

Killian Kick-Off Lets The Rush Begin Despite Format Change

By Brett Altschul
NEWS EDITOR

A much-modified Killian Kick-Off started the official process of rush yesterday.

Despite periodic misting and patches of mud, the weather remained reasonable, so that the event didn't need to move indoors, as it did last year.

The biggest change in the Kick-Off this year was the more relaxed atmosphere, and the less-restrictive regulations. Living groups were allowed to advertise as soon as they arrived but were forbidden from carrying off freshmen once rush officially began, as had been common in previous years.

The change was designed to make the whole event more friendly, said Katherine E. Hardacre '99, chair of the Interfraternity Council Judicial Committee.

Freshmen and upperclassmen were supposed to mix gradually, Hardacre said. The mixing could go on before the official beginning of rush, she added.

However, until the ceremonial opening of rush, upperclassmen were not allowed to pass out materials to freshmen or to try to recruit them, Hardacre said.

Since people were no longer forbidden from displaying their fraternity letters, they couldn't be prohibited from answering freshmen's questions about their house even before rush officially began, she said.

This year marked the first time that dormitories were allowed to participate in Killian Kick-Off, with dormitory rush beginning at the same time as fraternity rush.

A brother of Tau Epsilon Phi dances before a bemused audience yesterday during Killian Kick-off.

Few dormitories displayed the same kind of extensive preparation for the Kick-Off as the other living groups. However, the East Campus

Kick-off, Page 9

Housing Changes Prompted by Turmoil

By Frank Dabek
NEWS EDITOR

As freshmen make their rounds touring MIT's off campus living options this week, they are walking in the twilight of an 125 year tradition. A series of events and decisions in the past year has had major repercussions for the Institute's housing system.

Analysis

President Charles M. Vest sealed the fate of freshmen rush when he announced to the MIT community and the world that all freshmen would live in dormitories beginning in the fall of 2001. Vest cited the still unreleased report of the Task Force on Student Life and Learning, which recommended moving freshmen to campus, when making his announcement.

One cannot ignore, however, the influence that a string of alcohol incidents on and off campus beginning with the death of Scott S. Krueger '01 must have had on Vest.

Potter report predates decision

The idea of placing freshmen in Institute housing is older than the tragedy of last year, however. In 1989, the report of the Freshmen Housing Committee, known commonly as the Potter Report after its chairman, Professor Mary C. Potter, recommended that freshmen live in on-campus housing for their freshman year and be given the option to move off-campus during their sophomore year. The committee hoped to encourage diversity among students and an identification with the Institute. It expressed concerns that the housing system was unprepared for the increasing number of women in entering classes.

In an interview with The Tech during at the end of his first year as president, Vest said of the housing system and the Potter report, "I don't think it's clear that a system that served this institution very well in a day and age when the student body was almost entirely male and extremely homogeneous in its makeup will necessarily be the best system for 10 years or 20 years from now."

The Potter report was never even brought before the faculty for a vote, however. Its sweeping changes were unpopular with large portions of the student body and with alumni faculty.

Chorover provokes debate

The tragedy of last year provided a completely different environ-

Housing, Page 9

Hoyt C. Hottel SM '24

Professor of Chemical Engineering Hoyt C. Hottel SM '24 passed away August 18 at his home in Winchester, MA. He was 95 years old.

Hottel came to MIT in 1922 from the University of Indiana. After getting his masters in chemical engineering in 1924, he stayed at MIT, working as an Institute fellow in fuel and gas and as director of the School of Chemical Engineering Practice.

He joined the faculty as a professor in 1928 and became a full professor in 1941. He was named the first Carbon P. Dubbs Professor of Chemical Engineering in 1965.

Professor Hottel helped found the Fuels Research Laboratory and directed it from 1929 to 1968. He also chaired the MIT Research Committee on Solar Energy from 1938 to 1964.

Hottel played an active role in research during World War II, serving as the chair of the National Defense Research Committee's group that developed incendiaries. He also led the Armed Forces Special Weapons Project Panel on Thermal Radiation.

In recognition of his work, he was honored with the Medal of Merit and Great Britain's Kings Medal for Service to the Cause of Freedom.

Hottel was named professor emeritus in 1968, but he continued to teach and work. He lectured overseas at the University of Newcastle in New South Wales, and in South Africa.

Hottel also got involved in politics. In 1984, at the height of the Cold War, he volunteered, along with 55 scientists from 13 countries, to go to the Soviet Union in exchange for the release of dissident Yelena Bonner, who was fighting to get permission to go overseas for medical treatment. It was feared that if she went overseas she would not return to the Soviet Union.

Hottel, Page 9

Jim Matthews speaks to students yesterday in Kresge Auditorium about the dangers of alcohol on campus in "Beer, Booze, and Books... a guide to college drinking," an interactive presentation featuring video clips of MIT students.

Phish phans enjoy the band's annual concert in Maine.

Page 6

Comics

Page 8

OPINION

New England offers a varied landscape and has a rich history to enjoy.

Page 5

World & Nation	2
Opinion	4
Arts	6
TechCalendar	9

WORLD & NATION

A Year Later, Royals Have A New Look

THE WASHINGTON POST

LONDON

When the news from Paris reached here early on a Sunday morning one year ago, a tidal wave of shock and grief engulfed Britain. Then, fairly quickly, the sadness over the death of Princess Diana evolved into anger — anger at Prince Charles, the cheating ex-husband, and anger at Queen Elizabeth, the seemingly cold and disapproving mother-in-law.

This weekend, as Britons troop to church services and memorial marches marking the first anniversary of the fateful auto accident on Aug. 31, 1997, the national sorrow persists. What has sharply changed, though, is the public attitude toward the royal family.

The anger has been transformed into widespread approval. A year after Diana's death, Queen Elizabeth, Prince Charles, and the monarchy itself are enjoying the strongest popular support that they have seen in years.

Opinion surveys taken just after the intensely emotional funeral service for Diana last September showed that only 42 percent of the country approved of Prince Charles's conduct; only 40 percent thought he would make a "good king." New polls published this week give the 49-year-old heir apparent an approval rating of 63 percent. For the first time in years, a majority — 54 percent — said he would make a good king.

A year ago, 72 percent of those surveyed agreed that the Queen was "out of touch." This week, more than 75 percent were recorded as saying that she has "learned a lesson" from Diana's death. The Queen's personal approval rating was above 70 percent in several recent polls.

The rage at Charles and his family was so strong a year ago that only 38 percent of Britons surveyed last September thought the monarchy would survive. Now, 54 percent of the British people say the monarchy will survive through Prince Charles's expected reign. Just 18 percent today agree with the suggestion that the country would be better off without the royal family.

Panama Votes on Successive Terms for President

LOS ANGELES TIMES

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

By Sunday, Panamanians must sort the lofty ideals from the personal ambitions to decide in a referendum whether their presidents — particularly their current president, Ernesto Perez Balladares — can run for re-election.

Constitutional provisions adopted after dictator Gen. Manuel Noriega was ousted from power by a 1989 U.S. invasion and arrested on drug trafficking charges forbid presidents from holding consecutive terms.

The idea was to break with Panama's tradition of strongman rule by forcing presidents to leave office after five years.

Now, critics in both Panama and the United States warn that reinstating re-election would threaten the fragile democracy established at the cost of hundreds of U.S. and Panamanian lives. They point out that Peru permitted re-election earlier in the decade and that its re-elected president appears to be positioning himself to seek a third term.

Albania Expands Crackdown Against Arabs

THE WASHINGTON POST

TIRANA, ALBANIA

Albania has launched a broad crackdown on Arab and Islamic groups and individuals at the urging of U.S., Italian, and German intelligence officials who helped uncover a series of terrorist networks here, including one associated with Saudi expatriate Osama bin Laden and another organized by radical Algerians, officials here say.

The effort amounts to a substantial expansion of the intelligence probe earlier this summer that led to joint arrests by the CIA and Albanian authorities here in late June and mid-July of at least three Islamic militants who allegedly are associated with bin Laden. Some Albanian and U.S. officials now say they believe — without being able to prove it — that those arrests likely influenced the timing of the Aug. 7 bombings of U.S. embassies in Tanzania and Kenya, which Washington has blamed on bin Laden's organization.

The Albanian investigation is still in an early stage and no clear picture has emerged of the extent of infiltration by terrorist groups, officials here say.

But several said they already have confirmed that the groups not only were using Albania as a haven from foreign law enforcement agencies but also were organizing support networks here to help terrorists use Albania as a gateway between the Middle East and other countries in Europe or elsewhere.

"Islamic terrorists had been hiding in this country... [including some] who were thinking of organizing a bomb attack against the American Embassy or against the [U.S.] aid community," said Albanian Prime Minister Fatos Nano in an interview. He said that "due to aggressive action by this government, we blocked many things" and extradited some of the alleged terrorists to Egypt.

WEATHER

Return to Sunny Skies

NATIONAL WEATHER SERVICE

Sunday: Partly sunny. High near 85°F (29°C). Southwest wind 10 to 20 mph.

Tonight: Partly cloudy. Low near 65°F (18°C).

Monday: Partly sunny. High near 80°F (27°C).

Russian Prime Minister Says Free Market is Here to Stay

By Richard C. Paddock

LOS ANGELES TIMES

MOSCOW

Acting Russian Prime Minister Viktor S. Chernomyrdin sought to assure his people and the West on Saturday that Russia will not revert to Soviet-style state control to rescue its beleaguered economy from its current crisis.

With a summit meeting between Presidents Clinton and Boris N. Yeltsin scheduled to begin here Tuesday, Chernomyrdin said that Russia's main goal continues to be the establishment of a market economy and a democratic society.

"We have already entered the world economy, and there will be no return to the past," he said in a statement broadcast on nationwide television.

Chernomyrdin's remarks were an attempt to restore calm after a tumultuous week in which the Cabinet was fired, the value of the currency plummeted, and Yeltsin was compelled to go on television to deny that he was about to resign.

Dealing simultaneously with a political and a fiscal crisis, Chernomyrdin, parliamentary leaders and representatives of the Kremlin met for much of Saturday to hammer out a pact for reconstituting the government and reviving the economy.

The members of the negotiating group said they were close to agreement, but the real test will come when the president — a tenacious fighter who has long clung to power — is asked as early as Sunday to sign a document that will force him to give up some of his authority.

According to the constitution, the Communist-dominated Duma, the lower house of parliament, must vote on whether to confirm the prime minister.

Now, Duma leaders want the power to confirm or reject all Cabinet ministers before they will agree to Yeltsin's choice of Chernomyrdin. They also want Yeltsin's guarantee that Chernomyrdin will have a free hand in selecting his Cabinet and that the president will not dismiss the government for at least a year.

The Communists' goal is to obtain seats in the Cabinet for at least a handful of their members and win a greater say in government policies.

Negotiations over the power-sharing pact touched off a firestorm of controversy earlier in the week when the Communists disclosed that the Kremlin was seeking a clause granting the president immunity from prosecution and financial security for his family if he was to resign.

After Yeltsin told the nation Friday night that he will not quit and that it would be "impossible" to remove him from office before his term ends in the year 2000, the Kremlin said its representatives no longer would seek the immunity and security provisions.

In Moscow, the arrival of the weekend seemed to take some of the edge off the crisis mood. Angry bank customers no longer crowded sidewalks outside banks trying to withdraw their savings.

Russians who earlier had hoarded dollars out of fear that their currency, the ruble, would keep dropping, began buying rubles again. Some small currency exchange booths even ran out of rubles, and the currency's value rose somewhat. In some places, it was trading as high as nine to the dollar, compared to 12 to the dollar at some locations Friday.

But prices remained high, especially for imported goods, as some shoppers stocked up on food that can be stored easily — just in case the crisis worsens.

In his televised remarks, Chernomyrdin attempted to reassure bank depositors that they will not lose their savings, despite the seizure of one major bank and a drop of at least 40 percent last week in the value of the ruble.

"The main thing is to make sure people don't suffer," Chernomyrdin said.

"For this, we should use our power, and we will use it as much as necessary. You can be calm. You will get your savings."

Trying to ease tensions before the presidential summit, the acting prime minister acknowledged that "exotic formulas" offered by Communists to end the crisis were "scaring a lot of businessmen and politicians in the West." But he said Western countries need not fear a Communist takeover.

To emphasize the point, he named three liberal officials who served in the old Cabinet — including acting Deputy Prime Minister Boris Fedorov — to form a team responsible for continuing Western-style market policies in the new government.

"We have a democratic country," he told the weekly German magazine Welt am Sonntag. "The Communists represent the interests of a considerable part of the population, and, representing their interests, they should influence the government. Naturally, by democratic methods."

Clinton Reveals New Plans for Managed Care Patient Appeals

By Alissa J. Rubin

LOS ANGELES TIMES

WASHINGTON

With Republicans and Democrats still at odds over a comprehensive bill to protect patients, President Clinton announced a significant regulation that would dramatically speed up the appeal process for the 120 million Americans who have private, employer-sponsored health plans.

When a treatment is denied, patients would be entitled to an expedited appeal.

Health plans would have 72 hours to rule on an appeal in an emergency and 30 days if the contested procedure was not an emergency. Currently, plans have up to 90 days to respond in non-emergency cases and an appeal can often take as much as six months.

But the federal regulation is a far cry from the comprehensive patient protections that Clinton, congressional Democrats and a handful of Republicans are pushing. Those protections would provide easier access to specialists, appeals to an independent review board outside of the health plan and guaranteed coverage at the nearest hospital for emergencies.

"What we're doing today is trying to give quick and prompt appeals through an internal review process to the insurance companies and plans that are within our jurisdiction," Clinton said in his Saturday radio address. "But it is simply not enough. That's why I've worked so hard to pass a patient's bill of rights available to all Americans in all plans... [a bill] that would say medical decisions should be made by doctors, not accountants."

In making health care the topic of Saturday's radio address, Clinton appeared to be reminding people that he intends to fight for his public policy agenda despite his personal troubles.

He criticized Republican leaders for blocking a full debate on managed care regulation. "The Republican leadership in both houses has not allowed full and open debate on the issue. The Senate hasn't even held a single vote," he said. "But, remember, this is not a partisan issue. Nobody asks your party affiliation when you visit your doctor."

Most private plans are governed by the 1974 Employee Retirement and Income Security Act and its health care rules have gone virtually unchanged for nearly 20 years. In that time the health insurance system has been transformed from one dominated by fee-for-service insurance to one dominated by managed care.

Today, 75 percent of all private insured Americans are in some kind of managed care plan, which attempts to hold down costs by limiting access to specialists, expensive treatments and tests.

Indeed, the old rules are so ill-suited to today's health system that private employers and health insurance plans have even urged the Department of Labor, which oversees the employer plans, to overhaul the old regulations.

In part, such urgings were self-interested since employers and insurers feared a wholesale backlash against managed care, which could end up raising the cost of health care.

"Much of what patients are concerned about could be taken care of by responsible regulating," said Paul Dennett, vice president for health policy at the Association of Private Pension and Welfare Plans, which represents large and midsized employer benefit plans. "There's absolutely no reason that the Labor Department's regulations and approach shouldn't be updated to reflect a new reality."

The American Association of Health Plans, which represents more than half of all managed care plans nationwide, also endorsed the principle of a quicker appeals.

"We've been very supportive of an expedited appeals process that would work as quickly as a patient's condition warranted it to work," said Susan Pisano, a spokeswoman for the group.

Over the past year, the White House has put in place guarantees for patients in government-run programs such as Medicare and Medicaid, including access to an independent appeal, payment for emergency treatment at any hospital and access to specialists.

But for Americans who get their health care through a plan offered by a private employer or who buy it on their own, the government's powers are far more limited. Clinton's announcement Saturday represented his first effort to make changes for them in the regulation of the private health insurance system.

Pilots Strike Forces Northwest To Temporarily Cancel Flights

By Frank Swoboda
THE WASHINGTON POST

WASHINGTON

Northwest Airlines Saturday canceled all flights until at least mid week in the face of a pilots strike that may be just the beginning of potential labor troubles for the nation's fourth-largest airline.

The airline announced it was canceling all of its 1,700 daily flights after more than 6,000 members of the Air Line Pilots Association walked off their jobs shortly after midnight Saturday in a dispute over a new labor contract.

Also canceled were hundreds of daily flights on Northwest's commuter operations that often provide the air link for thousands of small communities in the nation's mid-section.

Maggie Jacobsen, chairwoman of the National Mediation Board, who has been mediating the dispute, said she wanted to give both sides a few days to "reassess their positions." It is unlikely that there would be any new talks before mid-week.

