But the public is not too much in the habit of seeing the kind of plane that is built today.

The general opinion was for the team. Among the spectators on the field were a general dissatisfaction with the design of the plane. The team was not approved because a subject matter was in the air, and they seemed to be concerned with the design of the plane. The fact was brought up that this could be a good year for it. The next day I was told by the members of the wing command that it would not be in the air, and that they were disappointed in the design of the plane. Blades and Splashes

The most crowded of the five dining halls is Walker, where the candidates for the crews have been holding their final conferences just before their workouts on the Charles. If the crew man's life can be seen by reviewing the nightly routine they pass through in preparation for the few races they actually row.

Stanley Wells, for two years on the Jay Vee crew, is again out for crew, and will make good material for the varsity boat. Don Fettger, ineligible last year, is again out for a position on the varsity boat, having become eligible this year.

Out for the present, freshman substi tute for the varsity, is using the rowing machines. The ups and downs of a crew man's life can be seen by reviewing the nightly routine they pass through in preparation for the few races they actually row.

SIMPLEX WIRES & CABLES

"Listen to this!" said Dan over the lunch box.

"When my street car got close to the tunnel, I spotted two kids on the trestle of the steam railroad watching the traffic below. All of a sudden along comes the steam train zooming' around the curve at a fast clip, and the young 'uns couldn't see it. Yell! Yes, plenty and ringin' the gong like the devil, but nary a bit of good did it do up until—well they started to run. One got cut, but Gau ripped out somethin' on the second. The locomotive hit him. . . . knocked him between the rails. The whole Works roll over him. Just as the third coach was going over, Guy sort of raised up and whack! some- what hit his head. We oil that's it, I run and grab him. Took his sweater off and puts it over and grabs him.
