In the Lyman Gym, at Providence, Saturday night, the Institute Basket Ball Team defeated Dartmouth by 21 to 17. The game was fast and free and the immense crowd of spectators filled the gymnasium to overflowing. The Tech team, led by Charles Brown, played a splendid game, and went on to establish a record of eight straight victories.

The Institute team, under the direction of Coach Sanger, showed good form in the opening game of the season, and played a strong game against a team that was considered one of the strongest in the country. The game was marked by fine individual play and good team work, and the Institute team were deservedly victorious.

The score was 21 to 17, and the game was fast and free. The Institute team were ahead throughout the game, and their efforts were rewarded by a well-deserved victory.

The Institute team were led by Charles Brown, who played a splendid game, and scored many of the key points for his team. Brown was in fine form, and his play was a source of inspiration to his teammates.

The Institute team were also led by a fine defense, which kept the Dartmouth team from scoring many points. The defense was well-coordinated, and the Institute team were able to prevent the Dartmouth team from gaining many advantages.

The Institute team were able to gain an eye for the basket, which made it possible for them to score many points. The Institute team were also able to make many fine passes, which enabled them to move the ball quickly and effectively.

In the end, the Institute team were able to gain a comfortable victory over Dartmouth, and their efforts were rewarded by a well-deserved victory. The Institute team were a strong and well-coordinated team, and their efforts were rewarded by a well-deserved victory.

Princeton Track Schedule
Princeton has completed the schedule for the track season of 1911. A large number of meets have been arranged for, in the early part of the season, while indoor work is still in progress. The most agnostic expect to enter relay teams in many of the indoor meets, these teams being chosen by competition in each race. The following is the schedule of the indoor games.
- March 12: Fordham Indoor meet.
- March 17: Annual meet of the Princeton University, A. A. The P. 1. T. A. A. meet which is held annually in the gymnasium will conclude the indoor season.
- The outdoor season will open the middle of April with the Caledonian games. During the spring the team will represent the University of Pennsylvania relay games and will hold regular dual meets with Yale and Cornell. The season will conclude with the intercollegiate on May 26 and 27.

In the Limelight
Wonder how Captain Bookmiller would execute the "squawkey twernt" exercise?

If the Freshman had no other incentive to drill well, the Juliets on the balcony of the Armoury would be all-sufficient.

The "artists" who "hid" some of the signs on the Bulletin Boards have evidently refused to invite by Mr. Graczy's primary and secondary masses. And indeed, one would think that Graczy is a preacher by the way he insists on having "masses."

President Henry F. Bryant, 1887, of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, was a guest of the Civil Engineering Society last Friday night.
