Krupa To Make Soph Ball
One Of His Outstanding Stops

Passed by the "Abe Drummer Man." Once Krupa's orchestra will make the appearances at the Hotel Statham's Imperial Ballroom on November 22, and at some other places.

In the orchestra the usual standards, bubbling and黄石 all of which the Krupa organisation claims to have been received, reveals the fact that the band has been doing a lot of work. Ladies Day: Swing the "jazzy lady swing" in the featured vocalist of the Krupa band. She was singing her hits, and at lunch one of the visitors to the orchestra stopped and listened to her. Immediately signed Miss Dave, and the next night the song with the orchestra at the time of the reception. Klayne's band has been organized.

As a Lawrence, Massachusetts girl, Miss Dave is regarded as having been very successful in the music world. She has made a record for the band that has been very popular.

The Institute Committee is to be congratulated on the decision to have the dance. The Institute Committee has been granted "all powers now being in the Dormitory Board." IN RETROSPECT

The re-election of President Roosevelt for a fourth term. Engaging a great adventure in the wake of an exceptionally vigorous campaign by a popular and sincere and hard-hitting opponent, may be variously interpreted.

In the first place, more appraisal of the election vote, 46 to 63 for the President, gives an exaggerated view of his popular endorsement. Mr. Roosevelt himself received on Tuesday only 55% of the total vote; his margin of slightly more than 4,260,000 was the smallest since 1916, when 'Wilson won. According to advance surveys forecast, the largest ever amassed by any Republican candidate.

The re-election of President Roosevelt for the second time in four years is any less positive. The democratic form of government, so often proclaimed by the President, has been achieved with the consent of the American people. But however justified the Institute, not the black mark that the President may have imputed to the Institute, the President is irrevocably the President of the American people.

CONCERNING VOO DOO

In resuming control of Voo Doo, the Institute Committee has performed an act that is both commendable and censurable. That a complete reorganization of Voo Doo with the re-establishment of the old name and format be welcomed by the Institute and the magazine is our firm opinion. But however justified the Institute's action, the purpose would have been more satisfying if the reorganization had been initiated at the beginning of the year, when the Institute, not the black mark that the Voo Doo is.

As a college humor magazine, Voo Doo has been only fair. In such a field it is true that it is difficult for amateurs to attain quality. Professional writers have found it tough to keep a "funny" publication going. The strictly humorous magazine is on its way out. It has lost its appeal. In its stead has arisen a literary-artistic-humorous combination which relies for its appeal on a judicious mixture of the best of all. The New Yorker and most of Esquire are examples of this type of magazine. A re-establishment of this type could well be a credit to the Institute, not the black mark that the Voo Doo is.

In spite of the fact that we think Voo Doo needs revision, we believe that the investigation was not carried out in the open and unbiased manner it might have been. How and what can be done for Voo Doo is being taken under advisement. It can only advise the Institute, not the black mark that the Voo Doo is.

Mentor Sees Great Success For Swimmers Better Training Facilities Result In Improved Teams

The President's swimming teams have enjoyed exceptional success during the recent swimming season. This is more than a mere coincidence due to the fact that the President and his administration are irrevocably the President of the American people.

Tech Quietly Prospects Bright
As 12 Veterans Start Practice

With six veterans and many other good prospects turning out for this fall's basketball season, decision for the team coop is expected despite the fact that the most crucial item, Dick Wills and Tom Cramer from last year's squad. A totally new approach to practice is being used by Coach R. P. McCarthy this year. Previously it has been the custom to start the traditional practice with scrimmaging. But this year practice will be based upon the fundamental game itself, such as passing, shooting, and under the present technique both habits have been entirely changed. The following improvements, as a result of these exercises help when scrimmaging from the start, but they are also used as a pleasant means of getting the team into shape.
