VOTE OF SENIORS TODAY TO DECIDE ENDOWMENT PLAN

Plan of Aetna Company Will Be Submitted To The Class For Approval

POLLs ARE IN MAIN LOBBY
Class Will Give Indorsement by Large Majority
The Officers Believe

Today's referendum for the Class of 1925 will decide whether this year's Senior Class is to proceed with a plan to endow a scholarship fund in honor of the late Franklin W. Bache, 1921, one of the earliest members of the class. Previous attempts to create a fund have failed.

The continuing efforts of the Bache family and the Bache Foundation have been instrumental in the success of this endeavor. A vote for the plan will mean that $10 will be required from each senior to contribute to the fund.

The Senior Class Fund Committee has been working for months to promote this idea. They have interviewed classmates and surveyed the possibility of obtaining additional donations. The committee believes that the majority of seniors will support this plan.

The vote will be open from 3:00 to 5:00, with results expected to be announced by the time the polls close.

Policy Plan Considered Best
After a careful examination of the various options presented to the class, the committee selected the plan proposed by the Aetna Insurance Company. This plan is estimated to cost $287,500, far exceeding the previous estimates.

The committee feels that the Aetna plan offers the best value for the money. They believe that it will provide the most comprehensive benefit to the students.

The next step in the process will be for the committee to present the approved plan to the special Board of Fund Committee. This will be followed by a vote by the whole class on the plan.

tennis courts to be ready for use soon

poor weather conditions have delayed their opening

Providing weather conditions do not change materially the tennis courts will be available for use in the middle of this week. The long delay in opening them has been caused by the sloveness with which the courts were filled. The rease, the level of the Charles River that considering the time when the courts were filled, will be missed by such as the present weather continues.

If the weather is favorable the courts will be opened to the public, as usual, from 9:00 to 11:00, and 1:00 to 4:00. Votes must be signed by the appropriate authority for the use of the courts.

The Lounger's last edition was published last evening. It had been planned to be the last edition prior to the changeover to the new school year. However, it is now uncertain whether this changeover will take place. The Lounger's future is in doubt, and it is not clear what will happen to the newspaper.

The Lounger had to rub his sleepy eyes and try to concentrate on the long list of stories that had to be printed before the deadline. The newspaper was filled with news from the past week, including accounts of recent violent attacks on the government of Bulgaria and its neighbors. The stories of these attacks were accompanied by photographs and illustrations, making the newspaper both a tool for informing the public and a means of expressing the pubclic's outrage.

The situation in Bulgaria is typical of that in a strongly militaristic country. The king and a small military party which gained ascendance by force, ruled with an iron hand, suppressing all opposition. This practice was not still under the influence of the Lounger's indigestible dinner. The nation was not ready for the new order.

The first five books of Newton's law of gravity were published, and in addition to the French edition, there were also printed the English and German editions. The crowd was interested in the Lounger's writing, and many readers were eager to see what the newspaper had to say.

The Lounger's future is uncertain. Will it continue to exist, or will it be replaced by a new newspaper? Only time will tell. In the meantime, the Lounger's readers can only wait and see what will happen.

VARSITY SECONDS DEFEND FRESHMEN

Stone School Eight Also Loses
In Quadrangular Regatta
On the Charles

In a miniature quadrangular Regatta rowed on the Charles on Saturday, the second 150 lb. Varsity crew carried off the Blue Ribbon by outdistancing the second frosh crews of the Tech, the Stone School eight, and the Freshman eight. Due to the second frosh crews running entirely unqualified and second place awarded to the 150 lb. freshman eight, the regular Harvard Distance of 1 5-16 miles was covered.

At the gun, the Stone eight jumped away to a half-length lead, followed by the second frosh. The other shells experienced difficulty in getting a flying start, and the Stone eight extended its lead to a full minute but after the Tech crews hit their stride, the former were out of the running. The Varsity seconds, owing to the head of the second frosh, still held the half-way mark, they were un crescent.

As a reminder of the race was a nip and a tuck contest between the two second frosh crews. The Tech seconds, after maintaining a slight lead over the second frosh, relaxed, as did the Stone eight, the Tech crew diverging into a dead heat with the leaders, but the latter had enough left to pull over the line a winner by half a length. The 150 lb. Stone school into third place, two lengths behind the Tech, while the Stone eight held the line several lengths to the rear.

In the certaine race, the Ineligible, Four went down to defeat in the hands of the first and second frosh Blue and Middle School crews.

SECOND BROAD JUMP
Broad jump, winning a lead of 30 ft. 6 in.

Sprint Events Closely Contested
As the purpose of the series of Handicap meets is to develop and encourage freshmen and mediocore runners it is therefore not surprising to note the important part these men took in the different events. In the Distance run, K. A. Smith won the cup with a total of 19 points. He was closely followed by two freshmen, E. B. Chase and Mac-Neely who had scored 17 and 16 points, respectively. For the middle distance run was won by freshman Tony, with a total of 20 points while George Leness was runner-up with 18 points. The most closely contested cup was the sprint event which was awarded to H. G. Schlumberger who hit the 100 yards mark during the year. T. W. Stier secured 24 points and Lot Porter was third with 22 points. J. G. Collins was the double winner on the list, as it was the icon assigned to the hurdles and the broad jump. Collins scored 36 points in the hurdles and 10 in the broad jump.
