TEAM AGAINST M.I.T.
Two Men Work Entire Night

Hockey Team Will End Season With Brown U.

Expect Brown Men to Present Strong Team Against M.I.T.

Three veterans May their last game with the Technology team be their last. They are James R. Bartlett, who plays at the net, and Ericson and Lawsine, who have played with the Technology team for several years. They will wind up their careers on the ice today when they assist the hockey squad through several seasons. The outcome of the game today is the Beaver team for the past three years.

Captain Horvath has been the best defense man the Beaver team has had for several years. This season, which has been more successful than any other in the past, he has made himself and his team work against the attacks of the opponents.

One student who plays against them is Captain George S. Eyester, the student manager of the hockey team at Brown University, who has been an active member of the team for several years. He has turned left wing on the first team himself and has had much work to perform in the last few seasons.

The game is at 3:30 on the ice and will begin punctually.

Ann Alum in Meet Brown

WALCOTT LEADS IN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

After the first week of bowling in the dormitory league tournament, last season's winners, Walcott, took up as high this year. They won their match and scored the highest total of all the teams in the League. Several men showed promise by bowling exceptionally high scores; the highest being Nel- lis, who made 149 in the second match, his high for the year. Oldham, Rimbach, and Emond, the other four who played, were in good form, preparing to lead the opponents at every hand.

The game was a stiff ordeal for the Pratt squad, which was unable to get within shooting distance of the basket.

The crowd got a great deal of pleas-ure out of this.

Referee "Smoky" Kelleher had his share of the fun, but he refrained from taking a foul had been called on the latter.

The team as a whole did not seem to agree with all his decisions, an argument almost ensuing on the bench. The team for booing him from the bench. The team as a whole did not seem to agree with all his decisions, an argument almost ensuing on the bench. The team for booing him from

Two Per Cent of Students Drinkers

Billy Sunday Gives His Views

Drinking and Religion

In Interview

(Courtesy Post News)

Billy Sunday was a guest at a recent meeting of the Christian Union at which a discussion was held on the subject of alcoholism. He was asked what he thought would be the best step to take against the evil.

"There is no reason why a college should not forbid the sale of liquor on its premises," he said. "But if prohibition fails, the college authorities should set a good example by not indulging in the habit themselves."

Billy Sunday also spoke about the effect of alcohol on college life.

"I have seen many colleges where the students are held in very low esteem because of the bad habits they acquire at college. I believe that if we could only get rid of these habits, the college would be a better place for all concerned."