The airline's labor troubles will move to a second front Monday when Northwest will have to answer a request by its largest union — the International Association of Machinists — that it be allowed by the National Mediation Board to strike in 30 days. The IAM represents 27,000 Northwest employees.

Northwest's 14,000 flight attendants also are involved in contract negotiations, but under the lengthy and cumbersome provisions of the Railway Labor Act which governs labor relations in the airline industry, they are a long way from being able to strike.

Under the Railway Labor Act, it is not uncommon for the negotiation process to last two years or longer before a union is free to strike.

In the meantime, the Department of Transportation and the National Economic Council have scheduled a Monday morning briefing at the White House to provide an assessment of the economic impact of the strike, according to administration officials.

President Clinton has refused to intervene in the Northwest dispute, saying the two sides should settle their differences themselves. But the White House has left the door open to future intervention if the strike isn't resolved quickly. Clinton could impose a 60-day cooling off period and send the strikers back to work while a special government panel makes recommendations for a settlement.

Northwest officials acknowledged that at least for the moment the strike has had much less of an impact than they had expected.

Justice Investigates Republicans' Potential Collusion With Tobacco

By Jonathan Weisman
THE BALTIMORE SUN

WASHINGTON

The Justice Department's criminal division is investigating allegations that Senate Republicans and the tobacco industry violated federal law by illegally colluding to torpedo anti-smoking legislation in June.

The department quietly informed Senate Democratic Leader Tom Daschle of South Dakota on Aug. 17 that it would examine whether the industry and Senate Republicans engaged in an illegal quid pro quo: political advertising in exchange for votes.

"The allegation that tobacco companies may have promised favorable political advertising in exchange for a senator's vote on specific legislation raises... concerns under the bribery and gratuity statutes," wrote Assistant Attorney General L. Anthony Sutin. "The criminal division is presently examining this allegation to determine whether any further investigation is warranted."

The landmark tobacco legislation collapsed in Congress on June 18. Before the vote, Sen. Mitch McConnell of Kentucky reportedly told fellow Republicans that tobacco industry officials had promised to continue running advertising through the November elections to try to provide political cover to Republican senators who would vote against the bill. The ads condemn the anti-smoking bill, which would impose sharply higher cigarette taxes, as another effort to raise taxes on ordinary Americans.

McConnell denies any quid pro quo. He says he received no assurances from the industry before the vote. Instead, said McConnell's spokesman, Robert Steurer, the senator merely made "a statement of the obvious": that he was sure the industry would continue to run advertisements simply because it would be in the industry's best interest to do so.

Industry officials say the TV commercials amounted to perfectly legal issue advertising that was not tied to any political support they might have received from Republicans. But Justice Department investigators decided there was enough evidence to merit further review.

The probe was prompted by Daschle's July 2 request that Attorney General Janet Reno examine whether an explicit promise of advertising in exchange for votes would violate federal election laws.

Kohl Confronts Disillusionment In Germany's East

THE WASHINGTON POST

BRANDENBURG, GERMANY

The boos and whistles began raining down on Helmut Kohl as soon as he mounted the stage in the market square of this dilapidated industrial city. When the chancellor of German unity began reciting his achievements, the chorus of catcalls nearly drowned out his amplified voice.

"Kohl must go! Kohl must go!" chanted many protesters in the crowd of 1,000 people, who had come to a campaign rally Thursday night to hear Europe's longest-serving leader make his pitch for an unprecedented fifth term after 16 years in office. As police in riot gear shoved unruly demonstrators behind barricades, other spectators jeered and waved signs saying: "Thanks for 20 percent unemployment" and "Enough with your broken promises!"

As he tours eastern Germany courting votes for the Sept. 27 national election, Kohl is confronting an ugly mood of disillusionment that has jeopardized his hopes for another comeback victory. Although some polls indicate he has narrowed the gap with Social Democratic rival Gerhard Schröder to as little as 3 percentage points, the hostility Kohl encounters at nearly every stop in the east suggests he is making no headway in recapturing the allegiance of Germany's most fickle swing voters.

Rampant despair over widespread joblessness and embittered dismay with capitalist society have compelled many easterners to turn against Kohl with a vengeance. Many politicians and commentators now believe Kohl's Christian Democrats could tumble to third place in the east, behind Schröder's Social Democrats and the former Communists known as the Party of Democratic Socialism.

Welcome back...
NOW GO AWAY!

Great deals on study, work and volunteer programs, airfares, and hotels.

Gift certificates for sale! European railpasses, and international student ID cards issued on the spot!

Council Travel

(I.E.E. Council on International Educational Exchange)

273 Newbury St., Boston (617) 266-1926

12 Eliot St., 2nd Fl., Cambridge (617) 497-1497

MIT Student Center, W20-024
84 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge (617) 225-2555

Graduate Student Council

Walker Memorial, 50-220 ☎ 253-2195

gsc-request@mit.edu 🌐 www.mit.edu/activities/gsc

Graduate Orientation Calendar

Information Booth

10 AM - 4 PM, Sept. 1-3
10 AM - 12 PM, Sept. 4

Tuesday, September 1

Activities Midway 8 - 10 PM
Athletics Gateway 7:30 - 9 PM

Thursday, September 3

Activities Carnival & Info Fair
1 - 5 PM
BBQ Dinner 6 PM **
Bim Skala Bim Band 8 PM

Friday, September 4

Beverages at Muddy Charles Pub **
Boston Trolley Tour 2 - 4 PM **
GSC Social 5:30 - 7:30 PM

ID Photos

9 AM - 12 PM, Sept. 2
9 AM - 4:30 PM, Sept. 3

Saturday, September 5

Hiking Trip 7 AM - 10 PM **

Sunday, September 6

Boston Harbor Cruise 7 - 10:30 PM **

Monday, September 7

Red Sox Baseball Game 7 - 10:30 PM **

Friday, September 11

Beverages at the Thirsty Ear 7 PM - 1 AM **

Saturday, September 12

Whale Watch 11 AM - 4 PM **
Night on Town (Meet at 50-220) 9 PM - ?

9 Calendar

▶ SEPTEMBER

- 09 General Council Meeting *
- 09 Deadline for Fall Funding Applications
- 14 Fall Funding Board Meeting *
- 15 Academics, Research & Careers Meeting *
- 17 Publications Board Meeting *
- 22 Housing & Community Affairs Meeting *
- 28 Activities Committee Meeting *

* at 5:30pm in Room 50-220.
All graduate students are welcome. Food is provided.

 MUST OBTAIN TICKETS FROM INFORMATION BOOTH

1998 Graduate Student Career Fair

The Academics, Research, & Careers Committee is currently soliciting resumes for the 1998 Graduate Career Fair. Resumes can be submitted to the GSC office (50-220) any time until Sept. 18 and we are accepting both hard copies and electronic versions. One page is allowed for masters students and two pages for Ph.D. candidates. More information can be found at: <http://www.mit.edu/activities/gsc/CareerFair/students.html> or by emailing gsc-careerfair@mit.edu.

OPINION

Letters To The Editor

A Decision Made In the Dark

The Tech received a copy of this letter addressed to President Charles M. Vest

As an MIT alumnus and a previous Interfraternity Council president, I must share with you my incredulity and anger at a decision that seems to have been made behind the backs of the entire fraternity, sorority and independent living group system and the alumni of that system.

Clearly, the system and MIT in general has been under an intense amount of scrutiny this year, but until I read your so-called "open letter" (you must have been using this phrase ironically, as it states a policy made in secret), I had much admiration for the way you and your administration had been handling the onslaught of media mis- and disinformation. It seemed to me that you were standing firm on the principle that MIT is a unique place in the U.S. university system, and that MIT students are deserving, by and large, of adult status. Clearly, I was wrong.

The policy of forcing freshmen to live in dormitories indicates that MIT is following the nationwide trend toward returning to en loco parentis. Some have said that this is about allowing students to have more time to make choices, that Orientation causes undue stress, etc. But, MIT by nature is a place that forces students to think and act quickly — you have undoubtedly heard the metaphorical expression that MIT is like taking a drink from a firehose — and the Residence and Orientation Week system as it existed from the 1970s through the 1990s was a good, though of course not perfect, introduction to the realities of MIT.

I would like to know what, precisely, the administration thinks is wrong with the current Orientation process. In this case, I operate according to the old maxim, "If it ain't broke, don't fix it." In my view, Orientation at MIT has worked well, for the vast majority. The last time I checked, the overwhelming majority of MIT students stay in the same place for four years — there is no other school in the country that can make that claim.

I have argued, since the days of Dean for Student Affairs Shirley M. McBay, that MIT students adhere to this "low mobility" pattern for two reasons: first, that MIT is a really demanding place, and small group solidarity is crucial to one's psychological stability throughout one's MIT career, especially in year one; and second, that most students are happy with the choices they make.

This is not to suggest that Orientation is perfect. If it were up to me, I would make Orientation longer, if possible. But I think on the whole the system as it existed from the 1970s through the 1990s worked quite well. It was intense, chaotic, and somewhat harsh, as well as exhilarating, challenging, and lots of fun — giving freshmen an accurate capsule portrait of MIT life.

Unfortunately, this new policy means that many of the choices that I and my cohorts had will cease to exist; the FSILG system undoubtedly will contract severely. Assuming that the "low mobility" pattern of MIT students with regard to housing continues, few will make the effort to attempt to join fraternities once they've gotten comfortable with dorm life. MIT will become like everywhere else — with 10-15 percent of the men choosing to go through rush. I predict that 30 percent of the FSILGs will shut their doors within four years, many of these the newer and more innovative ILGs, which are those with less deep-pocketed alumni.

A final point. MIT students are not by and large the most social folks when they get to MIT — fraternities have "forced" them, generally in a very positive sense of the term, to learn how to be social. Naturally, there have been excesses in this regard, and this is in no way intended to exonerate chapters for tragic incidents arising, perhaps, from social pressuring. But, if my memory serves me correctly, if we were to do a tally of substance-related deaths in the past 10 years, there would be an even balance between the dorms and fraternities.

It would be a huge tragedy if the FSILG system, the cornerstone of MIT undergraduate life, were to be undermined by what appears to be administrative fiat. I wonder if MIT students or the Alumni IFC got a vote on this?

President Vest, I am sure you do not wish to be remembered as the president who fundamentally changed MIT undergraduate life for the worse, but I fear that twenty years from now, that is how you will be remembered. You can rest assured, as well, that I will make no further donations to MIT if this policy is carried forth.

Jeffrey M. Hornstein '89

Chairman

Josh Bittker '99

Editor in Chief

Douglas E. Heimburger '00

Business Manager

Joey Dieckhans '00

Managing Editor

Erica S. Pfister '00

NEWS STAFF

Editors: Brett Altschul '99, Frank Dabek '00, Zareena Hussain '00; Associate Editors: Carina Fung '99, Jean K. Lee '99, Susan Buchman '01, Jennifer Chung '01, Krista L. Niece '01; Staff: Orli G. Bahcall '99, Shawdee Eshghi '99, Eric Sit '99, Aileen Tang '99, May K. Tse '99, Sharmin Ghaznavi '00, Stuart Jackson '00, Dudley W. Lamming '00, Katie Jeffreys '01, Dalié Jiménez '01; Meteorologists: Michael C. Morgan PhD '95, Greg Lawson G, Gerard Roe G, Chris E. Forest, Marek Zebrowski.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Editor: Ryan M. Ochylski '01; Associate Editors: Moksha Ranasinghe '99, Francisco Tanudjaja '00; Staff: Jason C. Yang '99, Roxanne Lau '01, Steve K. Lim '01, Ágnes Borszédi.

OPINION STAFF

Editors: Naveen Sunkavally '01, Michael J. Ring '01; Staff: Dan Dunn '94, Anders Hove '96, Mitali Dhar '99, Wesley T. Chan '00, Jim J. O'Donnell '00, Seth Bisen-Hersh '01, Andrew J. Kim '01, Elaine Y. Wan '01.

SPORTS STAFF

Editor: Shao-Fei Moy '98; Staff: Chris Brocoum '00.

ARTS STAFF

Editor: Joel M. Rosenberg '99; Staff: Thomas Chen G, Steven R. L. Millman G, Vladimir V. Zelevinsky G, Teresa Huang '97, David V. Rodriguez '97, Mark Huang '99.

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF

Editors: Gregory F. Kuhnen '00, Rebecca Loh '01; Staff: Rich Fletcher G, Jonathan Li G, Gabriele Migliorini G, Wan Y. W. Morshidi G, Thomas E. Murphy G, Arifur Rahman G, T. Luke Young G, Dennis Yancey '97, Ahmed Ait-Ghezala '99, Dan Rodriguez '99, David Tarin '99, Wendy Fan '00, Rita H. Lin '00, Karlene Rosera '00, Cornelia Tsang '00, Chun Hua Zheng '00, Ajai Bharadwaj '01, Courtney Clench '01, Ying Lee '01, Amy Yen '01, Miodrag Ćirković.

FEATURES STAFF

Anthony R. Salas '91, Pawan Sinha SM '92, Hugo M. Ayala G, Calista E. Tait G, Solar Olugebefola '99, Jessica Wu '99, Jennifer Dimase '01, Xixi D'Moon '01.

BUSINESS STAFF

Advertising Manager: Jennifer Koo '00; Operations Manager: Satwiksai Seshasai '01; Staff: Amy Cai '01.

TECHNOLOGY STAFF

Boris Zbarsky '01

EDITORS AT LARGE

Contributing Editor: Dan McGuire '99; Color Editor: Gábor Csányi G.

ADVISORY BOARD

V. Michael Bove '83, Robert E. Malchman '85, Thomas T. Huang '86, Deborah A. Levinson '91, Reuven M. Lerner '92, Josh Hartmann '93, Jeremy Hylton '94, Garlen C. Leung '95.

PRODUCTION STAFF FOR THIS ISSUE

Night Editor: Josh Bittker '99; Staff: Brett Altschul '99, Erica S. Pfister '00.

The Tech (ISSN 0148-9607) is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the academic year (except during MIT vacations), Wednesdays during January and monthly during the summer for $45.00 per year Third Class by The Tech, Room W20-483, 84 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass. 02139. Third Class postage paid at Boston, Mass. Non-profit Organization Permit No. 59720. POSTMASTER: Please send all address changes to our mailing address: The Tech, P.O. Box 397029, Cambridge, Mass. 02139-7029. Telephone: (617) 253-1541, editorial; (617) 258-8324, business; (617) 258-8226, facsimile. Advertising, subscription, and typesetting rates available. Entire contents © 1998 The Tech. Printed on recycled paper by MassWeb Printing Co.

Errata

Yesterday's housing guide in The Tech ["Residence Selection '98"] incorrectly labeled three living groups as all male when they are indeed male and female housing. The three groups are Delta Psi (No. 6), Epsilon Theta, and Fenway House.

Additionally, the guide had incorrect greek symbols for Chi Phi and Tau Epsilon Phi.

Finally, the guide incorrectly spelled the name of Fenway House's rush chair. It is Andrew J. Lynn '01.

Opinion Policy

Editorials are the official opinion of The Tech. They are written by the editorial board, which consists of the chairman, editor in chief, managing editor, news editors, and opinion editors.

Dissents are the opinions of the signed members of the editorial board choosing to publish their disagreement with the editorial.

Columns and editorial cartoons are written by individuals and represent the opinion of the author, not necessarily that of the newspaper.

Letters to the editor are welcome. Electronic submissions are encouraged and may be sent to letters@the-tech.mit.edu. Hard copy submissions may be addressed to The Tech, P.O. Box 397029, Cambridge, Mass. 02139-7029, or sent by interdepartmental mail to Room W20-483. All submissions are due by 4:30 p.m. two days before the date of publication.

Letters and cartoons must bear the authors' signatures, addresses, and phone numbers. Unsigned letters will not be accepted. No letter or cartoon will be printed anonymously without the express prior approval of The Tech. The Tech reserves the right to edit or condense letters; shorter letters will be given higher priority. Once submitted, all letters become property of The Tech, and will not be returned. The Tech makes no commitment to publish all the letters received.

To Reach Us

The Tech's telephone number is (617) 253-1541. E-mail is the easiest way to reach any member of our staff. If you are unsure who to contact, send mail to general@the-tech.mit.edu, and it will be directed to the appropriate person. The Tech can be found on the World-Wide Web at <http://the-tech.mit.edu>.

The Hub of the Universe

The New England area offers opportunity, history, and beauty to its newcomers.

Michael J. Ring

By now you have received many warm welcomes to the MIT community. Through the various Orientation activities in which you have participated, and through the early stages of rush, you have hopefully begun to sample and savor a small taste of Institute life. But what have you learned about the larger world around MIT? How welcome do you feel in the community of Boston and New England, the region where you will spend the next four years of your life, and very possibly many more beyond that?

