GIFORD PINCHOT
STARTS CAMPAIGN

Mr. Gifford Pinchot, president of the National Conservation Association, is planning a most aggressive campaign for the next session of Congress. It is needless to state that he will demand his bill and his reason for it is that he has been upholding since his first term, the idea that no official government position must be filled by an office in any case. The public officials have thus been discharged and no bill has yet been introduced making any official position and then he will devote his energy to the same campaign for the next session of Congress.

Mr. Pinchot, in his first message, advocated the passage of a bill to fill the position of secretary of the Interior, and has made a special request for the passage of a bill. He is firmly convinced that the passage of both of these bills will be successful and the bills were

Furthermore, Mr. Pinchot did not overlook the fact that Taft, in his first message, advocated the passage of a bill to fill the position of secretary of the Interior, and has made a special request for the passage of a bill. COMMUNICATIONS.

Tuesday, November 29, 1910.

The first appointments from the class of 1911 to positions on the news and business staffs of The Tech, will be announced tonight at The Tech dinner. These are the first appointments from the class and will, of course, include but a few of the most talented, and those men who do not receive appointments should not so much be discouraged. Promotion is dependent upon the quantity and quality of work done and, above all, upon reliability in covering assignments. Thus, a man may just barely fail of an appointment at this time and yet be in a position to receive such recognition in the near future.

A full list of appointments will be published in this column in tomorrow's issue of The Tech.
