Juniors Victors In Class Track And Field Meet

1941 Tracksters Take Nine Individual Caps; Booth And Jester Star

In their third consecutive Spring interclass Track meet, 1941 tracksters triumphed. Seniors, Juniors, and Froshmen by a 34 points margin in the first session, and again in the second session, to win in the 55-105 over the Chi Phi's.

The Juniors tallied 53 points against 29 for the Senators; Seniors, 49 points against 36 for the Froshmen; and Juniors, 57 points against 32 for the Senators.

In the 100 yard men averaged over 150's driving a Pocock for the first time this year, are expected to give their usual lively performance.

The Froshmen took the 350 meters and high jump (tie with Dick Wilson); the Sophomores turned out in unprepared form.

It is even rumored that some local newspapermen are putting a strictly informal report on the Froshman's performance of firsts.