Allow me to say: Welcome to Boston. Welcome to New England. Welcome to the finest city in the nation, and welcome to the most distinctive and charming region of the United States.

I must admit to being just slightly biased. I was born and raised in Massachusetts, went to high school in Rhode Island, and have now returned to the Bay State for my college years. But when you begin to learn about and explore this region, you will find I am not so biased at all. New England is a region of wondrous contrasts. It is the nexus of both our nation's history and its future. It is a place of technology yet antiquity, a region which is both urban yet rural, sheltering a people holding steadfast to tradition yet often creating changes in our society.

Bostonian Oliver Wendell Holmes called the Massachusetts State House "the hub of the solar system." Over the years we've corrected his modesty and now refer to Boston as "Hub of the Universe." It is a title with much justification.

You are privileged to be attending one of the world's finest academic institutions. Many other colleges and universities in New England are of the same caliber. We boast four Ivy League schools and a number of small, prestigious liberal arts institutions. The educational opportunities in New England far surpass those of other regions of the nation, something which you are now well-positioned to utilize as a student at MIT.

This city offers some of the nation's finest museums and cultural institutions as well. Our Museum of Fine Arts is world-renowned, and the Museum of Science, New England Aquarium, and Isabella Stuart Garner Museum have all justly received high accolades as well. Boston's Symphony and Pops Orchestras are already known to you as well.

New England is also the center of the nation's finance and technology. There is an excitement in the air of downtown Boston, as bankers and brokers bustle through their daily business. As an MIT student, you are likely very excited by the scientific and engineering developments at all the computer and biotechnology companies which have sprouted in the region. These companies offer you a wealth of opportunities through internships, research, and employment.

However, at the same time we New Englanders look to our future, we also remember our past. This region is the birthplace of America. Plymouth, although the second permanent English colony in the United States, reflects more truly the American spirit than the gaggle of royalists who landed thirteen years earlier several hundred miles to the south.

Settled for the principle of religious freedom, and reflecting the values of hard work and honesty still cherished by New Englanders today, Plymouth Colony is only the beginning of our storied history. Throughout colonial times we were the impetus for change, reform, and independence. It was in two small towns only about 15 miles from MIT where "the shot heard 'round the world" was fired. Over the history of the United States the sons and daughters of New England, from Adams to Webster to Coolidge to Kennedy, have served with honor in the government, fighting for values of tolerance, freedom, and understanding.

Outside the urbanized South, with which you are probably more familiar, you will discover a second, more rustic but equally handsome New England. From the hamlets of Western Massachusetts through the mountains of Vermont and New Hampshire into the forests of Maine resides the other face of New England. This side is one of nature's pristine beauty, of mountains and forests and waterfalls. It is one of a vibrant landscape, glowing and changing with the seasons. It is one of small towns and warm and friendly people.

I hope you will take advantage of the different tours during Orientation at your disposal and explore the cities of Boston and Cambridge. They are yours for your career at MIT; learn to enjoy and appreciate all they have to offer. In addition, I hope you will take some time during your college career to travel to other parts of the region. I am sure they will charm and delight you as well. No other region of the nation offers these contrasts.

Where else in America can you find both a vibrant, cosmopolitan metropolis and small, quaint, picturesque towns? Where else can you find a region so deep in history and culture yet always on the cutting edge of technology? I don't believe any other place in this country can really compare to New England.

New England will always hold a special place in my heart. This is where I have always lived and where I always hope to live. New England will always be my home. I hope soon you will take pride in saying it is your home as well. Welcome to New England and enjoy your stay. I hope it is both long and prosperous.

GABOR CSANYI—THE TECH

The Meltdown of a Nuclear Crisis

What happened to a highly touted problem that began only four months ago?

Naveen Sunkavally

Four months ago, the world was supposed to be fretting over a nuclear war. India had conducted two rounds of nuclear testing, once on May 11, and again two days later on May 13. Two weeks later, Pakistan responded by conducting five tests of their own, matching the number conducted by India.

At that time, President Clinton responded with anger, calling the tests a "terrible mistake," that would destabilize the region. He levied harsh sanctions against both countries, cutting off virtually all aid except humanitarian aid and restricting exports that could be used for weapons development.

These days, shock and astonishment over the possibility of a nuclear confrontation in South Asia have all but disappeared from headlines. Sure, there are some overriding factors that have made it easier for the United States to forget about India and Pakistan and their nuclear tests last May. For instance, developments surrounding a certain scandal compelled Clinton to reappropriate his time to quell domestic problems. Then, after two embassies were bombed and Clinton delivered his speech on August 17 to the nation, America went ahead and bombed alleged terrorist facilities in Sudan and Afghanistan to thwart terrorism. But I think there are other reasons that the supposed nuclear crisis of this past May has disappeared.

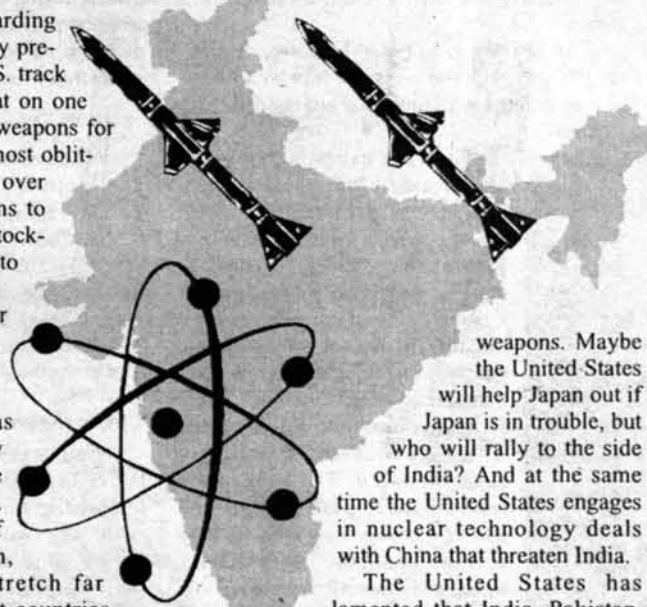

First and foremost, the United States has been exposed as a hypocrite. The U.S. position to give any advice regarding nuclear arms rests on a highly precarious position given the U.S. track record. Here is a country that on one hand has developed nuclear weapons for more than half-a-century, almost obliterated two cities, conducted over 1,000 nuclear tests, maintains to this date the largest nuclear stockpile, and yet has the audacity to dictate foreign policy.

Internationally, other countries have not done as much as the United States initially hoped. Most European countries, such as France, have not levied any sanctions on India despite the actions of the United States. Despite the typical words of condemnation and concern, most countries did not stretch far enough to cut off aid. Most countries realize that Pakistan's and India's actions were security measures, not attempts to go to war with each other.

Clinton has spoken much about closing membership to the nuclear club and keeping the number of nuclear powers to five. But with a certain subset of countries maintaining nuclear weapons and also trying to keep other countries out, the whole world is in danger. The policy must be all or nothing. Either every country has nuclear arms or no country has nuclear arms. Security concerns are first for any nation, and with other countries possessing nuclear weapons and trying to maintain that position, no one is safe.

India and Pakistan face particular threats in that they are each bordered by two nuclear countries and in that they also have little protection from other countries with nuclear weapons. Maybe the United States will help Japan out if Japan is in trouble, but who will rally to the side of India? And at the same time the United States engages in nuclear technology deals with China that threaten India.

The United States has lamented that India, Pakistan, and Israel have not signed the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty yet. However, India has invited other countries numerous times to sign a treaty forcing all countries to do away with nuclear weapons. The United States, among others already with nuclear weapons, has not agreed. And why would the United States agree? There's always the possibility of nuclear war, and for the United States, as for India, that possibility, however minute it may be, outweighs any other concerns for total peace. And so India continues to withhold signing the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty. The treaty is simply not very comprehensive at all.

United States business interests have also had an effect on the disappearance of a "nuclear crisis" from the headlines. Business interests often have had a strong root in American politics, sometimes motivating and determining politics in this nation. Who can forget the power that Tammany Hall, Boss Tweed, Carnegie Steel, and Rockefeller oil have levied on American politics? Today, tobacco and other lobbies play the same role and with the same intent, though seemingly more subdued.

In the current situation in South Asia, America has realized that putting sanctions on India might hurt America more than India. In fact, a San Jose Mercury News investigation revealed that Themis Computer of California supplied India with some of the core nuclear technology necessary for India to manufacture its reactors. In terms of human capital, America and Silicon Valley have a lot to lose in the computer industry. Other companies realize that by cutting off ties with India, they will only lose Indian business to Europe. For example, Boeing has $2.5 billion at stake with Indian airlines, and it is losing business and ground to its archrival in Europe, Airbus Industries. Banks and credit firms, such as American Express and Citicorp, also have lost a lot since bank lending to India has been restricted by U.S. sanctions.

On the flip side, U.S. sanctions do not hurt India that heavily. To start off with, most Indian exports, such as gems, timber, electronics, and industry, are not affected by the sanctions. Second, India is a self-sufficient country for the most part, and any lost U.S. business can be made up in Europe.

The reality of the situation is that the U.S. is suffering from withdrawal symptoms in an age when power has shifted away from the United States towards other countries. The real threat India's and Pakistan's weapons pose is not to each other but a perceived one to the United States and its record of dictating and trying to enforce world policy.

THE ARTS

CONCERT REVIEW

Phish' Lemonwheel

Lights and music delight Phans under the Maine sky

By Joel Rosenberg

ARTS EDITOR

Phish's Lemonwheel
August 15 and 16
Limestone, Maine

Second of Two Parts

The sky up in Maine is huge, and gives the feeling of being a dome with a hundred mile diameter. Before the first set on the first day of Phish's Lemonwheel it was overcast, filled with a gray haze that gently subdued the anxiousness of the tens of thousands of fans waiting in front of the stage that was to be the throne for the kings of the land.

Mobius Better Blues

In an almost religious pilgrimage, the fans had streamed en masse from the parking/camping lot to the concert area, which was half a mile away to preserve pre-show secrecy and during-show seclusion. The logo for Lemonwheel was a distorted Asian face with lemons for hair, and that's a decent representation of what was to be found in what guitarist and lead singer Trey Anastasio labeled The Garden of Infinite Pleasantries. A playground designed to supplement Phish when they weren't playing, it was guarded by two 30-foot-tall bird-shaped weather vanes.

Exploration revealed bridges and lakes, a porta-potty tower, and a rock garden that yielded hours of amusement for those who chose to create their own Zen structures. Mounted on a platform were kegs, car doors, barrels, and fuse boxes that people could beat on together, a nice group dynamics project. Hiding spots ranged from huts with motion-sensitive lights to thickly thatched wisps of wood that provided unique solitary confinement. Man-made mounds of dirt gave extraordinary vantage points for those who reserved their places early enough, and musicians and street performers were scattered throughout this fantasy land.

The centerpiece of the Garden was "the Lemonwheel," a ferris wheel whose cars had been rearranged so that every two cars faced each other. The trace of each car would make for an interesting mathematical function as they orbited around each other, facing the car in front up top and the car in back down below. If "lemon" implies "defective," the genius who thought of this setup certainly had a lemon way of thinking. As great an idea as it was, I was disappointed to find a ride on the wheel was $3. Worth it, I suppose, but the time spent in line seemed investment enough to me. In any event, all these toys had the crowd restless for royalty to make their entrance.

GREGORY REC.

Phish's lead singer, Trey Anastasio, expresses the essence of the band at Lemonwheel.

Is this the Truman Show?

The crowd exploded when the band entered, and as they opened with "Mike's Song," the sky began to swirl. Miraculously, whether from the energy in the crowd, from the energy in the band, or from the invisible dome that really was surrounding the concert area, the clouds directly above the stage began to disappear. It was the same thing that had happened the year before at the Great Went, and I was once again stupefied by their mystical control over the weather. Course 12 would have had a field day.

When they played "Divided Sky" about halfway through their nearly two-hour first set, I lost myself in the fractal patterns the heavens were providing. First they did it, then they played it, and it was phenomenal. And as if that wasn't enough to get this party started, "Cities," a Talking Heads cover that has become the anthem of nomadic Phish-heads, declared Lemonwheel open for business. If every audience member was a string in Phish's instrument, they had us perfectly tuned by the time they closed the set with "Weekapaug Groove."

I: "Mike's Song" > "Simple," "Beauty of My Dreams,"

"Roget," "Split Open and Melt," "Poor Heart," "Moma Dance," "Divided Sky," "Water in the Sky," "Funky Bitch" > "Cities" > "Weekapaug Groove" (111 minutes)

The essence of Phish

You're either in on the joke, or you're not. And Phish loves inside jokes.

Between the first and second set each day was a long dinner break, which also gave time to find friends and look around the Garden. After meeting up with people and getting food, we started wandering and came upon a strange ceremony. Kids in Asian masks that resembled the logo walked slowly in a line, banging on chimes, while some tended a fire in a pit, and still others chopped vegetables. I was intrigued and decided to stick around to watch, even though my friends didn't care much about this strange cooking show. Phish rewards patience.

A guy with a half-smirk and a chef's hat started narrating:

"One day, the master returned home with a lemon."

The master, a sinister-looking, slightly scruffy guy, held up a lemon, to which everyone associated with the show announced "One Lemon!"

The chef explained how the master asked him about the significance of the lemon, to which the chef made some kind of profound remark which "caused the chef to gain two games on the Orioles." Over the next several minutes the master brought home ginger, carrots, and other vegetables, all of which the chef had a strange comment for, and for which he received a similarly strange reward. The split in the crowd between the mesmerized and the bored was seen in who seemed concerned that the set break was drawing to a close.

"One day the master returned home with a mushroom."

"What is the significance of the mushroom?" the master asked the chef.

"The mushroom..." the chef paused. "...is a shortcut to enlightenment. But it tastes good in a stew." Words of wisdom. More bustling around the scene.

"Finally, one day the master returned home with a fish."

"What is the essence of the fish?" the master asked the chef.

"The essence of the fish..." — another dramatic pause — "...is the head."

An Asian mask brought out a bowl of fish heads as the players all started chanting, "More fish heads! More Phish-heads!" And with that, the lights went out and the band returned for the second set.

GREGORY REC.

Fans look on as Phish performs at Lemonwheel in Limestone, Maine.

The chef's tag line: "It's all in how you tell it."

Energizer Bunny sets

The weather was as perfect as the music as the show got started again. Outside in the dark, light master Chris Kuroda illuminated the night sky with the bold colors and intricately patterned designs that are Phish's trademark. With just the right amount of haze in the air, the beams shined up to the heavens. And the Lemonwheel was now lit, it's fluorescent bulbs, while not light board controlled, flowing in and out of the circle hypnotically for those who were watching it. During "The Horse," standing under deep purples and a white spot, Trey made the place feel as small as a night club, which was part of the intimacy the band was going for as indicated by their decision not to use video screens this year. "Silent in the Morning" had me on the brink of tears thinking back to how "this exact thing happened to me just last year," "Chalkdust Torture" brought thoughts of impending school, and "Slave To The Traffic Light" reminded of the daily grind that was still several sets and hundreds of miles away.

After another break, the third set and encore was 80 minutes short. It was hard to believe they had played more than four hours already, especially when Trey announced they were going to fill the stage with candles, surround the concert area with a "ring of fire," and play a Brian Eno-esque ambient fourth set. Some people left for home, while others settled in for the half-hour delay. And while I was thinking about other things once the band started playing yet again, people described being in a dream-like state without being asleep during the hour-long jam. They finally stopped playing near two in the morning, well past the curfew they normally encounter at mainstream venues.

II: "The Wedge" > "Reba, Gumbo" > "Sanity, Tweezer" > "The Horse" > "Silent In The Morning," "Chalkdust Torture," "Slave To The Traffic Light" (85 minutes)

III: "NICU" > "David Bowie," "Strange Design," "Limb by Limb" > "Brian and Robert," "Loving Cup"

E: "Halley's Comet" > "Cavern," "Tweezer Reprise" (80 minutes)

IV: Ambient Jam (55 minutes)

Circus in town

After a good night's sleep and several hours to recover the next day, the troops returned to the trenches in mid-afternoon to catch day two. There were more street performer and more wandering minstrels, including an incredible musician, Jamie Janover, playing the hammered dulcimer, kind of like a harpsichord you bang with mini drumsticks. Incidentally, he had a bag from the Fourth Annual World Wide Web Consortium Meeting, and there was an MIT emblem on it.

