End of Drive For War Scrap Two Days Off

Total Amount Estimated To Be Over Fifty Tons

As the Technology scrap drive comes to a close, the Tech's Scrap Drive Committee, headed by Professor Lyman M. Dewey, chairman of the drive, will well up towards the $100,000 goal that was set from the beginning of the drive. The drive was turned in before the drive ends. A representative is on duty at all times for its scrap dealers.

Deciding that the two week drive has been a remarkable cooperation by all groups, Professor Dewey said that the drive will be managed by the Tech scrap drive committee headed by Robert Jones.

An accurate estimate of the tonnage turned in is far too made because the material is not all in, and those that are in need of a certain type of material which were established about the grounds to receive it. However, all government are confident that the total amount will be well over fifty tons.

Sit F. Atlas, Jr., chairman of the Tech scrap drive committee, stated last night that many of the houses had already donated much material but that they still had much material which could be sold to dealers which are scheduled to pick up the material. He also stated that there are two houses that have expressed willingness to donate elevators to the department of mechanical engineering for removing from them the house.

Subject: War Effort

We have been wondering how we can contribute to the war effort. We have heard about the shortage of trained personnel for essential industries, and we thought it would be a good idea to compile a list of students who are qualified to serve in these fields. We have asked our class officers to distribute this list to other classes and to encourage other students to sign up. We hope that we can help to ensure a steady supply of trained personnel for the war effort.

Best regards,
