due to a failure to recover altitude following its last roll maneuver during its performance.

New Turkish cabinet formed — Turkey's military government announced the announcement of a new civilian cabinet yesterday. Included in the cabinet are seven retired generals. The new cabinet was assembled following an order last week from Turkey's Chief of Staff, General Kenan Evren.

Flood kills 203 Indians — Flooding last week in the eastern Indian state of Orissa has killed at least 203 people, according to official reports. The death count is expected to rise much higher when communications within the state are fully restored.

Nation

Dull man's club formed — Organized in San Francisco by former businessman Joe Troise, the national Dull Men's Club has been formed for the benefit of people who are "out of it and proud of it" according to Troise. The club, located to opposing the "tragedy of overweeness," now claims a nation-wide membership of over 350.

Study points out immigrant families' achievements — According to a newly-released federal study, the children of first-generation families overseas and then of native-born families within ten years of their arrival in the United States. The study also revealed that, from the time of their arrival, immigrant families on the average pay more in taxes than they collect in public assistance, the study did not distinguish between legal and illegal immigrants.

Wine: ratifies new contract — 3500 union winery workers ratified a new contract yesterday ending a 17-day strike against 21 of California's largest wineries. The strike started with the onset of the crucial harvesting season, and if it continued could have threatened thousands of acres of grapes. Spokesmen said there was never any threat to supplies of Californian wine to the marketplace.

Sports

Red Sox out of it — A combined four-hit, 13-strikeout performance by Rudy Guidry and Rich Gossage have made immediate effect: the Boston Red Sox are no longer a factor in the American League East percent race. In Guidry's second start since his exile to the bullpen, the former Cy Young winner allowed three hits and struck out nine in seven innings.

New York does it again — Giorgio Chinaglia led the New York Cosmos to their third North American Soccer League championship in four years. Under the Italian wonder, the Cosmos handed the Fort Lauderdale Strikers a 3-0 shutout before a crowd of 50,768 in steamy RFK Stadium, Washington, DC.

By Jay Glass and Richard Sizel

Weather

A speeding cold front will bring unsettled weather to New England this morning. The front, which should move through by noontime, will be preceded by warm-muggy conditions with some showers and thunderstorms. After the frontal passage, temperatures will fall into the 60's, brick winds will shift to the northwest, and skies should clear. Cold-tonged to with lows in the upper 40's. For Wednesday, sunny but cool with less wind. Highs near 65. Lows Wednesday night in the upper 40's. Chance of rain 50 percent this morning, decreasing to near zero tonight and Wednesday. Meanwhile, tropical storm Hermine churns toward the southwest, with the heaviest action reported in the Shatt al Arab waterway region.

By James Franklin
The magic Number

The Selective Service System has begun to acknowledge the registration forms received from 19 and 20 year-olds this summer. Many people who registered this summer chose to withhold their Social Security Numbers from the Selective Service System out of concern that the identifying number was being too widely distributed. Selective Service Director Rozziker indicated that the registrants who withheld the number would not be prosecuted. The acknowledgement letter which these registrants are now receiving from the Selective Service System probably explains that they will be in violation of the law unless they supply their Social Security Number.

It seems the government has decided to make life most difficult for these registrants for whom the decision to register was probably the most painstaking. Registrants who decided to withhold their Social Security Number were, by and large, those who gave the most thought to the question of the pros and cons of registration and then chose to comply with that part of the law they felt was justifiable.

Are these people, many of whom complied with the law despite grave reservations about its wisdom, to be branded criminals because of their desire to protect some measure of their privacy?

The answer is no, or not yet anyway. Registrants who receive letters asking for their Social Security Numbers have three options, according to Dr. Louis Menand of the Provost's Office. They can supply the number. They can withhold it outright. Or they can write the Selective Service System and claim that since they are party to a lawsuit they would prefer to withhold the number until the suit is decided.

Insight from the Mondale visit

Politics return to MIT this Thursday morning in the person of Vice-President Walter Mondale.

For the last five years, during the recently concluded Leadership in Campus fundraising drive, MIT has been out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Argentina visit

Politics return to MIT this Thursday morning in the person of Vice-President Walter Mondale.

For the last five years, during the recently concluded Leadership in Campus fundraising drive, MIT has been out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.

Leadership changed fundraising drive, MIT fell out of the national political spotlight as its leaders scrambled for badly needed endowments. True, Presidential Advisor Frank Press did hail from Tech. But MIT as an institution has been taking a small holiday from national leadership in education and research.

