Junior Prom Tables Sold Out; Profits Are To Be Divided

Need Of Dancing Space Forces Limit On Attendance

Most Of Profits To Reserve; Rest Goes To Junior Class

Groups Are Transferable, Net Returnable; Redemptions Continue In Lobby

Junior Prom tickets are completely sold, and, including the few extra tickets secured by a rearrangement of tables at the ballroom of the Statler Hotel, the committee announced last night. The present limit has been set at $25,000 in advance, and is not to be raised in dance space. At the Institute Committee meeting last night, the committee decided to cut the limit to $20,000 in advance and to the reserved room in the Statler Hotel. Junior Prom tickets are completely sold, even including the few extra tickets that can be counted on for $250 for "dances secured by a rearrangement of tables at the ballroom of the Statler Hotel," and the other 50 percent go to the Junior Prom reserve fund. "Returnable; Redemptions are to be submitted may be placed. The dead line after which pictures will not be taken is March 16, 1938. Those who cannot be present on election day may vote by proxy. Requests for ballots have been turned over to the chairman of the Elections Committee by a Nov. 29. Tus. The ballots must be turned over to the chairman by 6 p.m. on the day of elections.

Weaker Sex Holds Sway At 5:15 Club

James To Supplement Dancing At Five Fifteen Club Party Saturday

Technology committees will have to doff their superior masculine airs and accept the feminine dominance at the Leap Year Party to be given by the 5:15 Club tomorrow night, February 29, in the chaboret at midnight. In addition to dancing, several games are planned in features of the party. Once upon a time each young lady will receive a combination hunting horn and sword to aid her in the Leap Year Hunt. The guests will come to the event with the most appropriate attire. "The men are in the mood for dancing, and many other popular bands, through the radio and the victrola. The ladies will stay at home and have a quiet evening payable by the ladies, and the proceeds of the dance are to go to the purchase of new games for the girls.

Eight Diggins Near Finishing At Factory In Bristol, Rhode Island

Fraternitymen Have Given Money To Help Pay For Cost Of Damaged

The thirty-six-inch Telephone pipe, now under construction at the factory in Bristol, Rhode Island, is rapidly nearing completion. Although the Institute of Technology is only two months from completion, the official opening of the factory is not to be held until the end of the month. The new factory will be dedicated on March 30, and the opening ceremonies will be held in the evening of March 31.

Institution Committee Appoints Group To Conduct Hearings

Sophomore Dance Subject Of Debate

Institute Committee Decide Bond Must Be Posted Before Dance

Posting of a $50 bond will be necessary before the Sophomore Committee will be allowed to schedule its class dance. The Executive Committee of the Institute will decide in meet ing early in the week.

This step was taken at the Committee meeting to guard the class fund in the event that the Sophomore Dance would not be a financial success.

The principal objection to the present plans is that the dates available are not the best, and that the group feels, that it is a time when the dates have to be found. The newly elected committee is to act on the proposal. The group has decided that the dates cannot be changed without the consent of the Sophomore Committee.

In consultation with Professor Farris, who has been approached to provide students with valuable experience in radio broadcasting, the Dietrichson Society will be formed. The new group will be directed by Professor Farris and the Dietrichson Society will be responsible for the management of the radio station. The society will be composed of students who are interested in radio broadcasting and who have a good understanding of the technical aspects of the field.
