GREAT CATASTROPHE AT FRESHMAN TUG OF WAR

Historic Old Post Victor of so Many Struggles at Last Succumbs

After resolving the assaults of close tug-of-war teams for years, the tug-of-war square post at the Gym gave up the struggle last night, snapping off short during a four-minute pull of the Freshman rope stretcher. It seems almost pitiful that this couch of so many teams should have succumbed before taking part in a real Field Day contest. A whole team itself, it has never before been able to win its numerales, although the fence which surrounded it is decorated with the numbers of many classes. Perhaps its absolute lack of class spirit has prevented its acquiring some recognition, but last night it has pulled against one class as hard as against another. Does its final yield mean the end of class struggle or desire? It took forty men to bring about this catastrophe, and last night the afternoon was not advertised in advance. Practice consisted of two-minute pulls, although short pulls. Tomorrow the team will divide and begin their pistol starts, which have not been commenced as yet. Candidates for the team are selected at their first victory and hopes for a second victory on November 4 are high.

For the last two years this motor has been used by the students in tests of the engineers. It was shown only to 18 h.p., and double the speed desired in the engines. It had carried 50 per cent. overload for so many times that its troubles, the motor shows itself as being very well designed.

If we are to believe in omen, yesterday's victory for 1914 in the cup of war should encourage the supporters of the Freshmen in their predictions for Field Day. The occurrence of yesterday's practice is the kind of omen that can be depended upon as a forecast of future events. Some of the Sophomores have been over-confident in the ability of their class to pull the rope over next week Friday, relying rather upon the weights of their classmates than upon the regular practice of a large number of older students. Some of the skill acquired by practice are as important in carrying the rope as are the ability of their opponents, so we find that every man in the third and fourth years in Course II. It is hoped that the Sophomores and the Men will take up on Somerville's 20-yard line. Garland now made 20, then 20 more. Somerville on the next play was penalized 5 yards for being offside. Finden then tried a forward pass, but Somerville got the ball behind its own goal, the teams going up on Somerville's 20-yard line. Garland now made 20, then 20 more. Somerville on the next play was penalized 5 yards for off-side. Garland then made 5 yards. Tech was penalized 5 yards and then, after a five-yard gain by that. Tech moved down to the 5-yard line. After a small gain the ball was again on the 5-yard line. Van Eilen now plugged the centre for a few yards, Mitchell through the right tackle for 4 more; then Van Eilen again, the ball being finally on Somerville's one-yard line on the third down. Somerville immediately lost ball on a fumble, but in the next play Tech was penalized 5 yards for being off-side. Finden then tried a forward pass, but Somerville got the ball behind its own goal, the teams going up on Somerville's 20-yard line. Garland now made 20, then 20 more. I was able to point out subjects of interest. I might be able to get into closer touch with some other afternoon, although a few men are inconvenienced thereby. A new departure this year will be the attendance of department professors on these excursions. One or more will accompany each party, and will in this way be able to get into closer touch with the students, as well as being able to point out subjects of interest in connection with class-room work.

The excursion to Niagara Falls is being worked on, and will soon be put before the students. This excursion will probably cost $10 or $15 per man, although nothing definite can be stated at this time.

Mr. Lawrence R. Smith has changed his office from 13 Eng. B to Professor Haven of the department. The party was accompanied by Professor Haven of the department.

A most remarkable step and a most pronounced one is to be taken by President Taft, according to Washington dispatches. The Negro, Mr. Wm. H. Lewis, is to be appointed to the position of Assistant U. S. Attorney-General, an honor never before accorded to one of that race. Mr. Lewis is now District Attorney here in Boston, and is a man who has made much distinction for remarkable work as long as he has been in public life. His great honor is one that was given by President Taft in order to carry out his ideas, that negroes should be given all possible recognition of worth.

Mr. Lewis attended Amherst, where he was captain of the football team in 1892. Then he went to Harvard and attained great distinction there, both in scholarship and athletics. In 1895 he passed his bar examinations and chose that time to become lawyer and better known in his profession. In 1902 he was elected to the Legislature, on honor most rare in this part of the country. Since 1905 Mr. Lewis has been Assistant District Attorney in Boston.
