"Briggs' absence loses Sophomore representation.

Second Year Men Forfeit Right to Voice in Committee Meeting

"The Sophomore Class has more than the whole Institute Combined to make a sophomore, and with Secre-tary Joseph J. Seigfried, who explained the committee's act of depriving the Sophomore Class of its voting power.

The action was taken because of the continued absence of Philip G. Briggs, Sophomore President.

According to Article VII of the By-laws of the Constitution of the Undergraduate Association, "If the full representation of any organization is not present at two consecutive Institute Committee meetings, the organization shall forfeit its right to representation on the committee, which representation shall not be granted again until the organization has been in receipt of a formal petition from the Institute Committee making assurance that such absence shall not recur again"

Briggs was elected to the presi-dency of the Sophomore Class in April, this year because of his position to that of the Sophomore Class of '91, in which representation shall not be granted again until the organization has been in receipt of a formal petition from the Institute Committee making assurance that such absence shall not recur again.

which we live at the present time is overthrown. Optimistic pacificists still believe that the war may be averted through education and armament conferences. Others claim that the four inspired by heroism and belief in their own way.

The major portion of the student body at the Institute is opposed to war, however much its various members may disagree as to the method of prevention. It is up to these students to support the anti-war conference and see that their opinion is there represented.

If the conference brings to them a clearer conception of the nature of war it will have accomplished a worthy end, and for an understanding of war is essential to its prevention.

If the conference points out the methods by which the international hideousness of the past can be averted, it will have accomplished a memorable end.

BLUE BUNNY

The Blue Bunny, the Sophomore Hop, and the Beaver Key Basket-ball teams have recorded definite success in the after-classroom activities. Further victories against the Sophomore class will result in the Sophomore's representation in the joint Sophomore-Junior Committee.

THIS paper advocates the formation of a society for the encouragement of pretty little Bantams of both sexes. The present generation is almost always on a lesser plane than such inanimate sources of joy?

Their praises and in grim tones and sonorous music, also quite the best we have seen the week in Walker.

Incidently they have noted the strain of many Ion-, weary nights by all means gird up your little skirts and see this year's Tech Show, you should be more than satisfied.

The show is the nature of the week in Walker.

We do not attempt to make excuses for the deficits incurred—only they would not be justified. It is not the number of dances in these circumstances -nor the prices paid for admission to them if anything שпа the effect of the dance was primarily social, and not a source of funds to any extent.

And does anyone admit that pretty little girls are on a lesser plane than such inanimate objects as trees, flowers, etc. Since there are numerous and powerful organizations which have as their sole aim the protection, propagation, and encouragement of one or another flower, shrub, bird and animal, it is a spirit of fair play which urges us to support a society for the encouragement of pretty little Bantam.

NEGLIGENCE

It is well to regret that we note the class of 1936 has lost its representation on the Institute Board of Directors. The continued failure of Philip Brigg's, president of the Sophomore class, to attend the meetings.

When Brigg's accepted the nomination for that office he agreed to accept the responsibilities attendant to it, if he should be elected. Mr. Brigg's was elected, but he failed to attend the meetings, thus taking the responsibilities of his class upon himself.

In spleen President Brigig's responsibility for the loss of his class' representation it is significant to note that recently the Sophomore Hop Committee, of which he was chairman, reported one of the largest deficits of any recent dance committee.

ANTI-WAR CONFERENCE

The chapter of the National Student League, now being established at Technology, has initiated a call to the student body at the Institute to elect delegates to a committee which will arrange all Anti-Tech Anti-War Conferences.

The insolvability of another major war is generally conceded. The horrors of the last war, and the gloom of recovery, its depression aftermath are daily portrayed in the major war is generally conceded. The horrors of the last war, and the gloom of recovery, its depression aftermath are daily portrayed in the newspapers. The peoples of all countries desire to avoid war, and it seems to us there is no way to go about preventing the impending tragedy.

Although the hockey season is a thing of the past, as far as college competition is concerned, it is not too late to say a few words about two of the best hockey players that have ever put on skates for Technology. Both have won the sticks for three years with the Beaver varsity, both have been magnates, and both graduating in June, will leave hats on the team that will be hard to fill. We refer to Franklin Milliken and Johnny Hrones.

Miliband made the team as regular fullie in his sophomore year and has garnered the top prize times for Technology. Last year he was chosen for a position on the Collegiate All-Star team that played the Boston Bruins in a charity game. On the basis of his clever fighting during his Sophomore and Junior years Frank Miliken was elected captain for the 1934-1935 campaign.