Mondale's visit here on Thursday may mark something of an end to this hiatus. He has chosen MIT for an address on education and research.
I Hol Gray responsible

(Continued from page 4)

believed that these aims would be addressed, though probably not fully achieved; but it appears that only the mandatory part of the plan has been implemented. Rather than promoting efficiency, the Vale Hall plan has led to long lines for common checks, where none existed before. In addition, the implementation of the unlimited salad, beverage, and bread is fantastic (at least at Morse Hall). Rather than being allowed to go back for seconds on these since no measures have been taken to increase the capacity of the dining halls, crowding during meals is becoming much more of a problem than in the past.

Although dormitory crowding and mandatory commons are the two most obvious issues, there are some smaller ones. For example, new buildings are being erected on campus, with little attention being paid to the effect they will have on students' lives, in particular the decrease in available parking spaces.

"All of these issues point to an attitude of indifference to students ...

items, students are forced to take everything on one trip through the line, encouraging waste. Although waste is certainly not depreciated on the basis of only a meal, it has certainly not been addressed, though probably not fully achieved. However, these meetings are only for show; they do not seem to have affected the basic policies of the administration, as reflected by the incidents mentioned above.

On September 26th, the inauguration of Dr. Gray will take place. Students are invited to join in a celebration of this event. However, in light of the actions taken by the new administration, I see no reason to celebrate. Until such time as students are included in a meaningful manner in the policymaking of the administration there is no reason for joy in the change of administration. I urge all students to consider whether or not they wish to be included in Dr. Gray's administration before they decide whether or not to take part in the celebration. For one, it is not a good attitude that is much more compelling than any of the individual issues. In fairness to Dr. Gray, it must be pointed out that he has taken up residence in the President's House, bringing him closer to campus life, and he has also tried to be accessible to students, by meeting with groups of students on various occasions. I fear, however, that these meetings are only for show; they do not seem to have affected the basic policies of the administration, as reflected by the incidents mentioned above.

To the Editor:

Well, the Institute doesn't seem to be able to come up with satisfactory names for the two new dormitories on the West Side, so I would like to propose a contest. Let's have MIT undergrads submit their favorite names for these buildings. The winners will have the honor of christening the appropriate dorm, and will have their names inscribed on the appropriate doorposts.

Although I myself am inclined to favor names like "Maxwell House" or "Annie Hall," I'm not sure what my proposal is to favor names like 'Maxwell House" or "Annie Hall" or "Out of the Setting Sun." My own proposal is to favor names like 'Maxwell House," and will have the creative genius of the student body to work.

Mike Gerardi '81

Edition's note: The Tech suggested such a contest last spring. There was one reply: "House of the Setting Sun."

You've tried the best—now try the worst!

*TRY THEM ALL... YOU BE THE JUDGE.

FATHER'S

first too

122 HARVARD AVENUE ALLSTON

fore five

306 MASS AVENUE CAMBRIDGE

THE COOP

your headquarters for Sharp calculators

EL503 16.98

8 digit scientific calculator with memory.

EL5813 39.98

Scientific calculator with 30 steps of programmability, statistical functions and memory safeguard.

August, 1980

BOSTON MAGAZINE

Best & Worst Awards

Neighborhood Bar

Best: Tie between the El Phoenix Room and the Village Coach House.

Worst: Father's but we don't know whether it's I, II, III or the entire chain*

San Francisco Students

(Bay Area)

Alumni from your home area will be on campus, Saturday, September 27, and you are invited to have brunch with them in the William F. Marlar Faculty Lounge (Room 37-252) from 10-11:30 a.m. to talk about student/alumni activities.

Free food and good conversation!!

To sign up, Call Ext. 3-8244; OR Drop by The Alumni Center, 10-110
What's in a number?

(Continued from page 4)

The suit in question has been filed (in Federal Court in Washington) by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) and challenges the government's right to demand the Social Security Number. The law governing the Social Security Number is vague, and an ACLU request for an injunction was denied during the summer.

The ACLU suit is a class action suit on behalf of a number of named individuals and all others in similar circumstances. It has been accepted by a Washington judge as a valid class action. All registrants, therefore, are actually party to the suit.

The Social Security Number question is an issue of deep principal and great importance. It questions the limits of the government's right to demand information of its citizens. Registrants who took a stand on this principal should be aware of all avenues of recourse at their disposal.