The sky started clear this time, if everyone's heads didn't, and there was a new addition to the landscape — a giant gray elephant float that was to play into the evening's festivities. Another marathon opening set included "Rift," "PYITE," and "Birds of a Feather," which I was disappointed they played in the daylight, since it's accompanied by a great light show. Pianist Page McConnell was the textbook lounge lizard, playing to the crowd on "Lawn Boy."

Set break came and went, and in set six (counting the extra late night set) they told "The Story of the Ghost," which is the name of their new album due out in October. "When the Circus Comes" was appropriate to describe the traveling show that is the culture surrounding this band. The highlight of the set, though, was when drummer and comic relief Jon Fishman took center stage and announced he was going to sing "a love song about a turtle." Instead of the Grateful Dead's "Terrapin Station," however, which Phish had covered for the first time just days earlier at Virginia Beach in honor of the anniversary of Jerry Garcia's death, Fishman, wearing his traditional tie-dyed dress, completed the ultimate dare and sang "Sexual Healing"—quite well, in fact. Fishman's vacuum solo created "sounds of love." And after "Run Like An Antelope," just one set remained.

I: "Ginseng Sullivan," "Bathtub Gin" > "Rift," "Punch You In The Eye," "Lawn Boy," "Ya Mar" > "AC/DC Bag," "Relax," "Birds of a Feather," "Guyute," "Possum" (98 minutes)

II: "Down With Disease" > "Piper" > "Story of the Ghost" > "Fluffhead," "When the Circus Comes," "Wading in a Velvet Sea," "Hold Your Head Up" > "Sexual Healing" > "Hold Your Head Up," "Run Like an Antelope" (101 minutes)

Fin

Exploding into the beginning of the end with the Beastie Boys' "Sabotage," they moved into a rockin' Also Sprach Zarathustra, the theme from 2001 they build to high tension only to crest to nothing, over and over. "While My Guitar Gently Weeps" was a beautiful way to close the set, and the sea of lighters quickly followed.

Returning to a crowd that even after hours and hours still wanted more, they played "Harry Hood," after which Trey lit a fuse that traveled up, across, and down the front of the stage, then along the fence of the concert area to the elephant. When it got there — life! Fireworks marked the birth of the creature, which raised its trunk and squirted out water. Making its way through the crowd, the elephant moved towards the campground while the band jammed Mancini's "Baby Elephant Walk" to the cheers and applause of all. There was no second encore, but then, not much could have topped that finale.

III: "Sabotage" > Also Sprach Zarathustra, "Wilson," "The Mango Song," "Character Zero," "Bittersweet Motel," "While My Guitar Gently Weeps" (55 minutes)

E: "Harry Hood," "The Baby Elephant Walk" (25 minutes)

Back on the wagon

The ride home gave me a chance to reflect back on the exhausting weekend. I couldn't figure out why there were virtually no minorities at the show — it was almost exclusively caucasian. I also couldn't decide if the conscientious friendliness everyone showed all weekend could or would follow people home, especially once the crowd was no longer homogeneous. I'm fascinated by the social contract that exists up there, and wonder if it's possible to somehow transfer it to everyday life.

Some people complain that Phish has gotten too big, too mainstream, that there are too many fans, and tickets are too hard to get. Well, the band tried to accommodate their entire wagon up there, and I think they were hugely successful. If you want to check them out, they're playing The Centrum in Worcester the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of Thanksgiving weekend. Tickets are $23.50 and go on sale October 17.

And so, I leave you with this: "Teach a man to Phish, and he grooves forever."

Don't be caught without your MULTI PLAN

Multi-Plan applications are available at any MIT Dining location.

Networks

Chinese & Spicy Wings

Daily Specials

Wednesday is Steak Night
Look for Friday Fish specials

Join the VIP Club
for specials and discounts

84 Mass. Ave 1st Floor
M-F 11am-11pm
S-S 4pm-11pm

New This Fall!

Walker

New!

starting September 8

Pan Geos Granary

Mon-Fri 11am-2pm delicious, healthy and completely vegetarian!

142 Memorial Drive 1st Floor
M-F 7:30am-7pm

Lobdell Food Court

Wednesday Night is
All You Can Eat Pasta Buffet
$7.95

Italian Salad, Bread Stix,
Four Varieties of Pasta and Beverage

84 Mass. Ave 2nd Floor
M-Th 7:30am-7pm
Fridays 7:30am-3pm
Sat 8:30am-4pm
Sun 8:30am-7pm

Dome Cafe

All New Sandwiches & Salads

New Panini selections

-delicious hot or cold-

Panini Al Greek
Broiled Caesar Insalata
Ratatouille Italian
Sausage & Pepper Panini
Cannellini Pollo
Pollo Alla Griglio

Bldg. 7-4th Floor
M-F 8am-7pm

Bio Cafe

New!

Fresh Tossed
Chicken Caesar Salad
&
Piping Hot
Breakfast Sandwiches
starting September 8

Bldg. 6B 1st Floor
M-F 8am-3pm

Refresher Course

Buy 6 of our 7 new items and get a

FREE

Sloan Refillable Mug!

Bldg. E52 1st Floor
M-Th 8am-5pm
F 8am-3pm

Baker Dining

Newly Renovated!

Restaurant Style Menu

Fresh Tossed Salads
Individual Pizzas • "Singing Pan"
Premium Specials-Surf & Turf

Join the Baker Meal Deal Club and save$$$$$

362 Memorial Drive
lower level
S-Th 5pm-7:30pm

Next House

Now offers the Meal Deal too!!!!

Visit Next House Dining
Tuesday, September 8
to find out more!

500 Memorial Drive
1st Floor
Sun-Th 5pm-8pm

MIT Dining Services

...and so much more!

damned for life
by Jessica

Noun Poetry
by Katy-Cat

RANDOM FLAND

Down with Science

by Jennifer DiMase

Student Campaign Killed Motion

Housing, from Page 1

ment to discuss changes to MIT's housing system. Following Krueger's death, Stephan L. Chorover, who like Potter is a professor in the department of Brain and Cognitive Sciences, introduced a motion at the October faculty meeting stating "It is the sense of the faculty that commencing the academic year 1998 all freshmen should live on campus."

In support of his motion, Chorover said that "Increasingly, the impressions students gain [of MIT] are set long before they encounter the [faculty] and before they see the inside of a classroom."

A month of intense debate followed the introduction of Chorover's resolution. The motion was opposed by groups on and off campus, while it found a number of supporters in the faculty.

At the following faculty meeting, Chorover substituted a new, far weaker motion that called for a review of the housing system, and a change in Orientation, among other things. The motion passed.

Chorover dropped his focus on moving freshmen on campus after seeing "enormous change in the last month," he said. In fact, Chorover made a complete repudiation of his original motion when he said after the second meeting that he was "never and not now primarily interested in moving freshmen to campus." Chorover called the original motion simply an "attempt to learn what the sense of the faculty is."

After Chorover's substitute motion passed, Vest expressed his approval: "I do not believe it would have been appropriate to ask all freshmen to live on campus in the fall of 1998," he said.

Vest takes action also Chorover's motion was not the only institutional response to Krueger's death that affected housing. Shortly after Krueger's death, during a period of intense media focus on the Institute, Vest pledged to undertake the construction of a new dormitory. That dormitory, which is scheduled to be completed in 2001, makes requiring freshmen to live on campus logistically feasible.

At the same time he announced plans for a new dormitory, Vest called for the graduate resident tutor program of the dormitory system to be extended to off-campus housing. That program will begin this year after a number of confusing changes in timing that left ILGs scrambling to find tutors in the last month of the summer to avoid being forced dry or losing freshmen housing privileges.

All of these events led up to Vest's announcement this week that freshmen will be housed on campus in 2001.

The past year has seen a battle waged for the status quo in housing, with many of the participants pointing to Krueger's death as a turning point. While it is clear that the death of a freshman stimulated debate, the changes in the housing system had roots long before the events of the past year.

Despite Confusion, Frosh Meet FSILGs

Kick-off, from Page 1

contingent included several people, both male and female, dressed in grass skirts and coconut bras.

Mingling proceeds confusedly

The process by which the freshmen and upperclassmen were supposed to meet and mingle did not go off without any hitches.

As the freshmen began to clap at the end of the Class of 2002 picture, Kappa Sigma brothers charged forward, followed by several other fraternities that were positioned near the southern end of Killian Court, far from the freshmen.

After the first surge, members of the IFC Judicial Committee ordered the fraternity members back towards Memorial Drive until the freshmen could descend from the steps of Building 10.

"First the fraternity people surged forward, and the freshmen moved toward them," said Noah Z. Bray-Ali '01, a member of Alpha Delta Phi.

Then both sides receded, but they quickly moved forward again, then receded again, before the actual mingling began, he said. "It was like a simple harmonic oscillator."

Speaker largely ignored

Although the Kick-Off still featured the three traditional student speakers, all three speeches were very abbreviated and largely ignored by the crowd of freshmen, who were already conversing with upperclassmen.

The first speaker was Manju V. Madhavan '99, president of the Dormitory Council. He reminded freshmen not to forget about the "widely ignored" dormitories during rush.

Madhavan also advised the freshmen to enjoy rush as much as possible. "Make use of all the upperclassmen waiting to serve you, because that's not going to last," he said.

Next, Connie W. Pong '99, chair of Women's Conference spoke, reminding women about the options for them, while men are involved in their "rush adventure." Don't worry, she said, "you won't be left out."

Finally, Hongsup Park '99, the IFC rush chair, spoke to the class of 2002. He congratulated the Orientation committee, drawing a feeble round of applause from the audience close to Building 10.

Park emphasized the changing nature of rush. "You are the first people to come through the system," he said.

He also provided more of the standard advice given to freshmen, saying "know what you want in a living group before going there," before finishing with the canonical phrase, "Let the rush begin!"

The Class of 2002 poses in Killian Court yesterday for its freshman picture before Killian Kick-off.

TechCalendar

TechCalendar appears in each issue of The Tech and features events for members of the MIT community. The Tech makes no guarantees as to the accuracy of this information, and The Tech shall not be held liable for any losses, including, but not limited to, damages resulting from attendance of an event.

Contact information for all events is available from the TechCalendar web page.

For further information on any of these events, visit <http://tech-calendar.mit.edu>.

Visit the TechCalendar web site (<http://tech-calendar.mit.edu>) to add information on events to be included in the print and online versions of TechCalendar.

Sunday's Events

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. - Christian Fellowship Lounge. Come drop by to meet and chat with Christians from all over MIT! We have free refreshments and plenty of games! Basement, Religious Activities Center (W11). Sponsor: Cross Products

8:00 p.m. - Into the Woods. Musical by James Lapine (book) and Stephen Sondheim (music and lyrics). $3 admission for freshmen; $6 for MIT students, various prices for others. Kresge Little Theatre. Sponsor: Musical Theatre Guild

Monday's Events

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. - Christian Fellowship Lounge. Come drop by to meet and chat with Christians from all over MIT! We have free refreshments and plenty of games! Basement, Religious Activities Center (W11). Sponsor: Cross Products

Tuesday's Events

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. - Christian Fellowship Lounge. Come drop by to meet and chat with Christians from all over MIT! We have free refreshments and plenty of games! Basement, Religious Activities Center (W11). Sponsor: Cross Products

6:30 - 9:00 p.m. - Activities Midway. The midway is a bazaar of student activities recruiting new membership and advertising services. Johnson Athletic Center. Sponsor: Association of Student Activities

8:00 - 11:00 p.m. - Patrol. Shoot Your Friends! Travel to strange, new classrooms! Meet interesting unusual people! And kill them.... Building 36, first floor. Sponsor: MIT Assassins' Guild

9:30 - 11:30 p.m. - Praise Night. After the Activities Midway, come gather with Christians of different ethnicities from all over MIT in a time for praising God. Join us in singing, praying, and fellowship. Room 10-250. Sponsor: Cross Products

Wednesday's Events

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. - Christian Fellowship Lounge. Come drop by to meet and chat with Christians from all over MIT! We have free refreshments and plenty of games! Basement, Religious Activities Center (W11). Sponsor: Cross Products

8:00 - 9:00 p.m. - MIT Debate Orientation/Ice Cream Social. Join MIT Debate for the Fall 98 season of action-packed debate around the world! Revel as we conquer boxes of ice cream. Student Center, Room 423. Sponsor: MIT Debate Team.

Hottel Had Interests in Music and Carpentry

Hottel, from Page 1

After a series of hunger strikes by her husband, outspoken dissident and Nobel laureate Andrei Sakharov, Soviet Premier Mikhail S. Gorbachev allowed her to go overseas without the need for witnesses.

"He was a man of so many interests," said his daughter, Lois H. Wood. "Classical music certainly was at the top of his list - he enjoyed the Boston Symphony regularly with my mother, a singer, for as many years as I can remember."

A skilled woodworker, Hottel also built kayaks for his daughters, hardwood coffee tables, and his own Christmas decorations.

In recognition of his contributions, MIT instituted the Hoyt C. Hottel Lectureship in 1985, and Hottel delivered the inaugural address. The Institute established the Hoyt C. Hottel Professorship in 1995.

He served as a member of the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering and also was a fellow in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

He also accumulated a large number of awards, including the Sir Alfred Egerton Gold Medal from the Combustion Institute and the Melchett Medal from the Institute of Fuel in Great Britain. He was also honored by the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, and the International Solar Energy Society.

In addition to his daughter Lois, Hottel is survived by his son, Hoyt Hottel Jr., two other daughters, Barbara H Willis and Elizabeth H. Barrett, and 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at the Winchester Unitarian Church in Winchester on Saturday, Sept. 12 at 11 a.m.

COURTESY OF MIT NEWS OFFICE
Hoyt C. Hottel SM '24

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

For Sale

For Sale: 87 Toyota Corolla: 117,500 miles, manual, AC, tape, good condition. For sale by original owner. 2500 firm. (617) 547-6792

Help Wanted

Visual C/Visual Basic Programmers wanted, work at school or our office. Exciting Global Positioning System software. Salary negotiable, full or part-time. <http://www.teletype.com/gps>, 734-9700. Email resume to ed@teletype.com.

Information

EARN $100,000 PLUS!!! Manufacturer will provide funding to start your own business with $35 investment. Good opportunity with unique high-tech product everyone needs! Toll free 24 hour 1-888-303-9677.

