EDGAR ALLEN POE IS AT LAST JUSTLY HONORED

Famous Poet Is Given a Long Deserved Niche in "The Hall of Fame" for Great Men

Edgar Allen Poe has been elected to fill a niche in the "Hall of Fame of Great Americans," that peculiar structure that lends a certain distinction to University Heights, New York. It is most interesting to consider how, in a country where so very many great poets have been forced to wait so many years for this recognition, the American literary men should not be forced to wait so many years for this recognition. It has grown each succeeding year until it has become a household name in all parts of the country. It is a name that has been given to aid the athletic Association, which was then greatly assisted by a number of its members who were not able to participate in the events. The records, such as revolutions of the propeller, size, weight, and thrust of the propeller were all recorded and kept for future reference. The competitor having the greatest aggregate number of points in Fall and Spring combined would be awarded a trophy of the College Cup, this latter being permanently inscribed with the name of the winner. A replica would be presented to each year's winner.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1910.

With all the precautions taken by last year's Institute Committee, this year has opened with no active committee. If there was no real work to be done there might be some excuse for delaying action until all elections of class representatives have been made, but there is none. The greatest work accomplished by the committee last year was the establish- ment of the Finance Commission to aid and watch over the activities and classes in their financial affairs. One member was elected to serve on that non-student commission, Mr. H. W. Litchfield 1885. No one better could be selected for this position, but it is not and can never be a one man commission. There are two other members to be selected. They should have been named at the very first of the year, before the activities had even started their work; for the best time to make suggestions on how to carry out our bookkeeping is very early, for they are first elected and not after weeks have rolled by.

One meeting of the Institute Com- mittee has been held this year, and another one attempted, but this mat- ter has not been attended to. The committee should be called immedi- ately to arrange for these two other non-student men.

Last year's senior nominations were due to be handed in by October 19. It was not many days more than that which the school year and there has been no official mention of junior nominations. Let us quote a few excerpts from the 1912 constitution:

"Article 7, Section 2.-Nominations (for the positions hereinafter mentioned) shall be made to the committee..." (Continued from page 1) and conditions stated. Immediately after this competition closes the mu- sic competition and poster competition opens. All of the above competitions for management and cast are open to undergraduates and non-student men.

It is, therefore, plainly evident that there are numerous opportunities open to men to connect themselves with Tech show in one way or another. This should appeal especially to new men. "Do not wait" until you are a Sophomore to come out for the show. Start in right and work hard.

The acquisitions men make, the valuable experience obtained and the many good times enjoyed with more than pep any man for the time spent on the show. Every year at least one extended trip is taken, with per- formances in other cities. Every loyal Tech man should at least resolve to make an attempt at being actively con- nected with and support Tech Show 1911, in order to make it the best show ever.

If you want to buy a pen so con- structed that it couldn't possibly leak,

One that you could carry anywhere and in any position in your pocket or bag and know it was absolutely ink-tight;
One that would give you the kind of pen you got when you buy a More's Non-Leakable number, just the kind of pen you get when you buy a More's Non-Leakable Fountain Pen very nearly perfect, wouldn't you?
If you didn't want that, just tell us what you want, and we will forward this warrant from which you can choose:

More's Non-Leakable Models H, J, or K, for the reasons for the difference in this right hand, or left hand writing.