The registration issue was highly divisive, especially among students. Individuals who did register should not allow government intimidation over their Social Security Number to back them into yet another moral dilemma.

Conventional wisdom has it that it's a woman's prerogative to change her mind, even if she's a 12-month-old. Noni, right. Noni decided to give a cookie to her friend Mariska, 10 months. After thinking about the generosity for awhile, she just had to take it back. Both were out yesterday with Mariska's mother, Annette Prins. (photos by Jim Mihori)
Bus Stop is definitely worth the trip

Bus Stop, by William Inge, directed by John Hickok, weekends at People’s Theatre until October 26.

The entrance to People’s Theatre is inconspicuous. It could be the door to a junk shop, or a rather seedy bar. But go inside, and you will find a small and cozy theatre in what appears to be a building in a rather seedy area. The theatre is well worth a visit, and the audience about aspects of life. And, in the intimate director of their approach, they succeed in drawing the audience, for a few hours, into the world they are creating. So it is with their latest offering, Bus Stop by William Inge. Bus Stop is about relationships on several levels, although their related significance becomes apparent after the audience has examined, a skilful device on the part of the author.

The central pair are Bo and Cherie, the former a raw cowboy, the latter an attractive nightclub dancer. Richard Rameska plays Bo captivatingly; at first appearing self-assured and brash, Bo’s real naivete becomes apparent after individual affairs are revealed as the story unfolds. Cherie, played by Nan Mullinex, is taut-talising. She has learning to do, as has Bo, and arrives on target with the help of catalyst Will Masters, the sheriff, played by Russ Pimentell. Bo’s and Cherie’s characters are carefully developed; the performance is very good.

The production stars Carol Channing and Barry Dve and Donna Staphaniski. Grace is the owner of the Kansas cafe in which the action happens — a real stop on a bus line. She takes a matter-of-fact sort of approach to life, needs to sleep with the occasional man, but doesn’t want any more. She and Carl go off and do just this, and the relationship means to them. Both actors played for real — this was no fairy-tale.

Elena, a waitress, and Dr. Lyman, a former college professor, balance the swing at the other end. She, played by Dorothy Sinclair, a picture of radiant innocence, and he, played by Leroy Shetler, aJean- dian man completing a trip through a re- jecting world, are strangely and touchingly matched.

The importance of Virgil, Bo’s ranch hand, who sits on the side as the action happens only becomes apparent at the end. Gently acted by Gary Kirby, the end result is all the more self.

Paul Dedell’s set was a detailed picture of the wayward bus cafes all of us cut-price travelers know so well, and we, the audience, become a part of it at the hands of John Hickok’s careful direction. Highly recommended.

Jonathan Richmond

---

THEATRE

The Lyric Stage Theatre has begun its fifth season with George Bernard Shaw’s comic masterpiece, Arms and the Man. The play runs Wed.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 5 and 8:30pm, and Sun. at 3pm, through Oct. 26. For more information, call 787-0648.

The Last Midnight Show, a full-scale musical production, will have its pre-Broadway tryouts at the Boston Playhouse beginning Sept. 16. Performances Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm; Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. For information and reservations, call 426-6912.

There’s magic in the air as the Boston Shakespeare Company opens its sixth season with Macbeth (starting Sept. 10) and The Tempest (starting Oct. 8). Subscription memberships for the 1980-81 season are now available. Call 257-5600 for tickets and information.

Sugar Kohler, the smash Broadway hit, is coming to the Colonial Theatre Sept. 25. The production stars Carol Channing and Robert Morse. Performances are Mon.-Sat. at 8pm, with 2pm matinees on Wed. & Sat. For more information, call 426-6300.

The 1980-81 season of the BU Celebrity Series opens Sept. 26 in Symphony Hall at 8pm with a concert by renowned violinist Isaac Stern. On Sept. 26 and 30 he will perform with the BSO. Tickets for all three concerts are available at Symphony Hall. For more information, call 426-6412.

The Boston Minica Viva presents Pulitzer Prize winner George Crumb in person Fri. Oct. 3 at 8pm in the Sanders Theatre in Cambridge, and a performance of Four Nocturnes and Fox Balanee. At 8pm there will be an all-Crumb concert featuring An- cover poster with prints and posters from the Catherine M. Stratton and List Art Loan Collections. There are 170 posters available; just stop by the Haydon Gallery before Friday at 11 am and register for these lottery drawings. Winners will be announced Saturday at a reception in the Gallery from 10 am to noon. Poster pick-up Sat., Sun., and Mon. 10-4. Questions? Call the Gallery at 3-4460.