$2000 Compensation: Be a part of medical breakthrough in the expanding field of infertility - helping people become parents. Seeking women ages 21-34 to donate eggs. $2000 in a few weeks time. Confidential. Contact: Joan Clark 781-944-7813

Daily Confusion, from Page 12

Virginia Baked Ham

- 12:00 - Phi Kappa Theta - Have a laid back BBQ under the sun on our ROOFDECK. Grilled steaks, kebabs, burgers, and all the fixins followed by fresh Ice Cream.
- 12:00 - Phi Sigma Kappa - George's Island. Come with us as we cruise across Boston Harbor for a day of frisbee, soccer, and barbecue on historic George's Island. Call for a ride, 267-2199
- 12:00 - Sigma Nu - We invite you over to the Sigma Nu house on 523 Newbury St. in Kenmore Square Boston. Come on over and we'll show you a great time. Great activities are going on all day and as always-ton's of free food and drink. Read on for details.
- 12:00 - Zeta Beta Tau - Hungry? Come by and grab a deli sandwich at ZBT, the only non-pledging fraternity on campus. Be sure to come by early though so that you can also sign up PAINTBALL!!!!!! Call Rick for rides at 232-3257
- 12:00 - Zeta Psi - Check out Fenway Park when we head into Boston to catch a Sox game, complete with peanuts and Cracker Jacks.
- 12:01 - Womens' Independent Living Group - Ever wanted to go on a cruise through the Mediterranean? Well, since you can't do it today, why not stop by WILG to taste the food? We're serving up a medley to take you away - Greek Tossed Salad, Falafel, Hummus, and Spanish Bean Salad. Call 253-6799 or 354-1263 for a ride.
- 12:06 - Number 6 Club - Lunch at no.6
- 12:17 - Random Hall - It's time for a giant rooftop BBQ. Come gorge yourself on hotdogs, hamburgers, salads, desserts, and lots more. Rumors of residents digging a gorge are greatly exaggerated.
- 12:22 - Tau Epsilon Phi - BBQ on the Roof. Enjoy lunch over a lovely view of Boston. Both meaty and veggie foods available. Is that a bathtub in the closet? 262-5090
- 12:30 - German House - Dim Sum in China Town! Do you love dim sum? Do you not have the faintest clue what it is? Come join us for traditional Chinese brunch in Boston's China Town. Departure: around 12:30 from the Student Center Back: around 15:00
- 12:30 - Deutsches Haus - Dim Sum im Chineseschen Viertel. Mögen Sie Dim Sum? Wissen sie überhaupt was es ist? Gehen Sie mit uns für ein traditionelles Chinesisches Mittagessen in Bostons Chineseschen Viertel. Abfahrt: etwa 12:30 vom Student Center. Ankunft: etwa 15:00
- 12:30 - La Maison Francaise - Dim Sum a Chinatown! Visitez les patisseries, Joignez-vous a nous pour un déjeuner traditionnel chinois. Rendez vous au Student Center ou a New House. Nous revienons vers 14h00.
- 12:30 - La Maison Francaise - Dim Sum. Dim Sum in China Town! Do you love dim sum? Do you not have the faintest clue what it is? Come join us for traditional Chinese brunch in Boston's China Town. Departure: around 12:30 from the Student Center. Call French House at x86388 for directions/info.
- 12:30 - Phi Kappa Theta - Red Sox vs. Angels Game! See the Sox live with PKT.
- 12:37 - Russian House - Outing trip to the Mother Nature (picnic included). Don't forget your swim suit and your courage - this is not just another cheesy lake trip, like everyone else has. Curious? well, come and find out!
- 12:45 - East Campus - Live Music - Boston's own "Johnny Wishbone" is live and in person at EC - a.k.a. FRED the Friendly Dorm!
- 12:56 - pika - Sammiches. Salads. Sunshine. Bugs. It's a picnic! How can you say no? Join us for an outdoor lunch (or breakfast if you just woke up) by the Charles. Call 492-6983 for a ride in the basket on wheels.
- 1:00 - Alpha Delta Phi - Barbecue and Paintball. Ready for lunch? Come join us on our luxurious furnished back patio for an exquisitely delectable meal... ahhhh, who we foolin'? It's Barbecue. Burgers. Dogs. And war afterwards. Call 576-YOU-GOT-A-BEEF (576-2792) for transport.
- 1:00 - Burton-Connor - we offer tours throughout the day, so come and check us out! Learn the names and quirks of our 9 unique floors and discover our family atmosphere. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.
- 1:00 - MacGregor - Get yo' face painted, have fun knockin' some sucka out in the dunk tank, and clobber some chump in the jousting ring only at MACGREGOR'S CARNIVAL.
- 1:00 - MacGregor - MORE FREE FOOD! Eat burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.
- 1:00-5:00 - McCormick - TIE DYE in McCormick courtyard. Music, food, and fun all afternoon long. Tee-shirts provided.
- 1:00 - New House - Come on by. We haven't run out of food yet, so come meet some really nice people.
- 1:00 - Phi Kappa Sigma - Play some paintball at The Action Zone one of New England's premier paintball fields, or see the Boston Red Sox against the California Angels
- 1:00 - Phi Kappa Theta - Red Sox vs. Angels Game! See the Sox live with PKT.
- 1:00 - Sigma Chi - Baseball Fever: Watch the Red Sox vs. the Angels at Fenway Park with Sigma. Call 262-3192 for a ride
- 1:00 - La Casa - COME EAT SOME ARROZ CON POLLO, HABICHUELAS AND OTHER GOOD LATIN CUISINE THAT YOUR TASTEBUDS WILL ENJOY. ONLY GOING ON UNTIL 3, SO DON'T MISS OUT!
- 1:00 - Zeta Beta Tau - We still got sandwiches and hopefully we still got some Paintball slots so swing by ZBT, the only non-pledging fraternity as fast as you can. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257
- 1:00 - Zeta Psi - Spend the afternoon canoeing down the entire Charles River (actually, just the clean part).
- 1:17 - Random Hall - Got Milk? Got Chocolate? Got Liquid Nitrogen? It's time to make the ice cream! The rooftop grill is still hopping, why not come and join us if you're still hungry?
- 1:22 - Tau Epsilon Phi - Negotiations have failed. Our only option is war - a War of Water. Experience the fury of the Tanzanian Jungle Worm, tool of the true Water Warrior. Complimentary dry shirts and unbruised egos. Uncle Tepp wants you! Call 262-5090 to enlist.
- 1:27 - pika - Wanna see what happens when you leave mayonnaise out in the sun? Come to our picnic by the Charles and join in the spoiling fun! 492-6983.
- 1:27 - La Casa - SPANISH HOUSE IS COOKING UP SOME GREAT LATIN FOOD. SO COME AND TASTE A BIT OF LATIN AMERICA! IN NEW HOUSE, HOUSE 3, FIRST FLOOR.
- 1:29 - East Campus - Get a head start on cluttering up your dorm room - win prizes at the EAST CAMPUS CARNIVAL!
- 1:30 - Fenway House - Mmmmm... food... 437-1043
- 1:30 - Pi Lambda Phi - Lunch at Wellesley. Have fun playing Ultimate Frisbee, getting into squirt gun fights, or just relaxing, eating, socializing, and a whole bunch of other - ing words.
- 1:31 - Womens' Independent Living Group - Investigate Wilg's therapy for T-shirts. Totally the best Tie Dyeing available campus-wide or your money back! Or, if you would rather go fly a kite, come with us to the Boston Commons, we'll leave in half an hour. If you want to ride and not walk, call 253-6799 or 354-1263.
- 1:47 - Random Hall - Can you eat two pieces of sandwich bread in 60 seconds? Luke is ready to challenge you. Afterward, a debate on the topic of your choice. Possibility: Morrissey. Talented musician or pathetic loser?
- 1:49 - Fenway House - Croquet and Frisbee in the Fens! We'll provide the flamingos. 437-1043
- 1:50 - Alpha Delta Phi - Robert Heinlein and Orson Scott Card would approve this training ground. The M.I.T., Colonel Graff's Battle School, and now this: ADP's Paintball. Dial 576-DESTROY-OR-BE-DESTROYED (576-2792) for a ride. Good luck.
- 1:51 - Baker House - It's still a CARNIVAL here at Baker House, but it'll be over soon. Stop on by for fun, games, and as always FREE FOOD!!!!!!
- 1:55 - Next House - Our insane chef, Eric, is up to his old tricks again. Chocolate in all its forms makes its appearance. We dare you to try to finish it!
- 1:56 - La Casa - LA CASA IS STILL COOKING UP THAT ARROZ CON POLLO, HABICHUELAS, AND OTHER GREAT EXAMPLES OF LATIN CUISINE... GREAT PEOPLE, GREAT FOOD, WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT?
- 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
- 2:00 - Alpha Delta Phi - Paintball. Fast-paced action. Clever strategy. Pellets splattering on your opponent's visor. And your teammates never even suspect "friendly fire." Heh heh heh... Call 576-RAT-A-TAT (576-2792) for a ride. Hurry! Space is limited!
- 2:00 - Burton-Connor - Come to our movie marathon! Want to see Star Wars again? No problem, sit down and enjoy! We have an extensive collection and you're welcome to watch it all. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.
- 2:00 - Epsilon Theta - BOSTON TOURS. Explore the Museum of Fine Arts, the Museum of Science, and the New England Aquarium. This is a great city you chose to live in. Call 3-8888 for a ride.
- 2:00 - La Maison Francaise - Faites voler un cerf-volant! Avez-vous déjà fait un cerf volant en forme de boîte ou de grenouille? Venez le faire et regardez-le voler! Rendez vous a La Maison Francaise ou dans le champs en face de New House. Questions?: x86388
- 2:00 - French House - Let's go fly a kite! Box kites, regular kites, ... any kite ... make it and fly it! Meet at New House. Call French House at x86388 for directions/info.
- 2:00 - New House - Too hot outside? Come visit our nicely air conditioned home!
- 2:00 - Phi Kappa Theta - Boston Harbor cruise. Come explore Boston's beautiful harbor and waterfront area with an afternoon CRUISE!
- 2:00 - Student House - Come with us to the Science Museum... we promise it's nothing like your high school chem lab.
- 2:00 - Theta Xi Indy: Bring your driver's license as we head out to the New England Grand Prix GO-KART raceway and zip around at breakneck speeds on their quarter-mile course (and yes, it's so intense that they require a driver's license!).
- 2:00 - Theta Chi - Missed the paintball trip? That's okay, it's never too late to come on over to Theta Chi to meet the brothers. Call us! 267-1801.
- 2:02 - Womens' Independent Living Group - If you don't come soon, we'll have to leave without you. We're on our way to the Boston Commons to ride the Swan Boats. But, if you miss the trip, we're still Tie Dyeing. Come turn your favorite sports bra purple. Give us a call at 253-6799 or 354-1263.
- 2:07 - pika - In the witness protection program? Need a new look? Let Rosa fix you up so no one will recognize you! Hair cutting and dyeing at pika. Call 492-6983 and be buzzed on over.
- 2:14 - pika - come make bread at pika. or, for those of you more scientifically-oriented, admire the growth, life, and social skills of the common household yeast. then knead it into submission. call the breadline at 492-6983
- 2:17 - East Campus - Sick of your hair color? Well, so are we. Try a new one - hairdyeing at the EC CARNIVAL!
- 2:20 - Phi Beta Epsilon -  FREE ICE CREAM!!! topped with FRESH FRUIT. As much as you can eat!
- 2:22 - Tau Epsilon Phi - Cafe Liberty may have fallen to the man, but its spirit lives on in the hearts of the believers, and the glowing sign in 22. Come help us recreate the hip and stylish cybercafe, if only for an afternoon. 262-5090
- 2:33 - La Casa - COME EAT THE LAST OF THE GREAT LATIN FOOD AT SPANISH HOUSE!!!! IN NEW HOUSE.
- 2:37 - Russian House - Don't forget our MANDATORY for interested freshman Great Dinner tonight at 19:37. In fact, we are most probably busy preparing it right now. So come on over and learn the secrets of our culinary success. And remember- 16:37- pirozhki!
- 2:49 - Fenway House - Tie-dyeing continues! We still have T-shirts, socks and a cat. Call for a tide! 437-1043
- 3:00 - Baker House - Just one more hour left. But there's still food, music and fun here at the BAKER CARNIVAL!!!!
- 3:00 - Burton-Connor - Our Carnival is still going on, so come on down and join the fun! Food, snacks, water balloon fights, Frisbee games and friendly dorm inhabitants are just some of the attractions. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.
- 3:00 - Phi Delta Theta - Sports Etc. Looking for a rush? Engage in just some of the sporting activities the Phi Delt brothers participate in, such as basketball, volleyball, soccer or ultimate. Call 247-8691 for a ride.
- 3:00 - MacGregor - Get yo' face painted, have fun knockin' some sucka out in the dunk tank, and clobber some chump in the jousting ring only at MACGREGOR'S CARNIVAL.
- 3:00 - New House - Meet the language houses and dorm and see how we get along.
- 3:00 - Phi Kappa Sigma - Visit St. George's island for a relaxing day at the beach
- 3:00 - Senior House - Body Modification in the Courtyard Bleach, dye, shave, and mehndi your way to happiness. Or laugh at people who do.
- 3:00 - Sigma Nu - ROADTRIP!!!!!! to Crane's Beach (Cool name, great sand and surf... but unfortunately no actual crane's).
- 3:00 - Zeta Beta Tau - Missed the paintball at ZBT, don't worry stop by the house, grab something to eat, and hang out playing sports with the brothers at the local park in brookline while you wait for our italianbuffet and a GO-KART and arcade trip. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257
- 3:00 - Zeta Psi - Come by the house for a game of pickup soccer, basketball, or foosball.
- 3:01 - Womens' Independent Living Group - Come with Wilg to see all of MIT's greatest hacks. We're going to the MIT Museum in half an hour. We'll give you a lift. Just call 253-6799 or 354-1263.
- 3:06 - Number 6 Club - sunbathing beauties. relax on the sundeck, get a tan and chat with the sixers while sipping cool refreshments.
- 3:20 - Phi Beta Epsilon -  FRESH FRUIT SMOOTHIES, strawberries, cherries, banana, orange!
- 3:21 - pika - It swirls. It whirls. It's full of pretty colors. It's your new hands! Or it's your new shirt! Hair- and tie- dyeing at pika. 492-6983.
- 3:22 - Tau Epsilon Phi - Help! I'm the Rush Chair and I'm trapped in the Deep Cave writing Daily Confusion entries!
- 3:30 - Phi Delta Theta - Sports not your thing? Come on over anyway to hang out and get to know the brothers better. You can't lose. Work up an appetite and join us for our Steak & Lobster Dinner. Call
- 247-8691 for a ride.
- 3:33 - East Campus - I AM a turtle! Facepainting and more at EC.
- 3:33 - Fenway House - Performance Art: Dangling on the Edge of a Rush Violation by Robert C. Pace. 437-1043
- 3:37 - Russian House - Boston outing. Join a few of us for a walking expedition to Boston. Might as well get to know it. Hey, you're stuck here for years.
- 3:55 - Next House - Need to cool off? wanna hit upperclassmen and/or freshmen with water-balloons? Come to Next House.
- 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
- 4:00 - La Maison Francaise - La Maison Francaise - L'Art de Cuisiner a La Maison Francaise! Aimez-vous cuisiner? Ou vous n'avez aucune idee de comment vous servir d'un four mais vous voulez apprendre a cuisiner? Aidez-hous a prepare un diner typique a La Maison Francaise. (voyez l'activite de 6:30 PM) (dans New House). Téléphonez au x86388.
- 4:00 - French House - A Traditional French Dinner - help us make it and eat it - Boeuf Bourignon, stuffed tomatoes, asparagus, blackberry and apple pie. Don't worry if you've never cooked - we'd love to help you, and along the way tell you our cooking disaster stories. :) At French House.
- 4:00 - Phi Beta Epsilon -  INDOOR ROCKCLIMBING, think you have what it takes to CLIMB cliffs? Find out! First 8 to come will get a 3 hour professional lesson at the Boston Rock Gym. Space limited!
- 4:04 - Womens' Independent Living Group - Call 235-6799 to reserve a spot for WILG's Mystery Cafe and get ready for the most twisted murder mystery in town.
- 4:15 - Pi Lambda Phi - Following: the Barbarian Feast. You can hear the grunting already.
- 4:17 - Random Hall - Eric has once again brought out his giant bubble making kit. Bubbles of various geometric shapes and different sizes. Watch a master at work. Bubbles contain the secret of life- just ask Eric.
- 4:19 - East Campus - He can guess more than just your weight, ladies! Fisher "sizes-up" visitors - only at the EAST CAMPUS CARNIVAL, a hop, skip and half-a-jump across campus!
- 4:22 - Tau Epsilon Phi - FAO Schwartz Trip. If you like hearing "Welcome To Our World Of Toys" over and over until your spleen ruptures, call us. See toys that cost more than the average motorcycle. Call 262-5090.
- 4:28 - Fenway House - Mmmmm... ice cream... A semi-organized tour of the area ice cream scene. Call 437-1043 for a scoop.
- 4:30 - Phi Delta Theta - Sports not your thing? Come on over anyway to hang out and get to know the brothers better. You can't lose. Work up an appetite and join us for our Steak & Lobster Dinner. Call 247-8691 for a ride.
- 4:30 - La Maison Francaise - French Traditional Dinner - help us eat and bake. Call French House at x86388 for directions/info.
- 4:37 - Russian House - Come and help us make russian pirozhki for the Dinner!
- 4:44 - Epsilon Theta - The Epsilon Theta Lecture Series continues with Ann's dissertation: "How to Pass Your Classes Without Doing Any Work". Call 3-8888 for a ride. Don't worry if you're late, so is Ann.
- 4:45 - Alpha Delta Phi - ...One, two! One, two! And through, and through! The vortal blade went snicker-snack. He left it dead, and with its head, he went galumphing back. Call 576-BRILLIG (576-2792) and come to ADP, the land of the Jaberwock.
- 5:00 - Alpha Delta Phi - Italian Dinner. Wassamatta you? You gotta eat! We got it all: spaghetti, canollis, calzones, ferraris, lamborghiniis, machiavelli, and maybe even pizza. Call 576-YOU-NO-LIKA-WE-BREAKA-YOUR-FACE-A (576-2792) and Guido will pick you up.
- 5:00 - Chi Phi - BOSTON HARBOR CRUISE. Clean all that paint off of your clothes and come with us on the 80-foot Liberty schooner for dinner and an evening cruise around downtown Boston.
- 5:00 - German House - The Culinary Arts! Whether you're a master chef or don't know the first thing about cooking, you're welcome to join us as we cook, bake, and of course sample, a variety of dishes and desserts. Location: German House (New House 6 second floor)
- 5:00 - Deutsches Haus - Die Kunst vom kochen! Egal ob Sie ein Chef sind oder nichts vom Kochen wissen, sind Sie willkommen mit uns zu kochen, backen, und natürlich schmecken. Wir werden eine Varietät von Gerichten und Nachtischen machen. Ort: Deutsches Haus (New House 6, erste Etage)
- 5:00 - MacGregor - Get yo' face painted, have fun knockin' some sucka out in the dunk tank, and clobber some chump in the jousting ring only at MACGREGOR'S CARNIVAL.
- 5:00 - Phi Kappa Theta - Rib Dinner prepared by our chef Mark. Mark's band Babaloo fires up a storm, and his ribs are no different.
- 5:00 - La Casa - COME CHILL AT SPANISH HOUSE WHILE LISTENING TO SOME GREAT LATIN MUSIC. TALKING TO COOL PEOPLE. IN SPANISH OF COURSE. AND TOURING THE HOUSE.....
- 5:00 - New House - Want to live in a place that's warm and comfy? Then come to New House.
- 5:00 - Student House - Come enjoy a barbecue on our roof deck and watch the sunset over the river.
- 5:00 - Theta Delta Chi - Jake Kendall, Alaskan fisherman, serves up the finest of his summer's catch. It's the best Salmon you have ever tasted, right out on the deck.
- 5:00 - Theta Xi - BBQ and Shish-kabobs - Come over and GRILL Theta-Xi style as we break out the burgers and hot dogs, make some veggie-kabobs, and have some good 'ol fashion BBQ fun!
- 5:00 - Zeta Beta Tau - Italian Buffet- That's right how does Chicken Parmigiana, pasta, and great Italian deserts sound. That's right were having an Italian Buffet at ZBT with everything made from scratch. It's like your favorite Italian restaurant only better. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257
- 5:14 - La Casa - WHAT KIND OF LATIN MUSIC? JUST ABOUT EVERYTHING- MERENGUE, SALSA, HOUSE, TEJANO, NORTENA. BRING A REQUEST AND YOUR THIRST TO THE GENTE IN NEW HOUSE, HOUSE 4, SECOND FLOOR.
- 5:15 - Alpha Epsilon Pi - Come for the food, stay for the Pi. Alpha Epsilon Pi...yummy. Call us for dinner, 247-3170.
- 5:20 - Phi Beta Epsilon -  FRESH FRUIT SMOOTHIES, strawberries, cherries, banana, orange!
- 5:26 - La Casa - THIRSTY? GOTTA BE...SO COME DRINK SOMETHING REFRESHING AND GRAB A SNACK WITH THE PEOPLE AT LA CASA! COME TO THE SECOND FLOOR OF HOUSE 4 IN NEW HOUSE.
- 5:45 - Womens' Independent Living Group - We write it, rehearsed it, and can't wait to perform it! The murderer is at large in Wilg's Mystery Cafe! To find out more or get a ride, call 253-6799 or 354-1263.
- 5:47 - Random Hall - Kill two birds with one stone: make your own pizza. Be creative and satisfy your every hunger with pizzas made with pepperoni? pineapple? chocolate chips? anything we have that your stomach desires? (No liability for the whims of your stomach)
- 5:55 - Next House - Volleyball, burgers, smores :) Claim prime real-estate for the movie night later tonight.
- 5:57 - Alpha Delta Phi - Italian dinner abounds at ADP. Call us at 576-SPAGHETTI (576-2792) and Marlon and Al will give you a lift. Following dinner: Our signature event, the Cafe Thursday! Afterwards, the alumni band, Dust Up! will rock the night away.
- 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
- 6:00 - Alpha Tau Omega - Alumni Steak and Lobster Dinner. Alpha Tau Omega.
- 6:00 - Baker House - FREE FOOD!!! You, us, and about a million PIZZAS. We're hangin' out and having pizza. If you're looking for somewhere to chill after the madness of rush, BAKER is the place. Come have some food and stay for some movies.
- 6:00 - Burton-Connor - Come to our Meet-The-Upperclassmen Social that will introduce you to our friendly inhabitant. Dinner Included! We'll answer any questions based on our experience with MIT. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.
- 6:00 - Chi Phi - BOSTON HARBOR CRUISE: Boston's finest sailboat will be taking us on a catered tour of Boston harbor. Music and fun.
- 6:00 - East Campus - How now ground cow? BBQ at FRED, and yes, we have a veggie option (grass skirts left over from the luau.)
- 6:00 - Epsilon Theta - SHISH-KABOB BARBECUE. Make your own skewer full. Vegetarians get to laugh at the rest of us - their food cooks faster! S'Mores for dessert. Call 3-8888 for a ride.
- 6:00 - MacGregor - FREE FOOD! Eat burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.
- 6:00 - 12:00 - McCormick - A BLAST TO THE EAST! Join us for some Chinese food in McCormick. Desserts, music, and door prizes included! (See 11 pm)
- 6:00 - New House - We're still eating. Find out what New House is about, and what the people are like.
- 6:00 - Nu Delta - SALMON DINNER. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).
- 6:00 - Phi Beta Epsilon -  __STEAK_AND_LOBSTER__ Hungry? Don't miss out on our famous STEAK AND LOBSTER dinner. STEAK and LOBSTER and STEAK and LOBSTER and STEAK and LOBSTER. Door Prizes!
- 6:00 - Phi Delta Theta - Steak and Lobster Dinner. Fine dining at its best! Come experience another tremendous Phi Delt feast while conversing with brothers and friends in the classy atmosphere of our dining room. Call

