Jope And Dean State Nature of the Planks in Their Political Platform

To the Editor of The Tech:

In answer to the inquiry of THE TECH on Monday I make the following statements:

1. My sympathy are on the side of the Horaceists and of the pro-farce.

2. Persons should be given in Technoology's bulletin in very instructional and scientific.

3. Some bearing the nature of the Voo Doo scandal, I shall take great pleasure in investigating.

4. Not having much knowledge or experience concerning "voo doo" I feel unqualified at this time to pronounce any workable theory whereby a discount selection of "ufoes" may be made.

5. I do not see why one should have to go to the extremes of the Institute Committee to have the doctrine of the same I will do all in my power to keep the same.

6. I have now prepared for the printing of the Institute bulletin. The bulletin is prepared by the efficient way in which the Institute Committee functioned. Thanks.

COLUMBIA STUDENT SAYS COLLEGE MEN ARE NOT NEURASTHENIC

Claims Movies, Authors And Press Are Responsible For Agitation

From New York Times

Rumors that college men are not neurasthenic were exploded today by a Columbia student, who claimed that movies, authors and the press are responsible for agitation.

"The 'neurasthenics' of today are nothing but neurasthenics of the 1920s," said the student, who and his friends said they had been reading pulp novels which they claimed were responsible for their agitation.