Cover up a that Institute Grey with prints and posters from the Catherine M. Stratton and List Art Loan Collections. There are 170 posters available; just stop by the Haydon Gallery before Friday at 11 am and register for these lottery drawings. Winners will be announced Saturday at a reception in the Gallery from 10 am to noon. Poster pick-up Sat., Sun., and Mon. 10-4. Questions? Call the Gallery at 3-4460.

MUSIC

* * * *

ART

Eartlight Gallery, in cooperation with the National Geographic Society, is proud to present an exhibit of 76 spectacular paintings by internationally known artist commissioned to illustrate a new picture atlas, Our Universe. The exhibit runs Sept. 14-Oct. 25. Hours are 10-5 Tues.-Sat. For more information, call 266-8417.

Stratton and List Art Loan Collections. There are 170 posters available; just stop by the Haydon Gallery before Friday at 11 am and register for these lottery drawings. Winners will be announced Saturday at a reception in the Gallery from 10 am to noon. Poster pick-up Sat., Sun., and Mon. 10-4. Questions? Call the Gallery at 3-4460.

MOVIES

From September 18 through October 1, Off the Wall Cinema presents Happy Birthday, Barry!, a celebration of Betty Boop’s 50th birthday. Showtimes are Mon.-Fri. at 6, 8, 10pm; Sat. & Sun. at 4, 7, 9pm & 10pm; and midnight Fri. & Sat.

HAI R CARE

A NEW SALON SERVING THE MIT COMMUNITY.

NOW OPEN

CALL FOR AN APPOINTMENT.

319 MASS. AVE.

497-1590

2 DOLLAR DISCOUNT AND FREE CONSULTATION WITH THIS AD.
The Fannie and John Hertz Foundation awards graduate fellowships to students of outstanding potential in the applied physical sciences. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, or have documented proof of intent to acquire it. The proposed field of graduate study must be concerned with applications of the physical sciences to human problems, broadly construed. High previous scholastic performance is expected of all applicants, including at least an A- average during the last two years of undergraduate work. Contact the Graduate School Office, Room 3-136, for more info.

Mobilitation for Survival, a grass-roots anti-nuclear group, is having a fund-raising rummage sale Saturday, October 4, in the parking lot of the Old Cambridge Baptist Church, Cambridge. For more info, call 354-0008.

The MIT Chinese student club is sponsoring a week-long exhibition October 15 to 18. The program will include exhibitions, demonstrations, a variety show, and a concert. For more info, stop by the club's office at room 475 of the Student Center.

The Boston Alliance Against the Registration and the Draft and the Boston Cushnell Alliance are sponsoring an anti-drug march and rally on Saturday, October 4, starting at noon at the Copley Plaza. Featured speakers include Daniel Ellsberg.
Hello!

Welcome back to all of you (and an additional welcome to the Class of '84).
The UA News appears regularly in the campus media. The Undergraduate Association uses it as a way of communicating important issues to the student body. Many opportunities for involvement and formal meeting notices will be posted in the UA News.

Space is available to campus organizations for announcements. All submissions should be sent to the UA News editor, Chris MacKenzie, on the Friday prior to the week in which the announcement is to appear. Deliver all items to the UA office, Room 401 of the Student Center.

General Assembly

General Assembly elections will be held in living groups throughout September. Each independent living group has one rep, regardless of size. Each dormitory has approximately one rep for every forty residents. Off-campus reps are elected by getting a petition-form signed by forty other off-campus residents. Official petition forms will be available in the UA Office on Friday, September 19. Talk to your house president for details.

The UA will have its first regular meeting on either October 2 or October 9. Meetings are generally every two weeks on Thursday evenings. There are five regular meetings and one Saturday symposium scheduled for the fall term. Each meeting will feature a particular person or group such as President Gray or the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs, and discuss issues of importance in the college at MIT.

This year should be progressive and exciting.

A New Year — Volunteers Needed

During September, we are involved in organizing and planning for the coming year. We have lots of projects available. Now is the time for elections and committee appointments. We need qualified volunteers to help out in the UA.

Please consider running for some of the positions noted below. You'll find it easy to get involved, and you'll make new friends and develop valuable managerial skills and talents. It's rewarding to make a difference at MIT.

MIT Social Council — At-large Seats

The UA Social Committee has been reorganized. We feel the new set-up is more open to new ideas and participation. The main planning, funding, and execution of campus social activities will be coordinated by the Executive Board of the MIT Social Council.

