CLOSING OF SEASON FOR MUSICAL CLUBS

One More Concert Before The Big Event In Copley Hall Next Friday.

Tomorrow evening the Combined Musical Clubs go to Quincy where they will play in Alpha Hall. This concert is under the auspices of the Simmons Endowment Fund Association. The members of the Clubs will meet at the information window in the South Station at 7.05. A return train leaves Quincy shortly after ten o'clock.

Last Friday the Clubs gave a concert at the Framingham High School. The audience was especially well pleased with the Banjo Club's numbers and the encores were numerous. Sherman's banjo number, McDaniels' feats at the piano, and the "Indian Pow-wow" were also received with much applause. After the musical numbers, the hall was cleared and dancing was held.

On Saturday evening the program was repeated at Newton Centre. It was held in the Parish house under the management of the Floral Chapter of Trinity Parish.

Plans for the Spring Concert are working out auspiciously. About 350

JUNIOR PROM

Fifty Assessments Not Yet Paid—A Few Sign-ups Left.

The Junior Prom Committee is not satisfied with the way men who have signed-up are paying the entire assessment. Although the matter should have been attended to by last Wednesday at the latest, there are still about fifty men who have not paid up in full. A few sign-ups are left.

Men who are looking for more dances are to hand in their names to the committee. When all have done so, a day will be set on which they may meet and exchange dances.

FRESHMAN DINNER

Harry McGowan and "Al" Phillips, cabaret singers and delineators of the latest ragtime novelties, are to entertain the freshmen at the class dinner at the Union next Tuesday evening. The speakers will include Dean Burton, Major Cole, Mr. Blachstein, Mr. Kanaly, and C. W. Loomis, '16. Major Cole is to speak on the subject, "Military Tactics," after which Mr. Blachstein will speak on "Other Tactics."

Tickets for the dinner may be had at the Cage or at the Union dining room.

REHEARSAL OF SHOW

Aeroplane Scene, Lighting Effects And Dancing.

The final dress rehearsal of "Getting A-Cross" was held at the Opera House yesterday afternoon, with full orchestra, and complete stage settings for both scenes. The whole production appeared to much better advantage with these accessories, and the costumes brought out the brilliance of the piece to a remarkable extent. Mr. Hume and Miss Tanner carefully supervised the work, but the conditions were as nearly as possible, those of an actual performance. The company worked steadily Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning in preparation for yesterday's rehearsal, and all knew their lines well. Considerable work was done in developing the lighting effects, the electricians being carefully coached, and the best combinations of spotlights, etc., tried out.

The dancing numbers are fully as numerous as last year, and give prom-

At this meeting Technique will announce the rules and regulations for the Rush. The Prom committee, The Tech, the Track management, and the Institute Committee also have important announcements to make. The lantern will be used to throw the words of Technology songs upon the screen. The meeting will start promptly at 4.15 and will close as soon as possible.

MONDAY, APRIL 12, 1915.

The record-breaking attendance at the freshman banquet last fall led many to believe that the incoming class possessed something like the true class spirit. Since that time, however, the class of 1918 has fallen short of what the rest of the undergraduates had expected of it.

Tomorrow night the freshmen have an excellent opportunity to re-establish the reputation which they enjoyed for a short time. The fact that the dinner comes rather inopportunistically three days before Junior Week should only serve as an incentive for every man to prove that his loyalty to his class is of paramount importance.

It is well that the spirit and not the letter of the Point System was carried out in the decision of the Institute Committee to allow the Stage Manager and Stage Director of the Show to take leading parts without carrying points. The working principle that the Point System was made for the student and not the student for the Point System should in all cases determine the wisest course of action.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

At the meeting of the Chemical Society Tuesday, April 13th, Mr. Homer Albers and Professor Talbot are to speak. The nominations for officers of the Society are now out. They are due April 14th, at 5 p. m.

TRIP TO WATERTOWN

Mechanical Engineering Society Goes To Arsenal This Afternoon.

The trip to the Watertown Arsenal conducted by the M. E. Society especially for the members belonging to the Junior Class will be made this afternoon, the start being from Rogers' steps at 1.45. While the number to sign up is not limited in this particular instance, foreigners are excluded since permission for them to visit the arsenal could only be made by correspondence with the authorities at Washington.

The gigantic Emery material testing machine with its capacity of 800,000 lbs. will be viewed in operation. The party will go through the foundry and forging plants, inspecting the heat treating furnaces, machine shops, etc. The metallurgical laboratory will show the part of the works in which the different processes of obtaining the tensile strength of metals may be studied.

An invitation to accompany the Society has been extended to the Officers Club and it is expected that a majority of the members will attend. Any men connected with the Cadet Corps who desire to go must sign up with Purinton.

TENNIS ENTRIES

The limit of the time for entering the tennis tournament has been extended till the Friday after Junior Week. Entries must be in by that time as the drawings are to be posted on Saturday, April 25th.

RIFLE CLUB SHOOT

Highest Scores Of Season—No Trip Saturday.

Last Saturday, for the first time in three weeks, fair weather enabled the Rifle Club to hold its weekly shoot at the Walnut Hill ranges. Competition for the Club medals started strong, the best scores of the season being made. High scores were made on all three ranges.

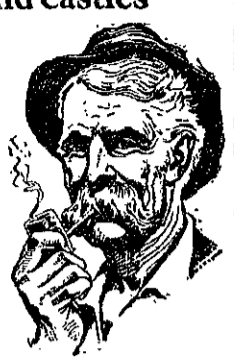

At the two hundred yards Brandt was high man with a score of 47, closely followed by Sturtevant, Upton and Pickering with 46. Butterworth, a new member of the club, scored first place on the three hundred range with 48 to his credit, his nearest competitor being Sturtevant with 44. At the five hundred range, Upton with a total of 47 made first place, with Butterworth and Brandt close on his heels with 46.