Daily Confusion, from Page 10

247-8691 for reservations.

6:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Rib Dinner prepared by our chef Mark. Mark's band Babaloo fires up a storm, and his ribs are no different.

6:00 – Pi Lambda Phi – Feeding time is just around the corner, and unlike last night's Steak and Lobster, tonight at Pi Lambda Phi we're eating like Barbarians: no silverware, no manners, just men being Men. Grrraahgahgh=85 Call 267-4935

6:00 – Phi Sigma Kappa – Thanksgiving Dinner. We'll be having an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner, complete with turkey and all the trimmings. Try a Phi Sig specialty. Call for a ride, 267-2199

6:00 – Sigma Nu – Dinner...have you ever seen a ten foot submarine? How about five of them ?!?! (Seriously, how well cooked will that steak and lobster be?)

6:00 – Theta Chi – Hungry for some Italian food? Come on over and we'll take you out on the town. Call us at 267-1801 if you need a ride.

6:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Italian Buffet- How does Chicken Parmigiana, pasta, and great Italian deserts sound. Were having an Italian Buffet at ZBT with everything made from scratch. It's like your favorite Italian restaurant only better. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257

6:03 – pika – Come raise your cholesterol at pika. Rich, creamy, buttery dinner cooked by Alexx and company. Trust us, it's good. There's always vegetarian food, too. 492-6983.

6:03 – Womens' Independent Living Group – Seating has begun for our dinner theater production of the 6th annual Mystery Cafe! What's better—the food or the acting? You be the judge. Call quick for a ride – 253-6799 or 354-1263.

6:06 – Number 6 Club – around the world in 20 dishes. come and savor the no.6 club with amazing food from every corner of the world.

6:15 – Nu Delta – SALMON DINNER. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

6:17 – La Casa – SPANISH HOUSE IS FINISHING OFF THE LAST OF THE SNACKS AND DRINKS...COME DRINK SOME BEFORE THEY'RE FINISHED!!! IF YOU'RE FULL ALREADY JUST CHILL AND LISTEN TO SOME GOOD LATIN MUSIC.

6:22 – Fenway House – Hello. Department of Redundancy Department. Hello.

6:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Wake up from your siesta and have a Mexican Dinner at TEPI Call 262-5090 and we'll release one of our wacky van drivers to collect you.

6:30 – Alpha Epsilon Pi – High class on the high seas, Join us for dessert, music and fun aboard the AEPI Harbor Cruise and tour the sights of Boston... a three-hour tour. For a great time, call 247-3170.

6:30 – La Maison Francaise – La Maison Francaise – Diner a La Maison Francaise! Boeuf Bourignon, Tomates Farcies, asperge, tartes aux mures et pommes ... Mangez avec nous et decouvrez le genre de diner typique a la Maison Francaise. Recontrez aussi les gens qui habitent a la Maison Francaise. Questions? x86388.

6:30 – French House – A Traditional French House Dinner! Boeuf Bourignon, Stuffed Tomatoes, Asparagus, Blackberry and Apple pie... Come eat with us – find out what sort of meal we enjoy every day. Meet the people of La Maison Francaise. In French House (in New House.) Questions? x86388.

6:30 – Nu Delta – SALMON DINNER. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

6:30 – Phi Kappa Sigma – Enjoy a sumptuous Italian Buffet prepared by our Swedish chef Andre

6:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – We're now starting to make pigs of ourselves at the Barbarian Feast. Pick up a hunk of meat (or manly vegetarian alternative) and join us. Call Pi Lambda Phi: 267-ROCK

6:30 – Zeta Beta Tau – We still got that great Italian Buffet going on at ZBT the only non-pledging powerhouse of excellence. Be sure to stick around for an exciting Go-Kart and Arcade adventure afterwards. Call Rick for Rides at 232-3257

6:30 – Zeta Psi – Get some old fashioned Cajun food at the world famous House of Blues in Harvard Square.

6:47 – Random Hall – Major D'oh! is all set to lead the Caffeine Tours. Come discover the best place to get your caffeine fix on campus. If we're lucky, Captain Jolt will make a special appearance. (Hey, everyone has their physics nerds.)

6:55 – Alpha Epsilon Pi – You're ship's about to set sail! Ride the wave to AEPI's Boston Harbor Cruise. Better yet, we'll pick you up! Call 247-3170.

7:00 – MacGregor – MORE FREE FOOD! Eat burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.

7:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Dinner continues, but Lo! Made weak by time and fate, (and final exams) but strong in will. To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield. The MIT spirit goes literary! Call 576-TENNYSON (576-2792) for transportation.

7:00 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE! Join a team and zoom around Boston on a wild quest for all the answers. Follow the directions carefully!

7:00 – Fenway House – And the chef said, "Let there be dinner." And there was dinner. The Fenbeings tasted the dinner. Mmmmmmm...not bad. Call for a ride. 437-1043

7:00-12:00 – Kappa Sigma – Have the time of your life at Jillians, this pool hall/virtual arcade on us.

7:00 – New House – Getting late now. Come to New House, where the bathrooms are private and clean!

7:00 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  SUNDAE's, make your own SUNDAE! ALL you can eat ice cream. We'll provide hot fudge, caramel, nuts, whip cream, cherries, strawberries, and toppings. Come before it's all gone!

7:00 – Sigma Chi – Steak and Lobster at Sigma Chi. Call 262-3192 for a ride

7:00 – Theta Xi – Casino Night – Do you feel lucky? Test your luck during CASINO NIGHT for fabulous prizes and fun (or whatever we can get with the remains of the Rush budget).

7:00 – Student House – Want to come shoot pool with us? Come on by and we'll take you along.

7:00 – Sigma Nu – Comedy Connection. See Boston's top Stand-Up Comedians. See historic Faneuil Hall and Quincy Market while we are there.

7:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Go Kart Krash! Do you think you're fast enough? Well let's see what you can handle.

7:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Come by and go on a trip for Go-Karts with us. The quicker you get to ZBT the quicker you jump on a go-kart. There will also be arcade games and other thrills for you during your time there. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257

7:03 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. "I think we took a wrong turn along here somewhere...."

7:05 – pika – Can't talk. Eating. Call 492-6983 for a mouthful.

7:10 – Nu Delta – BOAT CRUISE. Relax on a tour of the Charles River and Boston Harbor. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

7:10 – Pi Lambda Phi – Get Primitive: Eat at Pi Lam's Barbarian Feast. We're rapidly evolving back into civilized people, so hurry and call 267-ROCK.

7:15 – Nu Delta – BOAT CRUISE. Relax on a tour of the Charles River and Boston Harbor. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

7:20 – Nu Delta – BOAT CRUISE. Relax on a tour of the Charles River and Boston Harbor. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

7:21 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. "Etingham Falls. Population: 10."

7:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Only one hour to go before the legendary Crock Opera. Get your arse over to TEP so you can get a good seat, or call the TEP Arse Retrieval Squad at 262-5090.

7:25 – Nu Delta – BOAT CRUISE. Relax on a tour of the Charles River and Boston Harbor. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

7:30 – Nu Delta – BOAT CRUISE. Relax on a tour of the Charles River and Boston Harbor. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

7:30 – Phi Kappa Sigma – Play some pool and video games at Jillians

7:37 – Russian House – Dinner Le Grand. Food may be served. Join us for a traditional Russian dinner... It's a great opportunity to meet the residents... and it's MANDATORY for prospective members. Enjoy the conversation, the jokes and, last but certainly not least, the home-cooked Russian food and dinosaurs.

7:38 – Russian House – Dinner is a tradition we all cherish. Prepared and digested from start to finish by residents and social members, it is not only a delicious meal, but a social event, a chance for all of us to get together no matter how busy the day gets.

7:39 – Russian House – Dinosaurs, aka dinos-1)Bugs Bunny of the 90's, only purple. Often needs a bigger box. 2) Mostly sentient, nocturnal carbon-based life forms, who have orice selected the Russian House as their habitat, and despite receiving their MIT diplomas, have been drawn here ever since.

7:45 – East Campus – See how it all began! Watch Santa and Jesus duke it out – "The Spirit of Christmas" and early episodes of "South Park" in the posh Talbot Lounge.

7:56 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. "Welcome to New Hampshire."

8:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.

8:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – The Cafe Thursday at ADP is finally here! Shall I part my hair behind? Do I dare to eat a peach? Do you want to read us something? Want to just hang out and enjoy? Free ride: 576-PRUFROCK (576-2792).

8:00 – Baker House – MOVIES and ICE-CREAM Come on over to BAKER for some movies and ice cream and relax after a long day. We'll be here unwinding too, so come join us and take a tour if you'd like.

8:00 – Burton-Connor – Come RELAX with our Movie Marathon! Our movie collection is extensive and we're ready and willing to show your favorite movies! Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Connor, 410 Memorial Dr.

8:00 – New House – Relax with people from New House.

8:00 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  COMEDY CLUB, need a LAUGH? Join us at the COMEDY Club.

8:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Come and chill at PKT's movie night.

8:00 – La Casa – LA CASA IS BEGINNING ITS SHOW OF GREAT LATIN MOVIES...COME KICK IT WITH US AS WE RELAX ADMIRING THE AWESOME VIEW FROM OUR LOUNGE AND WAITING FOR THE ICE CREAM SUNDAES!!! COME TO OUR LOUNGE, 5TH FLOOR OF HOUSE 3, NEW HOUSE.

8:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Come by and go on a trip for Go-Karts with us. The quicker you get to ZBT the quicker you jump on a go-kart. There will also be arcade games and other thrills for you to indulge in. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257

8:01 – Fenway House – A stealth raid by the secret ninjas in the house seizes the TV and VCR to broadcast Anime (Japanese animation) to the masses. Come be part of the revolution (or just sit and watch Anime with us). 437-1043

8:02 – Fenway House – yoroshikattara, fenway house e anime o mi ni irasshyatte itadakitain desu. denwa ippon de doko de omachininate ite mo omukae ni mairimasu kara denwa okakeninatte kudasaranai deshyou ka? denwabango wa 437-1043 desu. mike wa 'zettai kite mite kure' tte moosimasu.

8:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll throw rotten vegetables at the actors (rotten vegetables provided). It's TEP's 22nd Annual Crock Opera! Critically acclaimed! "I couldn't believe it!" –Ripley "This isn't art...it's a crock!" –N.Y. Times. Dial 262-5090

8:27 – La Casa – COME AND ENJOY WATCHING A GREAT LATIN MOVIE WHILE MAKING YOUR OWN ICE CREAM SUNDAE AT SPANISH HOUSE!

8:30 – La Maison Francaise – Soiree de cinema francais! Venez coir le film: Au Revoir les Enfants du metteur en scene Louis Malle. Une film classique d'un garcon juif qui assiste soudainement a une ecole catholique en essayant d'echapper le gestapo au Deuxieme Guerre Mondiale.

8:30 – French House – Night at the French Cinema! Come watch Au Revoir Les Enfants. (directed by Louis Malle.) A French classic film. A young Jewish boy suddenly enrolls in a Catholic boarding school to escape the gestapo in World War II times. Questions? x86388.

8:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – Big Shindig at Pi Lam – LIVE BAND. Let me say that again. LIVE BAND. It's like a mantra. LIVE BAND.. LIVE BAND.. LIVE BAND.. Mmmm, I feel better already. Call: 267-4935

8:30 – Phi Sigma Kappa – Ice Rink. We'll be playing pickup hockey and, in some cases, learning to skate at BU's hockey rink. We'll even provide the skates!. Call for a ride, 267-2199

8:30 – Theta Chi – We're going to Boston Billiards. Come along and shoot some pool with the brothers. Need a ride? Call 267-1801.

