Stratton Prize Course Advisers Are Appointed

Three Best Talks Of Technical Interest To Win $100 In Awards

The 1942 edition of the annual Stratton Prize competition, with available prizes totaling $100, received its first applications. The competition, which was established in 1930 by the late President Samuel W. Stratton, is open to all undergraduates. The winners are selected by the departmental advisers, who are to be advanced to the position of associate course advisers. One representative of each department has been appointed to advise the students of that department in the choice of subjects and factual accuracy.

300 Couples Attend Soph Ball

Attracked by the double-crown rhythm of Gene Krupa, over 300 couples were present at the annual Sophomore Ball staged last Friday night in the Imperial Ballrooms of the Hotel Statler. Krupa's music, with vocals by Anita Dunn and Howard Dobson, ran the gamut from the sweet strains of the "Beverly of Beverly Hills" to a twenty minute jam session which only the finest dancers managed to survive. On the whole, however, the maestro managed to maintain himself to a pleasant and enjoyable music.