Right now we need people to step forward to serve on the Board. The IFC and DormCon will each elect one member to the Executive Board. The IFC will meet on September 24; just show up. If you live in a dormitory and are interested, see your house president.

The UAAP appoints two at-large seats on the Social Council. No experience is necessary, just lots of ideas. Apply via the UA and interested students should apply via the UA and the Office of the Dean of Student Life.

MIT Social Council...We need qualified volunteers to help out in the UA.

Food Co-op Feasibility Study Group

As part of their recommendations made last spring, the Committees on Campus Dining recommended the possible establishment of an MIT-sponsored Food Cooperative to serve the needs of students in dorms and independent living groups with cooking facilities.

We need to establish a small study group of students to work in conjunction with the Dean's Office to investigate the various issues and solutions involved in starting and maintaining an MIT Food Co-op.

Special Projects Team

Thanks to all of you who worked on the Summer Projects Team. Your help was invaluable and we got a lot accomplished. There will be a meeting of the Special Projects Team tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 8:30pm in Room 400 of the Student Center. All are welcome to attend.

The UA has many projects in the works. Please call or stop by if you have any ideas or would like to help. If you have any comments or suggestions, please contact Chuck Markham (UAAP) or Nick Adams (UAVP) or leave a message with the UA secretary. The UA office is located on the 4th floor of the Student Center, Room W20-401, Telephone x3-2698.

Discount Bike Locks Now!

The UA will be selling Citadel Bike Locks at discount prices until October 8th. One hundred and forty-fifty bicyclists were stolen on campus in 1979. The UA is offering this as a special service for students to help cut down bicycle theft. So, if you need a good lock, here is your chance to get one at a good price. To purchase your lock, contact Nick Adams in the UA Office on any Monday or Wednesday afternoon. The cost of the lock (bracket plus tax included) is under twenty dollars.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1980
The average quality level of today's audio components is remarkable. But there are a number of components that deliver truly outstanding performance and value.

MSL's goal is to find these components. And offer them to you at very competitive prices.

At MSL, you'll find the best components the "big" companies offer. Like Sony turntables, receivers, and tape decks. And new, low-cost KLH loudspeakers that re-establish that company's leadership in performance-per-dollar.

MSL also has high-performance stereo from the leading audio specialty manufacturers. Including Revox, Lux, Denon, Sonus, Klipsch, and many others.

If you're looking for better sound, a trip to MSL will be rewarding. Because at MSL, you'll hear better stereo.
Sports

The Cambridge Forum, co-sponsored by the MIT Chaplains, announces their "Issues for Action" lecture series for the fall. All lectures are held Wednesday evenings at 8 pm at 3 Church Street, Harvard Square, and are open to the public without charge. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 8, "What is the next move for women clergy?" Suzanne Hatt, Episcopal Divinity School Associate Professor; Jessica Citron, MIT Chaplain; Barbara Harrison, St. John the Baptist Church Coordinator.

Oct. 15, "Should we regulate DNA and gene research?" Zach Harshanyi, Office of Technology Assessment, Stanford University Assistant Professor.

Oct. 29, "Should we continue institutional affirmative action?" Albert Sacks, Harvard Law School Dean; Nancy Randolph, Special Assistant to the President of Harvard University.

Nov. 5, "Where does China go from here?" Ross Terrill, Harvard University East Asia Research Associate.

Nov. 12, "Should we decriminalize victimless crime?" William Roman, attorney; W. Arthur Garrity, Federal Judge.

Nov. 19, "How viable is anti-inflation growth?" Lester Thurow, Sloan School Professor.

Dec. 3, "What is the future of religious power in Iran?" Michael Fischer, Harvard Associate Professor of Anthropology.

The Cambridge Forum, co-sponsored by the MIT Chaplains, announces their "Issues for Action" lecture series for the fall. All lectures are held Wednesday evenings at 8 pm at 3 Church Street, Harvard Square, and are open to the public without charge. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 8, "What is the next move for women clergy?" Suzanne Hatt, Episcopal Divinity School Associate Professor; Jessica Citron, MIT Chaplain; Barbara Harrison, St. John the Baptist Church Coordinator.

Oct. 15, "Should we regulate DNA and gene research?" Zach Harshanyi, Office of Technology Assessment, Stanford University Assistant Professor.

Oct. 29, "Should we continue institutional affirmative action?" Albert Sacks, Harvard Law School Dean; Nancy Randolph, Special Assistant to the President of Harvard University.