8:33 – Fenway House – Fun, games and witty banter. 437-1043

8:36 – Number 6 Club – live jazz at cafe six. end the weekend on a smooth note. enjoy the music, coffee and sweets.

8:55 – Next House – Watch movies on our 3.5 story screen in our courtyard, line-up to probably include: an animated short, 80's comedy, and an action movie.

9:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – The Cafe Thursday continues, and the hit band, Dust Up! is getting ready to play. Come on – listen to poetry, sing us a song, tell us a story, or just enjoy the show. Dial 576-ALPHADELTS (576-2792) for rides.

9:00 – Alpha Tau Omega – Live Band Party. Alpha Tau Omega.

9:00 – Baker House – If you're not tired yet, come on over to BAKER to unwind with some movies, ice cream, popcorn and other good stuff.

9:00 – East Campus – Movie Marathon! The amazing Kevin Smith Trilogy – "Clerks:" a chilling vision of life after graduation; "Mallrats:" come see the sailboat!; "Chasing Amy:" Silent Bob finally speaks!

9:00 – La Maison Francaise – Vive le Dessert! Crepes, glace, faites votre propre fondant. A La Maison Francaise (a New House.) Questions? x86388

9:00 – French House – Vive la Dessert! Crepes, ice cream, fudge making. In French House (in New House.)Questions? x86388.

9:00 – MacGregor – CHOCOLATE FONDUE. Fresh FRUIT. MACGREGOR. Let's get messy baby!!!

9:00 – New House – Why get up? Keep relaxing with people from New House. People who are late are always welcomed.

9:00 – Phi Delta Theta – Night on the Town. Come for a free, guided, insider's tour of Boston. By T and by foot, the brothers will show you the best that Bean Town has to offer. We'll then return to the house for a Sundae Feast like you've never seen! Call 247-8691 for a ride.

9:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Come and chill at PKT's movie night.

9:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Even if you missed Go-Karts at ZBT, call Rick for a ride at 232-3257 and hang out with the brothers here while you take up a late night snack. Don't forget we have a beach trip and laser tag tomorrow.

9:00 – Zeta Psi – Eat your fill of ice cream at Toscanini's, only a 60 second walk from the house.

9:09 – Theta Delta Chi – Get ready to feel the bass

9:14 – Fenway House – How many Fenbeings can we tie together? Come play Twister and find out. 437-1043

9:17 – Random Hall – Come to our rooftop to take part in an alternate reality where instead of dying, River Phoenix grows up to be Harrison Ford; it's Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade.

9:17 – La Casa – GET HYPER WITH SOME ICE CREAM SUNDAES FIXED UP WITH ALL THE TOPPING YOU WANT AT LA CASA WHILE WATCHING A GOOD MOVIE. OUR LOUNGE IS ON THE 5TH FLOOR OF HOUSE 3, NEW HOUSE.

9:29 – Womens' Independent Living Group – Are you craving some Black Forest Cake? Or maybe you want a piece of Fruit Tarte? How about White Chocolate Mousse? Stop by Wilg for some desserts and music. Speed over to the treats in a van if you call 253-6799 or 354-1263.

9:30 – Phi Delta Theta – If you're tired out from the days activities, relax and come shoot some pool with us at the entertainment megaplex, Jillians. Call 247-8691 for a ride.

9:30 – Phi Kappa Theta – PKT Rooftop Ice Cream under the stars! Come sample the bounty of our scrumptious rooftop sundae bar. Fresh ice cream from a great local dairy!

9:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – Pi Lam Party – LIVE BAND=85 a REAL band. a REAL LIVE band. Not only are these guys living, breathing, people, they're good, too. Fancy that. LIVE BAND. Call: 267-ROCK

9:30 – Sigma Chi – Come watch one of Boston's finest stand-up comics, playing live at Sigma Chi Call 262-3192 for a ride

9:34 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. "Instructions for crossing the Canadian Border...."

9:37 – East Campus – "Clerks" THIRTY-SEVEN!?

10:00 p.m. – 12:00 midnight

10:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Rock! Roll! Dust Up! is playing for YOU, live from our back patio. We'd have them play in the Hot Tub room, but they say electronics don't dig it. Come have fun: 576-ADPHI-BAND (576-2792) for transport.

10:00 – Burton-Connor – We'll tell you what being at MIT is REALLY about and what it's like to live in a suite system. Come to our Meet-The-Upperclassmen Social! Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Connor, 410 Memorial Dr.

10:00 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. And the winner is...

10:00 – MacGregor – CHOCOLATE FONDUE. Fresh FRUIT. MACGREGOR. One more time, do it again

10:00 – New House – It's never too late to join us at New House. We enjoy the company.

10:00 – Phi Kappa Sigma – See the astounding, and hilarious, Amazing Vincent, one of the world's only X-rated hypnotists

10:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – PKT Rooftop IceCream under the stars! Come sample the bounty of our scrumptious rooftop sundae bar! Fresh ice cream from a great local dairy!

10:00 – Pi Lambda Phi – We're rockin' the house here at Pi Lam with our LIVE BAND and uhh, well, our LIVE BAND. 267-ROCK!

10:00 – Student House – Discover a constant in Student House life – Chocolate Parties. Our record is 17 different chocolate desserts, but we're always striving to top it. But, please, save us from days of eating nothing but leftover chocolate – come over and devour your share!

10:00 – Theta Delta Chi – Shalako, organizer of the Redlight raves which rocked Boston earlier in the year, and Caserock, spin the freshest of house and jungle beats, flanked by intelligent lights and half a ton of speakers.

10:01 – La Casa – GETTING SLEEPY? COME CHECK OUT IF SPANISH HOUSE IS STILL SERVING UP THOSE GONNA-GET-YOU-REALLY-HYPER SUNDAES, AND STAY TO WATCH A MOVIE UNTIL IT WEARS OFF WHILE YOU'RE AT IT.

10:08 – Fenway House – Silvaln's still at it @_@ More and more Anime!!! Come by and watch. 437-1043 for a ride.

10:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Yuppie Ice Cream in the Back Bay. Come on over and consume metric butloads of ice cream in the company of more BMWs than anywhere else. Call 262-5090 for some J.P. Lickin'.

10:30 – Chi Phi – ICE CREAM SUNDAE DESSERT. Pick your favorite toppings. For the ice cream, of course.

10:30 – Phi Delta Theta – Ice Cream Social. Along with our laid-back, casual atmosphere, you can't beat this ice cream sundae fest. Its simply incredible! Call 247-8691 for a ride.

10:30 – Phi Kappa Theta – PKT Rooftop IceCream under the stars! Come sample the bounty of our scrumptious rooftop sundae bar! Fresh ice cream from a great local dairy!

10:30 – Zeta Beta Tau – Even if you missed Go-Karts at ZBT, call Rick for a ride at 232-3257 and hang out with the brothers here while you take up a late night snack. Don't forget we have a beach trip and laser tag tomorrow.

10:33 – Womens' Independent Living Group – I'm tired of typing our phone numbers. Prove how resourceful you are and give us a call.

10:38 – pika – Swing go up. Swing go down. Swing go up... Hey! I can fly... Whoops. Come relive childhood moments in the playgrounds of Cambridgeport. Call 492-6983 and get in line for the slide.

11:00 – McCormick – DOOR PRIZES GIVEN AWAY! $50 gift certificates to ... (where? i forgot.)

11:00 – Burton-Connor – We'll tell you what being at MIT is REALLY about and what it's like to live in a suite system. Come to our Meet-The-Upperclassmen Social! Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Connor, 410 Memorial Dr.

11:00 – New House – Read 10pm!

11:00 – Senior House – Ross Lippert Memorial Alumni Story Hour Haus lore from Back In The Day. Have some milk and graham crackers and learn about our house's venerable history. And maybe Fox In Sox.

11:11 – East Campus – "Mallrats" Is the cookie stand part of the food court? Find out – more movies in the elegant Talbot lounge!

11:13 – La Casa – GET AWAY FROM ALL THE CHAOS AND CONFUSION, COME RELAX AND WATCH A MOVIE WITH THE COOL PEOPLE AT LA CASA!!! GET SOME LATE-NIGHT SNACKS WHILE YOU'RE AT IT!

11:17 – Random Hall – Movies, food, and good company. Come watch Ghost in the Shell on our giant rooftop screen. It's anime. It's Sci-fi. It's cool. What else do you want?

11:23 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE CONTINUES. "Maine! At least we're back in the right country now..."

11:30 – Alpha Epsilon Pi – S'mores and More! AEPI 247-3170. Made from the best guys on Earth!

11:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – The party is still on fire at PiLam. In a figurative sense, of course. The LIVE BAND is still tearing apart the stage (also in a figurative sense) you really don't want to miss it. 267-ROCK for a ride.. woo-hoo!

11:58 – Fenway House – Come lounge on our overgrown plaid amoeba. Call 437-1043 for a pseudopod.

Midnight and Beyond

12:00 – MacGregor – Have you had enough?? We don't care, eat more. Have some more burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.

12:03 – Spanish House – GET A TOUR OF LA CASA. STAY FOR A MOVIE. 5TH FLOOR OF HOUSE 3.

12:41 – Spanish House – COME CHILL WITH THE PEOPLE AT SPANISH HOUSE AS WE'RE RELAXING WATCHING SOME GREAT MOVIES!!!

12:45 – East Campus – The final installment – "Chasing Amy" watch as the characters come together

12:55 – Next House – Hungry after the movies? Stop by the kitchen for a filling breakfast of pancakes (w/ chocolate chips :), eggs, bacon, etc. We don't stop til the sun comes UP.

1:00 – MacGregor – It's still going! Eat burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.

1:17 – Random Hall – Watch City Of Lost Children on the rooftop. Must be seen to be believed. A phantasmagoric fairy-tale world of cyclops, intelligent fleas, strongmen, siamese twins, clones, children, and dreams. French with subtitles, not like you care.

1:17 – Spanish House – GET AWAY FROM ALL THE CHAOS AND CONFUSION, COME RELAX AND WATCH A MOVIE WITH THE COOL PEOPLE AT LA CASA!!! GET SOME LATE-NIGHT SNACKS WHILE YOU'RE AT IT! LA CASA HOUSE 3 LOUNGE.

3:17 – Random Hall – Hungry after all those tours? Come to our second official night of Orange Tour feasting, whether you're returning from a tour or just pretending to be. Free breakfast, your fellow classmates wearing black, what's not to like?

3:47 – Random Hall – Time for a Rumble in the Bronx! Jackie Chan will grace our rooftop screen with plenty of kicks, punches, and gravity-defying maneuvers. Inside we've got more movies, more caffeine, and plenty of breakfast if you're still hungry.

4:32 – Epsilon Theta – ROAD RALLYE FINISHES! "Hey, where did everybody go?"

The Daily Confusion

View the Daily Confusion online at <http://tech-calendar.mit.edu/dc/>

The Tech prints the Daily Confusion as it receives it from the Undergraduate Association's Committee on Housing and Orientation, chaired by Ryan K. Pierce '99 and Margaret C. Tsai '99. Questions or comments about the Daily Confusion should be sent to confusion@mit.edu and not to The Tech.

All Day

Epsilon Theta – Come over to relax, meet some people, have a house tour, and be as random as you like. Call us at 734-9211 or 3-8888 for a ride.

Next House – Stop by any time throughout the day for a tour of our dorm. Refreshments provided for your enjoyment.

Next House – Billie and Eric's cheesecake supply is dwindling – quick, finish it off before they make more.

Theta Chi – Stop by anytime today for a house tour. Call 267-1801 if you need a ride.

5:00 a.m. – 8:00 a.m.

5:00 – French House – Baking for breakfast begins... fresh French bread and crepes!

5:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Catfish fishing in the Charles! Don't worry, it's a boot or a body, we'll eat what you catch!

7:55 – Next House: Before you run out for another day on the 'Tute, grab a quick breakfast of fruit, cereals, and bagels.

7:59 – East Campus – Come have breakfast at FRED. Plenty of food for you – everyone else is still asleep!

8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

8:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Brothers Pierre, Henri, and mission specialist Robert (pronounced without the 't') woke up at 4:30 to prepare a danish and croissant breakfast. So get out of bed and come eat it! Call 576-FRANCOIS-ESCARGOT (576-2792) for a ride!

8:00 – Alpha Epsilon Pi – Just like IHOP, but free. All-you-can-eat Breakfast at AEPI. We're awake, give us a ring at 247-3170

8:00 – Baker House – AWAKE ALREADY??? Well so are we think??? Stop on by BAKER for some bagels and donuts and stay for a tour.

8:00 – Burton-Conner – Got up early today? Don't worry, we have breakfast on the table for you-pancakes! Come on over and have a solid breakfast among good company. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.

8:00 – Burton-Conner – Yep, we start our movies early, but those who love movies understand. Our movie marathon is back in action, and you can come anytime to enjoy our extensive collection! Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.

8:00 – Epsilon Theta – BREAKFAST! You're up bright and early! Come over for crepes topped with your favorite fruit. Call us at 734-9211 or MIT extension 3-8888 for a ride.

8:00 – La Maison Francaise – Le Petit Dejeuner aux crepes commence! Crepes, pain frais, fruits, crepes, nutella, crepes, cafe, chocolat chaud, et crepes. Venez manger! (regardez l'activite de 5h00). Continuant jusqu'a midi.

8:00 – French House – Crepes breakfast begins! Crepes, fresh bread, fruit, crepes, nutella, crepes, coffee, hot chocolate, and crepes... Come eat with us! We'll keep going until noon... unless we eat all the food first.

8:00 – MacGregor – Start your day at MACGREGOR. We've got cereal, fruits, donuts, milk, juice, bagels and cream cheese for breakfast.

8:00-11:00 – McCormick – ROOTY, TOOTY, FRESH, AND FREE! Breakfast at McCormick in the glass corridor

8:00 – Phi Delta Theta – Pancake Breakfast. All the pancakes you can eat with all the delicious toppings you can imagine. Bacon, sausage, eggs, and home fries served on the side. What better way to start a fun-filled day? Call 247-8691 for a ride.

8:00 – pika – Yay! It's morning and you don't have to sleep anymore! Come have breakfast with some morning people while the rest of us sleep. Call 492-6983 for a ride from the sunrise mobile.

8:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Helena's banana pancakes. Helena's famous fresh fruit pancakes. The perfect wake up after a hard first day of Rush!

8:00 – Pi Lambda Phi – Gooooooooooooooooooooomorningclass of '02! Ring up Pi Lam (267-4935) for a chauffeured (probably in a Dodge Daytona) ride to a five-star breakfast of cereal, eggs, pancakes, sausage, and whatever else our cook, trained in culinary practices decides to make.

8:00 – Theta Chi – Don't miss our 35th annual Steak and Eggs Breakfast. We promise you all the steak, eggs, and hashbrowns you can eat! Give us a call and we'll come and pick you up. 267-1801.

8:00 – Theta Xi – Continental Breakfast – Wake up to some fresh orange juice, eggs, pancakes, bacon, coffee—all the BREAKFAST you can want and eat. Just remember to save some room for lunch.

8:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Get up to a MADE-TO-ORDER breakfast at ZBT. Whatever your heart desires. Choose from a variety of pancakes from the traditional buttermilk, blueberry, chocolate-chip and fruit varieties, to combinations that you create such as apple-cinnamon. Call Rick for Rides at 232-3257

8:03 – Womens' Independent Living Group – Put on your sneakers. It's time for jogging, walking, bouncing, and self-torture of many varied ilk. We've got a Down-Home Breakfast being served soon, too – just like grandma's! We'll still be serving when you jogging folk return...Call 253-6799 or 354-1263.

8:05 – Zeta Beta Tau – You thought ZBT just had pancakes! Nope we have potatoes, sausages, bacon, bagels, donuts, eggs, juices, coffee, danishes, muffins, fruit, and other breakfast delights. Also, Our cook will make up fresh omelettes. Everything will be made by our cook, Karen. Call Rick for Rides at 232-3257

8:15 – pika – Feel like you've been wearing the same clothes all week? Don't wash them! Buy a new wardrobe! Come writhe in piles of cheap clothing at dollar-a-pound! Scoot to the second-hand clothing store with pikans. 492-6983.

8:17 – Random Hall – Regress back to your youth (be it years ago or just last week) and come enjoy sugary breakfast foods while watching Saturday morning cartoons in the front lounge. Saturday cartoons 7 days a week in Random!

