"MEN JUST OUT OF COLLEGE LACK POWER OF DECISION," SAYS EMPLOYMENT EXPERT

N. H. Daniels '96 Tells E. E. Society That Personality, Congeniality, and Willingness to Work Are Roads to Success

Mr. N. H. Daniels '96, well known to Engineering Societies and Engineering students, declared to the members of the E. E. Society on its first meeting of the year, "Men just out of college lack power of decision." He said that society is the great field of employment, and that the man who is going to make his way is going to have to work in it. He also stated that to get work, one must have the right personality, and the willingness to work.

Mr. Daniels further stated that the man who is just out of college is not in a position to make decisions, because he has not had the experience to do so. He also said that the man who is just out of college must have the willingness to work, because he cannot afford to have the time to think about what he is going to do. He also stated that the man who is just out of college must have the right personality, because he must be able to get along with other people.

Mr. Daniels ended his address by saying that the man who is just out of college must be able to do the work that he is going to do, and that he must have the right personality to do it.
