Boston College Hockey Team Defeats Institute Easily In Friday's Game

Playing against one of the hardest and fastest teams that have ever worn the Maroon and Gold of Boston College, Technology put a greatly improved line on the ice. The game was very competitive and the Harvard men were regularly outplayed and outmaneuvered by the Eagles. The game opened up with Tubber soccer through four minutes before the first goal was scored. Deke Crandall, Bill Berkeley, and John Johnson defeated Lockhart by a score of 5 minutes, 48 seconds.
