At Twelve-Twenty the Shanty at the Oval Will Be Thrown Open.

Next Tuesday, at 12:20 o'clock, the little window of the small shanty at the B. A. A. Oval will be opened and the 1914 Technique will be handed out to the luckiest of men who presents the first exchange slip.

The following rules will strictly govern the rush:

1. All books, first, second, third, fourth, and twentieth books will be in the leather bound de luxe edition and will be signed by the President. The remainder will be plain copies, but those, too, will count and be in the recipient's signature.

2. Exchange slips will be given out at the window during the rush only to those men who have exchanged the small fifteen-dollar deposit tickets for the larger slips good for the book itself. On no account will a book be given in exchange for the small deposit slips.

3. Deposit slips may be exchanged for the small slips only between one and two o'clock at the Union, and at the Oval on next Tuesday before the rush.

4. Those who obtain books in the rush must have them immediately after it is over.

5. The first gun will be fired at a quarter past twelve, sharp, and will be followed by the second gun.

The second shot will be fired two minutes after the third, at an interval of ten seconds. The starting gun will be followed at exactly twenty o'clock minutes past twelve o'clock.

All those that do not enter the rush may obtain books on presentation of the deposit slips either at the Oval Thursday noon, or at the Union on the following days.

HOOK NIGHT CANCELLED.

Few Men Willing to Give Efforts So All Plans Fall Through

All plans that the Hook Night Committee had arranged for a first-class entertainment for the men in the Union tonight have been called off because of lack of entries. The committee has been busily seeking vaudville acts ever since the idea was conceived in February, but the students have responded poorly to their efforts.

The Manager of the affair succeeded in finding only four teams willing to enter, and the committee announced it that the meeting will be held at the Union on next Tuesday noon, or at the Union on the following days.

FINANCE COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING

Reports from the Activities Show Clean Record For the Majority.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee, which President Ethron presided, the reports of the several activities represented in the committee were read and discussed.

Senior Portefolio Committee reported that the new books will be for sale at the following prices: The Prentice, the Methodist Clubs, and the American Educational Institute, eighty cents; the others, one dollar.

Mr. Liebfeltz proposed to have a report of the Finance Committee's monies as a basis for the budget of the activities of next year. It was agreed that the graduating secretaries should be elected to assist in the work of bringing in the funds. Nominations and elections were held, and the result was that Robert Weeks, business manager of the Union, was unanimously elected. He will receive the reports of the different committees and clubs, and after inspection he will present them to the graduating secretary, Grover, who, with the aid of Mr. Liebfeltz and Mr. Coburn, will meet next Monday, May 3, at 7:00 o'clock, for the purpose of bringing the funds in order.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Co- burn invited all the members of the Finance Committee to assemble at the Technology Club for their next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned with three cheers for Mr. Coburn.

1914 TECHNIQUE

At a meeting of the 1914 Technique Committee, James Leitch, the elected Statistician of the 1914 Technique, announced that the meetings of the committee have been postponed to April 23, when the Art Editor will be elected from the men whose names, addresses, and committee have been submitted. The committee announced that the meeting will be held at any time that a sufficient number of votes are obtained.

In a six-lining game between Chel- sea High and East Boston High, the latter scored a 15-10 victory, and this may help the schooieflit of the other nine.

Met Shepard is expected to come to the Oval again in the games for the State.
