RELAY TEAM FINISHES SECOND TO CORNELL

Pennsylvania Team Defeated in 3000-Yard Race—Fast Time Made.

The first indoor intercollegiate meet ever held took place at Madison Square Garden in New York last Saturday afternoon. Most of the Eastern colleges were represented, and beside the various relay races, field events were held. The Technology, team, composed of C. T. Goodrich, L. J. Allan, P. L. Cook and R. G. Brown, ran the 800-yard race in which each man runs 500 yards of the total distance. The Technology and University of Pennsylvania teams appeared very closely matched, and from the start of the race the figures for second place was between those two. The Pennsylvania runners put up a great battle, but the work of the Tech men was of very high caliber, and they crossed the blue second to Cornell.

The time of the race was exceptionally fast, Cornell covering the distance in 21 minutes, 15.6 seconds.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Mr. George B. Gallup Speaks On Advertising.

Mr. George B. Gallup, New England representative of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, member of the Chamber of Commerce’s City Planning Commission, and a member of the Speaker’s Bureau. Mr. Gallup spoke to the Chemical Society last Friday evening on the subject of advertising.

Mr. Gallup said that after the war European nations will rehabilitate quickly and that their ravaged industries will push those of this country rather hard. New England industries, especially, due to their conservatism, will be in danger. This danger may be averted by wise advertising. Mr. Gallup spoke at length of advertising, using as an aid to industry and of its value in presenting new inventions to the public. He also spoke of the advertising profession and the training it gave one in the detection and prevention of small errors and blunders in the proper use of words.

The intention expressed by the Class Day Committee of minimizing events, heretofore so prominent, ed was deemed the best solution from the contest, but the plan adopted was manifested to withdraw harmoniously settled. Both men professed their willingness to withdraw from the contest, but the plan adopted was deemed the best solution from the point of view of class harmony.

We are glad to note that some of the best periodical covers in the Union have been replaced by new and serviceable ones done in Cardinal and Gray. Many complaints have been heard of the mutilating of these magazines. It is to be hoped, now, that they are in respectable covers, that the users will show sufficient school pride, if they have not the common decency, to refrain from spoiling the interior.

The equitable settlement of the First Marshalship difficulty justifies our most sanguine hopes, and shows what can be done when once the elements of personal feeling and ill understanding are eliminated from a disagreement on principle. The plan for solution, striking as it does at the very root of the trouble, namely, the inequality of the office in question, sets a precedent which might make trouble if the contrary course is followed. The equitable settlement of the current events, heretofore so prominent, will be harmoniously settled. Both men professed their willingness to withdraw from the contest, but the plan adopted was deemed the best solution from the point of view of class harmony.

a body and head hold, and the referee called a fall on Wood in 1 minute, 17 seconds. Banks has had considerable wrestling and it is chiefly through this that the Springfield team gets its coaching.

The evening's last bout was between Crowell of Tech and Cooper of Springfield. The bout was close but Cooper's greater knowledge of the game more than outbalanced "Brute's" ten pounds advantage in weight and he won a decision from Crowell in nine minutes. Cooper is the middleweight champion at this weight and recently defeated the 175 lb. wrestler