8:36 – Number 6 Club – gourmet breakfast. fortify your stomach for a day of fun at no.6. crepes, omelettes, coffee, and more.

9:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Danish and Croissant Breakfast.) Stop by and pick up some croissants for breakfast! Drink high-brow tea! Feel sophisticated! Get your sugar fix. Call 576-RISE-AND-SHINE (576-2792) for a ride.

9:00 – Epsilon Theta – HIKING TRIP. Get out of the city and explore the beautiful Blue Hills with the Epsilon Theta strike force. Great scenery and more action than a Kung Fu flick. Give us a ring at 3-8888 and we'll pick you up.

9:00 – German House – Breakfast

9:00 – Deutsches Haus – Frühstück Ort: Deutsches Haus (New House 6, erste Etage)

9:00 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  BREAKFAST, full continental breakfast! You tell us how you want it done. How does Belgium waffles topped with fresh strawberries sound? CREPES anyone?

9:00 – Phi Kappa Sigma – Have a gourmet buffet breakfast, with everyone favorite dishes bacon, eggs, sausage and chocolate chip pancakes

9:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – Helena's banana pancakes. Helena's famous fresh fruit pancakes. The perfect wake up after a hard first day of Rush!

9:00 – Student House – Sunday mornings were made for big breakfasts.

9:00 – La Casa – COME AND HAVE BREAKFAST AT LA CASA !!!! WE'RE HAVING WAFFLES, PANCAKES, FRUITS, AND OTHER GREAT STUFF, RUNNING TILL 11. DON'T MISS IT!!! FIRST FLOOR OF HOUSE 3, NEW HOUSE.

9:00-12:00 – Sigma Nu – Breakfast of Champions!! Belgian Waffles(strawberry, banana, blueberry, and cherry toppings), omelettes, pancakes, french toast, sausage, and BACON, BACON BACON, BACON!!!!!! Wash it down with Florida orange juice, milk, and Columbian coffee.

9:00 – Theta Delta Chi – Wake and Bake : waffles, fruit, pancakes, eggs, bacon, omelettes, home-fries, french-toast, crepes and hash. Our chef knows all the secrets of tasty food preparation.

9:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – You have never experienced breakfast till you've had a ZBT breakfast at the non-pledging powerhouse of excellence. Read our 8 a.m. entry for a glimpse at the all you can eat feast. Call Rick for Rides at 232-3257.

9:02 – Womens' Independent Living Group – In the Wilg living room we prefer to think of Sunday as Saturday; The Sequel. And today's CARTOONS are even better – we'll skip the commercials. Don't forget about breakfast, we've got that too. Eggs, Bacon, Sausage, Hash Browns, Pancakes, Fruit... Call for a ride 253-6799 or 354-1263.

9:03 – pika – pika: a three story house in residential Cambridge. Our neighbors are probably still asleep. Come have a relaxing morning. Call 492-6983 for a quiet ride.

9:10 – Womens' Independent Living Group – A Shopping Trip Anybody Can Afford!! Come visit the Garment District with us and rifle amongst cheap vintage and used clothing. Its definitely worth pulling yourself out of bed for! We leave in 20 minutes. The van will pick you up if you call 253-6799 or 354-1263.

9:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Steak-Um and Eggo Breakfast! All the healthy foods a growing boy or girl needs to start the day, plus a bunch that taste good! Call 262-5090 for breakfast in bed, as long as you don't mind us bringing your bed to the table.

9:30 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  PAINTBALL, shoot up your friends with paint, when else can you do all this for free? PAINTBALL players, we want you to show us your stuff! A must do if you've never tried it before.

9:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – Sunday at Pi Lam is a legendary, incredible event. The aftermath will be felt for miles. Be at the epicenter for to infamous Trolley Tour. 267-4935

9:30 – La Casa – BREAKFAST IS STILL GOING ON AT LA CASA. COME MEET SOME OF THE COOL PEOPLE WHO LIVE HERE AND HAVE SOME GREAT FOOD AT THE SAME TIME.

9:30 – Theta Chi – Just wake up? Don't worry, you're not too late for our Steak and Eggs Breakfast. Just call 267-1801 if you need a ride.

9:37 – Russian House – Alternative breakfast: you pick it you eat it. Raspberry season is almost over, so come pick raspberries with us before you miss your chance!

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

10:00 – Phi Delta Theta – Boat Cruise. Join us for a boat ride in the Boston Harbor as we head out to St. George's Island. Then relax on the picturesque island or explore the historical fort nestled within its shores. Call 247-8691 for a ride.

10:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – FUEL. You need fuel. Later today, ADP has a canoe trip, a paintball game, and a Cafe Thursday, so if you haven't had breakfast yet, come on over! Dial 576-TEA-EARL-GREY-HOT (576-2792) for priority transportation.

10:00 – Baker House – Breakfast at Baker continues. Now that we're slightly more awake, come by to say hi and stay for a tour of our awesome, newly remodeled dorm J.

10:00 – Burton-Conner – We offer tours throughout the day, so come and check us out! We're one of the most interesting dorms and offer great rooms arranged in the homey suite system. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.

10:00 – Chi Phi – PAINTBALL with Chi Phi. Head out with our team of seasoned field paintballers. Appropriate dress: outdoor shoes, jeans, and an old T-shirt.

10:00 – Chi Phi – There's still time to go PAINTBALLING with Chi Phi.

10:00 – German House – Raspberry Picking! Raspberry season is almost over, so come pick raspberries with us before you miss your chance! Departure: around 10:00 from the Student Center Back: around 12:30

10:00 – Deutsches Haus – Hinbeerpflücken. Die Hinbeer Saison ist fast vorüber. Kommen sie mit uns um welche zu pflücken vor sie alle verschwunden sind! Abfahrt: etwa 10:00 vom Student Center. Zurück: etwa 12:30

10:00 – Fenway House – Green Eggs and Ham. I like them, Sam I am! Call for a ride, or be denied. 437-1043

10:00 – La Maison Francaise – Venez cueillir des framboises! Nous allons cueillir des framboises fraiches! Elles seront bientôt hors saison, alors mangez-en maintenant. Rendez vous au Student Center ou a New House. Nous reviendrons vers 12h30.

10:00 – La Maison Francaise – Fresh raspberries and cream, anyone? We're going to a raspberry picking! (and bringing along cream and sugar ...) Meet at New House or Student Center. Call French House at x86388 for directions/info.

10:00 – MacGregor – Don't forget breakfast! Start your day at MACGREGOR. We've got cereal, fruits, donuts, milk, juice, bagels and cream cheese.

10:00 – New House – Brunch!!! Need I say more?

10:00 – Nu Delta – PAINTBALL. Guns, mud, and no repercussions. Come on over Rambo. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

10:00 – Phi Kappa Sigma – Early morning sports with basketball at DuPont and Sailing on the Charles 10:00 – Student House – Come on over, take a house tour, and get ready to go to the beach!

10:00 – Theta Xi – George's Island Getaway – Come with us to GEORGE'S ISLAND for an afternoon of sports, exploring, and scaring the bejesus out of little kids that make the mistake of wandering into the fort ruins right in front of you.

10:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Were still serving up those delicious ZBT breakfasts. (See the 8a.m. description to catch a glimpse of the GREATEST BREAKFAST on campus) Even if you have had breakfast come by early so that you can get a spot in our PAINTBALL Trip. Call Rick for Rides at 232-3257

10:00 – Zeta Psi – Come check out some of our favorite restaurants in Cambridge and Boston when we go out for Sunday Brunch. Take your pick of a traditional brunch, a New Orleans Gospel Brunch, or Chinese dim sum.

10:01 – Womens' Independent Living Group – Missing your messages? Come make a personalized Memo Board for your new room! Plus, our Down Home Breakfast is still being served. Need a ride? Just call 253-6799 or 354-1263.

10:03 – pika – You're a superstar. That is what you are. Coming from above.

Reaching for the stars. Need a boost? Try stilts with Max. Try making stilts with Max. Try making Max out of stilts. Call 492-6983 for a ride.

10:11 – East Campus – Take one of our super-fun, super squishy tours! Find out what a furry fish is and collect tickets for the carnival!

10:15 – Nu Delta – PAINTBALL. Guns, mud, and no repercussions. Come on over Rambo. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

10:20 – Nu Delta – PAINTBALL. Guns, mud, and no repercussions. Come on over Rambo. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

10:22 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Coffee Hour. Mmmm... Donuts! We do this every week to wake up Sunday mornings. Come steal the comics and slam Ask Marilyn with us! Call 262-5090 for a ride.

10:24 – pika – pika: probably incoherent kale addicts. 492-6983

10:30 – Nu Delta – PAINTBALL. Guns, mud, and no repercussions. Come on over Rambo. Give us a ring and we'll pick you up (437-7300).

10:30 – Pi Lambda Phi – Pi Lambda Phi's Trolley Tour. It's been a while for longer than any of us can remember, and we've never been arrested... yet. Call 267-ROCK

10:30 – Theta Chi – Outdoor Paintball (limited space). We're leaving in thirty minutes, so come on over or call us for a ride at 267-1801.

10:33 – Womens' Independent Living Group – Engage in the great Soda/Pop Debate at our Picnic on the Boston Commons. Open a can of, um, refreshing carbonated beverage, and go for a cruise on the Swan Boats. We leave in half an hour, call for a ride at 253-6799 or 354-1263.

10:36 – Epsilon Theta – Just stumbling out of bed? That's quite all right! There's plenty of food left. Join us for Breakfast, The Ongoing Morning Activity. Call 3-8888 for a ride.

10:36 – Number 6 Club – manchester beach. sun, soccer, volleyball, frisbee, and of course, food. vans leave no.6 every 1/2 hour until 12:36. in case of rain, join us for the isabella stewart gardner museum housed in a beautiful fifteenth century venetian palace in boston.

10:37 – Russian House – Breakfast – enjoy the delicious "bliny s vareniem", and our famous Russian kasha. Chat with the house residents... Gather your strength for the make-your-own-subtitles cartoon session at 11:37 or the nature trip at 12:37.

10:44 – Tau Epsilon Phi – Come on a Canoe Trip way up the Charles. See the colossal Man-Eating Flounder and feel the propulsive power of a sleek 17 foot canoe. Call 262-5090 for a ride, and don't forget your Speedo.

10:45 – Alpha Epsilon Pi – Problem sets coming soon? Don't act your age, playing mini-golf, arcade games and bumper boats with AEPI. Call us up, we want you to be there! 247-3170

10:45 – Pi Lambda Phi – Never seen Boston? Even if you have, you've never seen it like this. Pi Lam's incredible Trolley Tour. 267-4935

10:45 – La Casa – CATCH THE LAST OF THE BREAKFAST AT LA CASA. THE FOOD IS STILL BEING MADE FRESH TO ORDER. EAT AS MUCH AS YOU WANT! NEW HOUSE, FIRST FLOOR, HOUSE 3.

10:60 – Student House – Surf the Net – You know what the net is really for. We'll take you to the HOTTEST site. It's John's favorite. Yep, that's right: www.weather.com

11:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Canoe! Make reservations on the coveted canoe trip immediately! We'll be underway noonish, so if you're not aboard then, well, you'll just see all the OTHER COOL STUFF we're planning! Call 576-DONT-NEED-TO-SWIM (576-2792) for a ride.

11:00-4:00 – Kappa Sigma – Go waterskiing and bathe in the sun.

11:00 – New House – Yummy brunch. There, I've said more.

11:00 – Phi Kappa Theta – PKT Charles River CANOE WAR!!!!!! Come and take PKT's famous Canoe Challenge. Bring a towel and an attitude for WAR!!

11:00 – Pi Lambda Phi – The Trolley is pulling out, so get on board. The most fun you'll ever have on four (or is it six?) wheels. Pi Lambda Phi's renegade Trolley Tour: 267-ROCK.

11:00 – Senior House – Heavy Metal Espresso Breakfast at Senior House Rise and shine.

11:00 – Sigma Chi – Go out to lunch in Boston with Sigma Chi. Call 262-3192 for a ride

11:00 – Student House – Enjoy the last warm days of summer while you can! Come with us to the beach to picnic, play frisbee, swim, or just bask in the sun

11:00 – Zeta Beta Tau – Take a break and have fun with PAINTBALL but make sure to come by as soon as possible to get a spot. If you just came by and had the greatest breakfast(see 8a.m. descriptions) or if you're an early bird grab a sandwich from our sandwich feast. Call Rick for rides at 232-3257

11:01 – Womens' Independent Living Group – HURRY UP!!! We're leaving for a Picnic on the Boston Commons right now. Or stop by and solve your contactability problems with a Message Board of your own conception and execution! We'll come get you if you call 253-6799 or 354-1263.

11:06 – Fenway House – Tie-Dyeing! We're dyeing to meet you. We have T-shirts, socks and dyes. 437-1043

11:15 – Pi Lambda Phi – For a good time, call 267-4935 – Pi Lambda Phi's Trolley Tour of Boston, Wellesley, and other women's schools in the area.

11:15 – Theta Delta Chi – Experience an Adrenaline RUSH. Paint the whole town of Randolph red as you duke it out over a paintball match. Winners get to be Winnebago Warriors and drive through several Boston campuses.

11:20 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  FRESH FRUIT SMOOTHIES, strawberries, cherries, banana,orange!

11:29 – East Campus – Pondering answers to deep philosophical questions? – When a tree falls in the woods with no one there to hear it, is there a sound? What's happening at EC? How many licks DOES it take? Call x89780 and find out!

11:30 – Alpha Tau Omega – Canoeing in Concord. Alpha Tau Omega.

11:37 – Russian House – Russian Cartoons (Group Session: make your own English subtitles – Russian fluency is not needed or helpful.) This will be our tribute to Mystery Science Theatre 3000 and Beavis and Buttthead.

11:38 – pika – Trying to reach new heights in life? Try six foot three. Stilt making and walking, at pika. Call 492-6983 and a van on stilts will come pick you up.

11:45 – Theta Delta Chi – For the less sadistic folk, party at Pete's Lakehouse. Water-skiing, BBQ, Boating, Volleyball the possibilities are limitless.

11:55 – Next House – Play Volleyball, hang out, and make your own sandwich at our Deli Bar.

12:00 noon – 2:00 p.m.

12:00 – Alpha Delta Phi – Westward Ho! The canoe trip launches at high noon – hurry! Barbeque lunch is also a happening thang; if you need energy after an exhaustingly fun Rush morning, ADP is the place to be. Call 576-LUNCHTIME (576-2792) for a ride.

12:00 – Baker House – BAKER CARNIVAL Miniature golf, electronic games, water balloons, sno cones, prizes Who cares if you're in college now, you can still act like a kid. Hey, we do!! Drop by for a CARNIVAL and BARBECUE the Baker way.

12:00 – Burton-Conner – Ready for some fun outside? Come for our Picnic and Carnival! Trust me, you won't regret it. Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.

12:00 – Burton-Conner – Get a free T-shirt and an opportunity to tie-dye your shirt! First come, first serve-and we only have 30 T-shirts! Phone 253-3261 for assistance or come to Burton-Conner, 410 Memorial Dr.

12:00 – East Campus – We put the CARNIVAL back in CARNIVAL! Hairdyeing, facepainting, cotton candy, jewelry and candleholder-making, beanbag and dart tosses, popcorn, snocones, live music, and yes! – our patented, out-of-this-world MOONBOUNCE!!

12:00 – Epsilon Theta – PICNIC IN THE PARK. Come join us in the park down the street for a lunch of hamburgers and hotdogs. Vegetarian options, too (and we'll restrain Will this time). Call 3-8888 for a ride.

12:00-5:00 – Kappa Sigma – Come along to Starland Amusement park and have fun playing mini golf, driving go karts and hitting on the driving range.

12:00 – MacGregor – FREE FOOD! Eat burgers and hot dogs and chill at MACGREGOR's Eternal BBQ.

12:00 – MacGregor – Stop by any time all day for a tour of MACGREGOR.

12:00 – MacGregor – Relax and watch a movie at MACGREGOR. Stop by any time, day or night, and pick one of your favorite movies to watch from our huge video collection.

12:00 – New House – If you want to live in a place you'll be more than happy to call home, come by New House.

12:00 – Phi Beta Epsilon –  BBQ SOCIAL, want to meet people? come hang out with us and meet people on our rooftop, ALL YOU CAN EAT WINGS! Door PRIZES!

12:00 – Phi Delta Theta – Deli lunch. The stresses of Rush getting to you? Come over to snack on some good, wholesome, home foods. We promise casual fun and a low-pressure atmosphere. Call 247-8691 for a ride.

12:00 – Phi Kappa Sigma – Deli buffet lunch with everything from prosciutto to