Owing to the fact that Tech Show will be presented in Boston next Saturday afternoon, the usual trip of the club will be postponed till the following Tuesday afternoon. A list of those eligible for the trip will be posted on the Union bulletin board tomorrow.

educational centres, and coming in contact with all types and classes of people. While at Pekin, he was invited to confer with President Yuan Suih-kai of the Chinese Republic. In regard to the relation of China to America, the latter said, "America's friendship can best be shown in practical ways. She has withdrawn from almost every avenue of financial help to China. She can best aid us by the development of concessions in mines, railroads, and commerce. Every dollar of American capital invested in China at this time is a help to both countries, for America's interests are commercial, financial, and friendly. She seeks no extension of territory and has no selfish motives for exploiting her own political designs. China's great need is for capital and America can best show her friendship by investing in sane and safe commercial enterprises in China."

Mr. Eddy made close observations on the engineering needs of China, besides the moral and religious needs. In his addresses to other American universities he has brought out this fact. When seen Saturday he said, "After four thousand years of continuous history, China is still here and here to stay. The Republic persists and grows. It now has a written Constitution which marks a long step in advance for China. Despite the absence of any foreign loan and the constant prophecy of China's bankruptcy, the Central Government is receiving money from the provinces and slowly getting on its feet."

"The moral reform movement is growing. Opium has been almost completely abolished. The sentiment against graft is increasing and social reform is gaining ground both in the press and among the people. Although China is crippled financially by the revolution and by the European war, she has a definite policy for advance in the future."

tickets have already been sold and more are going daily. One of the features for this year will be the rigid timing of dances. It has been customary to lengthen the earlier dances to such extent that the later ones had to be cut short. In view of the inconvenience arising from this, the management has arranged a time limit for each dance. The management has requested that flowers for the event be omitted.

M. I. T. VS. HARVARD

Annual Spring Meet To Be Held April Twenty-first.

The Harvard-M. I. T. spring track meet will be held at the Stadium on Wednesday afternoon, April 21, at 4.30. The following events will be included: 100 yd. dash, 440 yd. run, 3-4 mile run, 11-2 mile run, 80 yd. high hurdles, shot put, high jump, pole vault, broad jump, hammer throw. No points will be scored, but prizes will be given for the first three places in each event.

Freshmen Win Four First Places—Both Dashes Closely Contested.

The Sophomores met the freshmen in a dual track meet last Saturday and won out by the score of 74 to 52. The two-mile race was the feature of the meet being in doubt until the tape was reached, McVicker, '18, pressing Litchfield, '17, until the latter crossed the finish line a short distance in the lead. The 100-yard dash was also a hard fought race in which Doon, '17, won out by a scant margin over Kwan, '18, and Sullivan, '17, who finished in the order named. The broad jump proved the best of the field events, for Avery, '18, leaped a distance of 21 feet, 3 1-4 inches, and gives promise of doing much better in future meets.

The summary:

One hundred-yard dash—Won by Doon, '17; second, Kwan, '18; third, Sullivan, '17. Time—10 3-5s.

Two hundred and twenty-yard dash—Won by Sullivan, '17; second, Doon, '17; third, Coward, '18. Time—23 3-5s.

Four hundred and forty-yard dash—Won by Brock, '17; second, Coward, '18; third, Read, '18. Time—54 2-5s.

ise of surpassing any of former years in excellence. The work of Gardner, the premiere danseuse, is especially noteworthy. His dance at the end of the first act is undoubtedly superior to any thing of the kind ever seen in college theatricals. The Swiss dance in the second act by the ballet, and L. A. Swan, as the Alpine guide is perhaps the best number of its kind in the show. The ballet, throughout, surpassed expectations in beauty and gracefulness.

The costumes of the leading lady, Honoree, played by J. F. Staub, are the very latest cry in fashion, and the charms of the general's daughter are strikingly brought out by the proper gowns. Staub's dance with Williamson in the first act, to "I'd Love to Love Somebody," bids fair to rival the similar duet step in Sari.

I. B. McDaniel, as General LeBoob, made a startling and pompous figure in his scarlet uniform and top boots, and the brilliant uniforms of the soldiers lent gayety to the carnival scene. The latter is greatly enhanced by the superb lighting effects of the garden at Nice, when the day ends, and the colored lanterns flash up, on the beginning of the festivities.

Another feature is the canoeing scene by moonlight, for the song "Canoeing at Riverside." Later comes the introduction of the aeroplane scene, when the heroine is about to be taken across the Alps in a monoplane. The stage goes black, and a fullsize Bleriot machine, with propeller turning appears as the lights come on, with Honoree seated in it. The denouement of the plot follows, when Reggie, played by R. P. Kennard, appears at the crucial moment, exposing the German spy who is masquerading as Captain Beaucaire, and Bob Scott wins the Cross of the Legion of Honor by substituting plans of the new Technology, for those of the fortifications, and the curtain falls to the tune of the Technology Rag, and "To Cham-onix," which are both sure to prove catchy and popular.

This is the last dress rehearsal before the performance at Northampton Thursday evening, and the remaining time will be spent in polishing up separate parts of the action.

The 1917 baseball team lost the opening game of the season Saturday to Melrose High, by a score of 8 to 6. The team work of the Sophomores was rather ragged, owing to lack of practice. Henderson pitched the first five innings, being relieved by Cady.

Before the game, J. C. Poteat was elected captain. Poteat plays first base, and furnished the batting feature of Saturday's contest with his long drive to left field.
