Fishbowl classic! I got all excited over "Minnie"—just made a national college sport and radio announcers and a Ph.D. is you could make a pike swallow a mackerel and then down them both.

GLORIOUS BARD

In the course of ramblings here and yonder, I came across a group of students sprawled out on the campus lawn. They were in the middle of a lively debate on the virtues or vices of the Golden Apple.

Exams are just like women.

This statement is quite right. You ask them foolish questions and keep up your supports:

—The Daily Tea Towl

He brought to class an apple red
And a towel to polish it with, he said.
But when he saw the fowl he'd breed
He threw the towel in, instead.

—The Daily Tea Towl

I have to be a kicker
Meaning something in a show.

But the wheel that does the squeaking
Is the one that gets the grease.

—Sanford Soper

Swine appetence is a prey
But the recent records tell
That the guy who gets the gravy
Is the rat who raises hell.
