SIGNUP Plan Used in Disposing of Operations This Year

This year, the Senior Class will sell hundred tickets that will entitle their holders to all of the events of Senior Week. This plan is selling Mar- ket ticket signs in the Main Lobby and ticket Monad in the Caesar Hotel. These will be redeemed during the first week in June by presenting the signs and the money will be spent for the entertainment and prizes. The Class of 1924 have the privilege of buying back the signs for the cost of their Senior Week tickets.

Senior Week will begin with the Class Meeting Tuesday evening in the Aspinwall Hall. Arrangements have been made with the Columbia Band to perform at the Little Pink Pigeon Saturday both the Seniors and Undergraduates will be present in the tradition.

MICROWAVE OVEN

In addition has again been re- leased as the place (or the picnic). The Cincinnati Courier has sent a Technician on special, street cars for the event. On Monday afternoon the whole Class will be present in the Aspinwall Hall, with its accompanying 12:14 Train. Complete arrangements in the morning have been made for the show, and the event is expected to last the entire week.

Protest Entering Last Month Is Approved by the Mayor of Cambridge

Bursar H. S. Ford

BURSAR PREVENTS DRIVING IN ZONE

Bursar H. S. Ford won a decided vic- tory in his fight to make motorists drive in the right of the safety zone on the Massachusetts Avenue side of the Tech- nology buildings when the Council of the City of Cambridge voted to amend the traffic ordinance on May 3. Mayor of Cambridge approved the ordinance on Friday.

The amended ordinance now reads: "On a highway divided longitudinally by a carriageway, reserved space for arterial traffic, student, walk, monitor, or zone, vehicles shall keep to the right of such division."

Bursar Ford proceeded to the city last month to the effect that motorists, by driving within the safety zone, were endangering the lives of people generally. As a result, there was no fault whatever to find with the average driver of motor vehicles that it is the duty to drive in the right of the safety zone.

Harvard Expected to Win
This Afternoon's Encounter

When the Varsity tennis team meets Harvard this afternoon on the Divinity courts, they will come up against not only the best team in New England, but probably one of the best college teams in the country. Playing against such players as those who compose an array of stars that compares favorably with the best in the country.

This year, Harvard has yet to lose a match in New England, and though a team so strong as their opponents, is a bit closer than the best are counting them to their closer than the doxsters are counting them.

Dean is at the "Y" pool occasionally during the week. According to the Crimson, Ingraham, who has been noted for producing fine doubles and with one of the fastest forehands to his credit, is legitimate. He seems to have lost his nerve on the court at Brown, where he had some trouble with Herbert. He did not lose a match, defeating some formidable opponents to their surprise. The Harvard Yard net team will walk off the courts with their hands raised.

Yard net, New England, but probably one of the best college teams in the country. Led by Captain Ingraham, ranking fourth player team in New England, but probably one of the best college teams in the country. There is a chance for them to come through with a win.

Ingraham of the Crimson come up through as most of Harvard's strength may be expected. At the present time, Russell is playing some of his best, and Broadhurst is coming on strong. He seems to be at the top of his game.

The stronger Harvard players. There is a chance for them to come through with a win. The first match will be at Brown, when they both won to show their worth. The first match that bothers many players. Broadhurst and anl excellent forehand master. The second time, Russell is playing some of his best, and Broadhurst is coming on strong. He seems to be at the top of his game.

COLUMBIA CREWS PREPARING FOR RACE

(Special Dispatch from the Columbus Dispatch)

No changes in the line-ups in the local boats have been announced. Two practice sessions which are held aboard the Hatteras this week are excellent. For example, the Harvard men are growing to the idea that they can win, despite the fact that their chances are slim, as the Harvard men are growing to the idea that they can win, despite the fact that their chances are slim.

Although crew has only been in existence for a short time, the Harvard men are growing to the idea that they can win, despite the fact that their chances are slim. It is still uncertain how they will be able to make out against the men in the upper classes.

Although the Frosh Eight was defeated by the Princeton crew last year, it was not as strong as usual in that game, and the frosh have won, having already defeated many of the best to be turned out by that Institution. He explains it in the fact that it was not possible to place full marks in every boat on the list. The frosh will receive gold watch charms. The third game in a row will be with B.C. In spite of the fact that we didn't come on the long end of the score yesterday, we believe the frosh will come through in fine fashion, particularly with Eddie Collier, an upper classman, and George Lenes.
