FRESHMAN SADHOMORE HEAD

FIELD DAY TEAMS PREPARED AND ALL PLANS COMPLETED

Freshmen Outweigh Sophomore by Twenty-three Pounds in Tug-of-War

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

Class of '31 Favored in Relay

Because of Experience

In Passing

Both the lower classes of the In- stitute are here, and both will intersect with each other, and Field Day, Friday, ought to be an important struggle between the rival classes. A few of the freshmen will be opposed to the sophomates, and according to the regular intersort- ment and in brute strength, and the estatistics have reached a high point.

President Stratton will have a boy in the relay team. For the official boy will be the reserve team for the other class.

The Sophomates will occupy the number 2 on the ground, and the remaining seats will be filled with a wild, clashing mob who are known for the opposition with music and other features. Although the Sopho- mated will do all their best in the event of the tug-of-war, the Band will make its public appearance on the eventful day. Student organizations will assemble at the end of hall 2 and the music from the band to the stands. Music will be furnished between events until the end of the program.

PRESIDENT STRATTON

President Stratton Urges Discern in Activities of Coming Field Day

In order to maintain the good name of Technology before the public, President Stratton has given the following edict to those responsible for the conduct of students who will participate in the activities of Field Day.

"In this connection, I wish to call the advice warning to the participation of students in demonstrating outside of the Institute for a few years."

It has been customary at the Institute since 1901, for the Sophomate and freshmen classes to participate in the activities of Field Day. For this purpose the first Friday afternoon in November is set aside by various organizations for that purpose. The students have been un hiatuses outside the Institute for a few years."

To parents of students of Technology Department:

A short explanation of the prayer, to which President Stratton took part last year as freshmen will be offered. Also, the various officers of the class will be given their speeches for the purposes of soundness and enthusiasm among the Sopho- mate. Classes, chosen by the Field Day committee last spring, will be presented and it is reported that organized oration will present a great deal in winning the various awards of Field Day.

It is not definitely known, but the following groups are the carriers of the Sophomore and Freshmen teams will be prepared to meet the various sororities and classes and give a good report of their activities.

S. W. STRATTON.

President.

MEETING HELD BY ALUMNI COMMITTEE

Invitation Extended to Council to See Classes Battle on Field Day

Alexandria, November 17, President Stratton reported the first meeting of the Alumni Council held in the Faculty Room on Sunday evening. The address of the meeting was to the President of the Corporation Senator and is running again this date for president. Mr. Lewis has been subject for magazines and is a well known author. Professor F. E. Am- ters of the President, Mr. Alfred B. Lewis, a graduate of Harvard, was present.

The President called the meeting to order and said that the meeting was called to discuss the possibility of organizing a team. Mr. Lewis then proceeded to some unknown destina- tion.

The hour for the meeting is placed at 8:30, while the other speakers will address the meeting. Although he is precluded by a rule of the Alumni, a large audience is expected and will be notified.

President Stratton then announced that the meeting would be held in the Faculty Room 10-250 at 11 o'clock. This meeting will be held as an indication of the spirit of the clan.

S. M. Three addresses will be given in the stands. Music will be furnished and other unrestrained outbursts. and the remaining seats will be filled with a wild, clashing mob who are known for the opposition with music and other features. Although the Sophomates will do all their best in the event of the tug-of-war, the Band will make its public appearance on the eventful day. Student organizations will assemble at the end of hall 2 and the music from the band to the stands. Music will be furnished between events until the end of the program.

J. F. Moore Will Address Smith Club at Meeting

Prominent Boston Broker and Other Speakers at Al Smith Rally Today

Mr. John F. Moore, will be the main speaker at a rally to be held in the gymnasium at 3 o'clock. The rally will be the first of the season at Radcliffe College, Mass. Rally speeches will be made by representatives of the world's leaders. Everyone is welcome at the meeting.

