CATHOLICS TO MEET.

Speaker Will Be Judge Murray of the Municipal Court.

The next meeting of the Catholic Club is to be held in the Union on March 6. The meeting will commence at 8 P. M. Judge Murray, who is of the Municipal Court Circuit, will address the members. A report of the dance committee is to be expected.

Judge Murray has been a prominent figure in state politics as well as an able member of the bench. He has also been a popular speaker, at such meetings as this. The Club was unable to obtain his services last year and for that reason considers itself especially fortunate in having him for a speaker this year. In view of this it is hoped that the meeting will be well attended and that Judge Murray will be shown the interest due a man of such prominence.

DR. ROSE'S LECTURES.

Lowell Institute Speaker On Bonaparte as Warrior.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Dr. J. Holland Rose will give his third lecture in the Lowell Institute Series. It is titled "The Bonaparte Myth in the Nineteenth Century." In his first lecture Dr. Rose has shown the development of Napoleon's myth in the 19th century, and in the second his biographers in his time. In this lecture he will bring out the modern developments in a way that is interesting and instructive.

OUTDOOR TRACK.

Prospects Bright.

Few Men Have Been Lost and Promising Candidates Have Appeared.

Although it seems to be a little early to talk about outdoor track, the field will be open in about a week, and the track men will start to put themselves in condition for the outdoor season. Plans for a stronger team than that of last year are very good. Few of the best men have been lost by graduation last year, but the places of those few will be filled, as they were among the best all-round athletes that the Institute has ever produced. "Bill" Salisbury and Peter White will be especially missed.

The chief difficulty in the team is the lack of good throwers and weight men. There are a lot of good men in the throwing events, but experience in these events could make the team the best ever if they could come out. It is hoped that a few of them will wake up and do their best.

The Freshman team has several good men who will give the older members of the squad a hard time to retain their places. O'Brien has shown himself to be a strong man and will probably make good in the dashes. With O'Brien, Williams and Wilkins, the Tech team should be able to take care of itself in the 100 yard. The 440 yard has received a valuable addition in Harry and Bolten. The team is not as strong as last year, but promises to be as good as it was.

At Queen's College, Kingston, Ont., there is a big interest in the track events. A lot of the athletes who have been playing on the track team this season. It is a meet in the high hurdles. The high jump will be taken care of by Halfway, with Hall, Eberhardt and Tresnon to back him up. The dashes are not very promising, but O'Brien and Crowell of the American College are promising. Men are needed also for the broad jump, as few fellows have practiced this event.

The Intercollegiate and the B. A. A. hockey team will continue work and the track team can get back to work.

The Arena management did not price the tickets at the last name as they did at the one before, therefore they had a crowd there.

The Intercollegiates and the B. A. A. hockey teams are not going to be stopped by a few rules if they want to win that $100 cup.
COMMUNICATION.

(We invite communications from all men on the subject of the important subjects. We take no responsibility for their sentiments and do not agree to print any that may come in, whether they are signed or not.)

To the Editor of THE TECH:

Through your columns please permit me to give what I hope will be the closing remarks of the recent discussion on the conduct of Union.

Many very regrettable students have marked this discussion, none more so than the doubt that seems to cast on the meaning of Bursar Rand. No one regrets this phase of the matter more than the present writer.

The communications of A. K. Iker have been poorly expressed, and were evidently the result of an over-hasty judgment in many instances. While the writer had in mind certain others for omission, it brought these most forcibly to the reader's ear. A delay of twenty-four hours before sending them in for publication might have been very beneficial to all concerned. There seem to have been two main lines of attack: one against the management of the Dining Room and the Union Committee, and the following points seem to have been brought out.

The dining room is having the most prosperous year in its history. The profits, whatever they may amount to, are being set aside for a sinking fund, a necessary adjunct to any well conducted business venture. The students pay less for their meals in the Union than in the resturants adjacent to the Institute. The question is raised as to whether the quality of the food can not be bettered or the cost still further decreased without appreciably affecting the accumulation of the necessary sinking fund. This is a matter for the Dining Room Committee to determine.

The second line of attack was directed more against the conduct of the meetings of the Union Committee than against its inactivity, although both came in for criticism. It seems to be apparent that the members of the committee were not doing their best work, and that the committee does not stand for what it did two years ago. It is a fact that when the management of the Union was entirely in the hands of the students it was a bad failure financially. With a capable man like Bursar Rand in charge of the funds, and with the benefit of his knowledge of business management coupled with the proper expression of student sentiment through the Union Committee, experience should not be repeated.

The new problem seems to have been a storm center in itself. It is unfortunate that such a gift from one of our graduates should be the cause of any disturbance. The House Committee has arranged to have it played every Tuesday and Friday noon, two concerts a week being considered frequent enough. Bursar Rand told the writer when the Victrola came that if it at any time any society or responsible parties wanted to have it for an entertainment he would be glad to give them permission, and he wanted it generally understood. Whether he has changed his mind or not, I can not say. If the House Committee could arrange to have it played occasionally in the course of the evening, I believe it would be greatly appreciated.

The students patronizing the Union often register their kicks with one another, but very few of those ever become known to the committee of the dining room. The latter should always welcome more criticism, and faults might be remedied if brought to the attention of the proper committee.

Very truly yours,
Oliver D. Powell.
MRS. ROGERS' PORTRAIT TO BE UNVEILED TODAY

Prof. Sedgwick Will Speak at the Convocation in Huntington Hall.

Professor Sedgwick will deliver the address at the Convocation to be held today at 2 P.M., in Huntington Hall, for the unveiling of Mrs. Rogers' portrait.

At the last Convocation the President did not especially ask for a full attendance, and the result was that only a few fellows were present. This year, however, exercises will be suspended from 2 to 2:30 P.M. for the purpose of getting every fellow in the Institute a chance to attend. The portrait to be unveiled was painted by the celebrated Ipsen, and was bequeathed by Mrs. Rogers to the Institute before her decease last spring, together with an estate valued at $500,000. Mrs. Rogers has always proven herself a friend to the Institute, by her devotion to student interest in it. Professor Sedgwick was chosen to speak because of intimate friendship with Mrs. Rogers. It is hoped that the entire student body will show their appreciation of her kindness by attending the Convocation.

By the way, talking about wrestling, isn't it a good thing for the crew and track to limber up by going out for the spring meet?