Nov. 5, "Where does China go from here?" Ross Terrill, Harvard University East Asia Research Associate.

Nov. 12, "Should we decriminalize victimless crime?" William Roman, attorney; W. Arthur Garrity, Federal Judge.

Nov. 19, "How viable is anti-inflation growth?" Lester Thurow, Sloan School Professor.

Dec. 3, "What is the future of religious power in Iran?" Michael Fischer, Harvard Associate Professor of Anthropology.

Your foreign language ability is valuable!

Translations into your native language are needed for industrial literature. You will be well paid to prepare these translations on an occasional basis. Assignments are made according to your area of technical knowledge.

We are currently seeking translators for:

- Arabic
- Chinese
- Danish
- Dutch
- Farsi
- French
- German
- Greek
- Italian
- Japanese
- Korean
- Norwegian
- Polish
- Portuguese
- Romanian
- Spanish
- Swedish
- and others.

Into-English translations from Russian, East European languages and many others also available.

Foreign language typists also needed.

All this work can be done in your home!

Linguistic Systems, Inc. is New England’s largest translation agency, located a block north of the Central Sq. subway station.

For application and test translation call Ms. Tabetie 864-3900

HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL

MBA PROGRAM

An Admissions Representative from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration will be on campus

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1

to meet with students interested in the two-year MBA Program

Contact the Career Planning and Placement Center for more details and to sign up for an information session.

Harvard Business School is committed to the principle of equal educational opportunity and evaluates candidates without regard to race, sex, creed, national origin or handicap.

Congratulations

Paul E. Gray

on his appointment as President of M.I.T.
I\ll good chances. The loss was the se-shall, tetis 42:24 equalizer only three minutes later, champs, fought back to score the year's Division II1 national Guillermo Abadia '82 at just vantage on Bill Uhle's goal from opened strong, taking a 1-0 ada well played and hard-fought find took the lead for good at 1 1:45 of the first half. Babson, last
MIT edged the Crimson 12-10 last Friday at the Alumni Pool. (Photo by Al O'Connor.)

DENIED! The Harvard Goalie managed to deflect this shot by MIT's John Belzer but it wasn't enough as
MIT edged the Crimson 12-10 last Friday at the Alumni Pool. (Photo by Al O'Connor.)

The soccer team was edged by Babson in its home opener, 2-I, in
a well played and hard-fought game Saturday afternoon. MIT
opened strong, taking a 1-0 ad-advantage on Bill Uhle's goal from Guillermo Abadia '82 at just 11:45 of the first half. Babson, last year's Division III national champs, fought back to score the equalizer only three minutes later, and took the lead for good at 4:24 of the first half. Neither team could score in the second half, though both squads had good chances. The loss was the second in as many games for MIT.

Soccer

Cross Country
The Engineers split their open-ning meet with RPI and WPI
Saturday at Franklin Park. RPI
won the meet, with the score RPI
10, MIT 38. WPI 34. Next on the
Tech schedule is the Greater
Boston Conference meet, at
Franklin Park on October 14.

Football
Opening its third season in 70 years, Tech's club football squad was beaten by Norwalk (Conn.)
Community College, 28-19.
Quarterback Barry Jordan '83 provided MIT's only score on a five yard run. The Engineers took the first half lead before the Engineers exploded for eight third quarter goals to put the game away. Harvard made the score close with four goals in the last period. Dave Erickson '82 paced the Tech attack with four goals and three assists, with Mark LaRow '82 and goalie Kowtko also playing key roles in the victory.

WATER POLO
The 1980 edition of MIT water polo began on a positive note with a 12-10 triumph over Harvard on Friday evening at Alumni Pool. The Crimson, who were blown out in encounters with MIT last year, kept it close (4-4 first half) before the Engineers
won the meet, with the score RPI
30, MIT 38, WPI 64. Next on the
Tech schedule is the Greater
Boston Conference meet, at
Franklin Park on October 14.

ATTENTION!

Food Service Schedule Changes
for Inaugural Events

WALKER MORRIS HALL:
CLOSED WEDNESDAY 9/24, for Dinner Only
CLOSED FRIDAY 9/26, All Day
OPEN SATURDAY 9/27, All Day
for Commons meals

STUDENT CENTER:
LOBDELL CLOSED Sat., 9/27, All Day
Commons served in Walker
TWENTY CHIMNEYS OPEN
Sat., 9/27, 8am to 7pm