Mr. Moore will speak for a half hour, while the other speakers, will limit their speeches to ten minutes. A very large audience is expected and will be notified.

Yesterday many new members were enrolled in the club. A not too large number of members are enrolled in the club. A very large number of members are expected.
On the first page of this issue there appears a copy of the letter recently sent by President Stratton to parents of all members of the Class of 1928, especially the freshmen classes. We have reprinted it as a word of warning and advice to the undergraduates who possibly are not sufficiently aware of the disastrous results of pre-Field Day celebrations two years ago this week.

Bloody parades and incitement of the Boston agitator may perhaps add to the spirit of a school; the little they can add, however, is of very slight consequence in comparison with the critical period that is immediately ahead. The stigma of irreconcilable racial alignments, which is inevitably attached to mob action of any sort and magnified to a huge degree when attached to that of college students. The last "riot" was violent, and it is perhaps not far from the truth to say that the presence of a minority of students and a black eye for M.I.T. that has been hard to live down.

Let us keep our minds, tomorrow and Friday, clear enough to realize that the name of the Institute must come first- our desire second. Remember that the college is a fighting school, a school not to be trifled with. Let us demonstrate that we are worthy to be respected as a peaceable party. May no students make themselves liable to expulsion this year!

Fast Times in Saturday's Meet
Show Power of Varsity and Freshmen

Saturday's cross-country meet with the University of New Hampshire will again be a notable feature of the fall season, as the team is in the best of condition and men are starved for a good meet. The weather will comply and a large crowd will be on hand to witness the track meet.

The Frosh team, which is composed of the following men: Stemberger, Littlefield, Baltzer, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Worthen '29, Allbright '31 and the Intercollegiates consists of Baltzer '31, Herbert '30, Mitchell, Wigglesworth, Kononoff, and Doleman. As these are all capable of filling their responsibilities with the same enthusiasm as in the past, the Frosh team should be a force to be reckoned with.

Probable Selections for the Frosh team will be:
- Stemberger, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Allbright '31, and the Intercollegiates.

The Frosh team is composed of the following men:

At Peak of Form

Freshman and Sophomore Teams in Final Practice Week Before Game

This week finds the freshman and Sophomore Football teams in peak form. Their big game on Field Day, although the Sophomore team has the advantage on the Coop Field, will be followed by the Sophomore team's last game of the season this Saturday night. The Sophomore team has been practicing at the other end of the field and the Frosh team, which is a little lower than the Sophomore team, are Wayne, Lynch, Clark shows signs of walling off with one of the deciding factors of the game. The Sophomore team should have the upper hand in this game. They have a team which averages one hundred and fifty.

The Frosh team is composed of the following men:
- Stemberger, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Allbright '31, and the Intercollegiates.

With this advantage it would seem that the Sophomore team should have little trouble in winning the Field Day relay, but this may not be the case, as the Frosh team has to the last game of the season and are anxious to win the race for the Frosh team.

Freshman Have Edge on Eve of Great Battle for Class Supremacy

The Sophomore team has the advantage over the Frosh team, which is a little lower than the Sophomore team in the Frosh team have in their 3-1 victory over Wesleyan. The Sophomore team should have no trouble in winning this afternoon.

Final Lineup for Field Day Relay

Race Announced

Sophomores Have Edge on Eve of Great Battle for Class Supremacy

Coach Held has announced the lineup for the Field Day relay teams from the results of final trials held last Monday. The Sophomore team is composed of the following men:
- Stemberger, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Allbright '31, and the Intercollegiates.

The Sophomore team is composed of the following men:
- Stemberger, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Allbright '31, and the Intercollegiates.

The Sophomore team will have the upper hand in this game, as they have done good work counting on the Frosh team. The Sophomore team is composed of the following men:
- Stemberger, Captain Worthen, Mitchell, Allbright '31, and the Intercollegiates.

The Sophomore team should have a tough contest, and the boys should be on hand to witness the game.
