ARCHITECTURALS HOLD ENJOYABLE SMOKER

Mr. E. I. Williams, '08, Gives Talk on Architecture in Europe.

Last night the Architectural Society held its second smoker of the year—one of the best meetings the society has had. Over eighty students were present to enjoy the talk of the speaker of the evening, Mr. E. I. Williams, '08.

Mr. Williams, who won the Travelling scholarship in 1915, spoke interestedly concerning the American Institute at Rome. He gave a brief resume of the different procedure of the students abroad, as compared with the methods pursued by those at Tech.

He showed how architecture was neither studied as a subject for science nor distinction, but by a combination of the two plus reason.

The following are the main points in his lecture:

1. The present tendency is most clearly in favor of studying the methods by which the French students study the elements and how they treat them, and the reasons why they consult the French system, which in his opinion is far from being enough to be employed one semester. He explained how the students' view were and how valuable it was for a student to have the ability to think along these lines, and how it is the standard for the Tech spirit for study, much like the "Tech spirit.

Then followed a description of the American Academy at Rome, the general procedure being ignored, for it is not a school but a home in which the students dwell by coming in contact with some of the finest things in art and architecture. (Continued on Page 2.)

NO TECH ENTRY.

Team Will Not Meet Harvard in C. A. C. Games Next Week.

Coach Kandy and Captain German have decided that since the examinations will have started by the time scheduled for the Coast Artillery Corp games, no relay team will be entered in this meet. This decision was made in order to give the members of the relay team a real chance to study for their exams, for, if they entered the race, it would be impossible for their studies to have been neglected. These games take place on January 27th, the Scarlet Armys on Irvington street. All men desiring to enter will be notified in time by coach Kandy, who will not ask anyone to give up their time in favor of the meet.

Yesterday afternoon the men were again timed for a 300-yard trial, which, however, will have no effect on their standing, the latter being entirely decided during the final trials on Saturday and Wednesday. H. S. Sumner, the speedy freshman, is still running long, but nevertheless will take his trial, and still has a fine chance to make the team.

SHOW MAY BE GIVEN IN N. Y. THIS YEAR

Alumni at Reunion to Be Asked to Support New York Performance.

Now that the time of the Alumni Reunion in New York is near the Show is doing the most it can to persuade the hundreds of Institute men who will thus be brought together to do all in their power to make a performance of "Money in Sight" a possibility for New York City. It has been the ambition of the Show management for the last two or three years to give such a performance, but so far it has not seemed possible to do so. The reason presents a simple way in which to reach the Alumni, so that it becomes an important consideration for a performance in the Astor Hotel on April 19, 1913, has been progressing for the past three years.

The possibility of a production in New York was first brought to the attention of the New York Alumni Association by R. V. Weeks, general manager, on the 15th of November. The Association seemed to be enthusiasm about the project and appointed a committee to look after the Show's interests. The members of the committee were S. K. Spaulding, '80, chairman, E. P. P. Fisk, '87, W. M. Martin, '11, and H. K. Stump, '10. These men have met several times and have appointed the work among themselves, thus one man is to handle the Alumni, another the advertisement, a third the advertising, and a fourth the ticket sales.

As the first means of bringing the idea to the attention of the Institute Alumni in general, it was determined to advertise as extensively as possible at the time of the reunion. So it happened that immediately after the Christmas holidays two of the famous pictures of past Shows were taken from the Union and sent to New York. These have been put on prominent places, one at the Hotel Plaza, the headquarters, and the other in the Astor Hotel. Moreover, two hundred table cards of "Charles in Spain" have been forwarded and will be on exhibition at every vantage point. In addition, 1,600 handbills have been printed and will be scattered among the Alumni. The New York committee feels confident that considerable enthusiasm in New York production of "Money in Sight" will be manifested among the Alumni. In order to test the sentiment and to find out how far they are still enthusiastic from the reunion the management is going to write letters with return postals to each of the eleven hundred of the New York Alumni, inquiring to what extent each man personally will be asked to support the performance on April 19th. The replies are expected to be completed by the first of February, and if they indicate a sufficient support to make the trip a financial success, "Money in Sight" will be given in the Hotel Astor, and April 19th will be New York City's next date.
