CROSS-COUNTRY RUN
OVER NEW COURSE
Men Run Well Over Varied Ground—Good Squad Out For Melrose Trip.

Saturday afternoon about 25 men went out to Melrose for a Hare and Hounds run over a new course. The run was a real cross-country affair and blinds were numerous and successful. The Hares, Bearer '14 and Gray '16, were familiar with the country, and were able to swing off in all directions to the bewilderment of those who followed, guided by the scanty trail of paper. They started about five minutes ahead of the slower squad and ten minutes ahead of the faster one. The slow squad had not gone half a mile before it met with, trouble which resulted in such a loss of time that the second squad came up to within a hundred yards before matters were straightened out. Before running the two squads had lost identity and the men advanced as one team. All went well for about a half mile when a trailing and through the woods led them astray again. After a half mile of road, continually getting worse. The fast return was given by this no serious slips were made, although indecision caused a halt more than once. The road went across fields and fences through woods, marsh lands and slightly on the road. This perpetuous change of ground kept the men on the jump, although jumping with some success was not all the pleasure it might have been.

About a half mile from the finish a double shuffle was made, another one from there in line up and raced for the rest of the eight miles.

Forthe rest of the quarter the ball changed hands frequently, remaining in Freshman territory. Early in the second period Devlin carried it over for a touchdown, also kicking the goal. St. John's second score came on a brillent 45-yard forward pass to a big goal line to McDonough. The attempt at goal failed, and the half ended with a score of 13 to 9. In the second half, the Freshmen seemed to show more fighting spirit. Thompson made a 25-yard run, and three successive forward passes to Gould and Wood netted 50 yards. A fourth touchdown, however, was intercepted, and carried nearly to 17's goal. The third touchdown for St. John's came from Devlin.
