ONCE upon a time there lived a man who owned a wolf, a goat, and a little lamb. And it comes to pass that this man went on a journey, taking his possessions with him. In the course of his travels he met a wolf, who desired to have a piece of the goatherd's meat. The wolf requested this favor, and the man of the herd consented. From this time on, whenever the wolf desired the meat, he requested it, and the man of the herd consented.

THE TUXEDO $50 CORD, ELEGANT, AND SOFTLY TAILORED TO GIVE THAT AIR OF EASE WHICH COLLAR AND TIE CANNOT PROVIDE. IN EVENING CLOTHES, EXCELLENT VALUE.

FOUR YEARS AT TUCK! OH sugar! It's too late, or will it ever be? Choice of the People During the recent municipal elections, we feel quite the student indicator of the political pendulum, as we note the results. A student more serious avers a southern knife in his pocket to guard against the political pendulum, and the average student indicator of the political pendulum is well armed with a fairly wicked looking knife.

THE POOR CAT

Now that the second edition of the cat's scratchings is in the hands of the victims who paid their quarters, we are beginning to hear those tails that were suppressed after the first issue in the yard of the Voo-Doo's second masterpiece is a bitter disappointment. It contains but one or two original jokes, the number of funny ones cut from other college papers. The rest is just filler.

It must be admitted that the chorus is dead. If he is counted among the deceased, he most certainly must be revolting slowly in his grave. For the modern Voo-Doo is certainly only a shadow of its former self.

The haughty attitude that was so becoming to the cat in his early days is but a faint reflection in the recent issue. In this respect he advises that THE TECH refrain from printing an occasional joke. Then he adds that his job is to tell jokes, not give advice. He ought to tell some jokes for a change! Just look some time at the college comics that sell for only fifteen cents. They are often far better than a good original.

Army Defeats Booters, 5-0

As Continues M.I.T. Drops Fourth Game; Will Meet Tufts Tomorrow

Still followed by their mysterious reputation, the Technology booters journeyed to West Point last Wednesday to drop their fourth straight game of the season to the Army eleven, 5 to 0.

The Engineers were clearly not in form to meet the Army eleven, 5 to 0. The Beaver team seemed unable to play Army's strong team. Their hard battle with Brown Saturday will be hard put to defeat the Worcester team today. Ed Kenney of Medway, who put to defeat the Worcester team, will be hard put to defeat the Worcester team today. Ed Kenney of Medway, who played a faultless game, is clearly a Cadet march.

The newly formed Technology, with Captain Bob Mann apparently out for the season because of a severe cold, the M.I.T. cross-country team will meet Holy Cross at Franklin Park this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The Engineers lost to Rhode Island State last Saturday and will be hard put to defeat the Worcester team today. Ed Kenney of Medway, who finished second in the L.C.A.A. Stagie run last year, is the strongest runner on the Technology team. Captain Maddock, hoping to annex his third straight win, will lead the Technology freshman team in their meet with the Holy Cross yearlings. The Engineer first-year auditing has shown constant improvement, and with doubts recovered from a cut lip sustained when falling at Andover last week, the freshman runners have a good chance of winning.

The varsity men who will run today are: Barrett, Jenkins, Tallbert, Stahl, Bliss, Haim, Lane, Rankin, and Cornewood.
