Seabord & Blade To Accept Initiates At Military Ball
Walker Memorial Is Scene Of Formal Next Friday Evening

The Seabord and Blade societies have invited the students of the Naval Academy to a gala Military Ball to be held in Walker Memorial next Friday evening from 8 P.M. to 3 A.M. A Colonol and Mrs. E. W. Putney head the list of chaperons, followed by Major and Mrs. Edward W. Treadwell, Second; Major, Mrs. Joseph F. Cook, and Major and Mrs. Arthur D. Cowell. All other in- stitutions participating in the Military Ball are to be among the invited guests.

Redemptions On Sale
For From Options
Junior Prom will be on sale between 12:30 Noon and 2:00 P.M. today in the sale desk in the Main Lobby of Building 16, it was announced last night by the Junior Prom Committee. Those persons holding tickets may also sign up for tables at 8:30 P.M. on the same day. For those who have not yet purchased their options, it was further announced that more tickets may be purchased this week. Price on options is still $3.00, $5.00, and $7.00, and full tickets cost $5.60.

Informal Dance Band Chosen
Junior Prom Weekend Plans Now Complete; Rogers To Play Sat.

Rogers and his orchestra have been signed to supply the music for the formal dance of the Junior Prom-week, it was announced last night by the Junior Prom Committee. The band, one of the major events of a busy week-end for those attending the class of 1947's Prom, is scheduled to be held in Walker Memorial from 8:30 to 12 A.M. on Saturday, March 7, up-and-coming young musician, and one of the best young band leaders to appear in the history of the Midshipmen.
A CRUCIAL TEST

Voo Doo has travelled a rough and rocky road during the past few years. It has been malign in The Tech, criticized by members of the student body, and investigated by the Institute Committee at one time or another. And now it faces bankruptcy with its reserve funds depleted and its credit with the Advisory Council non-existent. Members of the past and present management boards of Voo Doo will appear tomorrow before the Executive Committee of the Institute Committee to determine definitely the financial status of Voo Doo and to present their reasons why the undergraduate association should assume financial losses incurred by Voo Doo. If the Institute Committee refuses to accept this responsibility, Voo Doo will be dropped as an Institute activity and will more than likely die a quick death.

Certain managing boards of past volumes of Voo Doo are the guilty parties who have operated at a loss and have dissipated the reserve funds of the organization. The new board, which assumed control of the magazine at the beginning of this semester, can hardly be blamed for these losses.

An issue of Voo Doo, the first to be published under the new management, will appear on sale during the latter part of this week. A better test of the abilities and possibilities of the new management would not be found. If the material is interesting and the books black, the present volume of Voo Doo may be able to let the magazine back on its former solid feet.

The Institute Committee, before making its decision, should consider seriously the success of this next issue of Voo Doo as a parameter of what may be expected of the present management board.

FIVE PER CENT MEAL TICKET

When the Commonwealth of Massachusetts started to add five per cent to all meal checks over one dollar, Waller Dining Service discontinued the sale of five-dollar coupon books which enabled the student to save fifty cents on his investment.

This necessarily meant that, for every $5.10 the student spent in Walker, he added fifty cents to his former food bill. Such a situation would provide an increase in student living expenses of at least fifteen cents a week or over one dollar a year. We multiply this by the four hundred dormitory residents, who, we have assumed depend almost entirely on Walker for their food, and we find that the discontinuation of book sales will cost dormitory men six thousand dollars a year.

Fortunately, the situation has not existed as long as a year and has not increased food expenses as much as six thousand dollars. In an unusual week expenses shall not be added to the dormitory resident’s budget, something should be done.

We suggest that the Dining Service sell at a dollar a coupon book worth $5.25 until the state amends its law or, added to the dormitory resident’s budget, something should be done.

Hell Week Ends

Every week in this time—after hell week has reached an uncomfortable termination—the Institute overflows with an exuberance that is felt not only by the students concerned with Hell Week in any way at all, but by their pet amnestic that is unable to put the man’s musings and memories while valiantly attempting to stem the flood of memory-assumed for that particular phase of his fatherly Hell Week program. Among all the students some are actually amusing. Here are those which pleased us most—

Three integrals and an orchid to the Dormitory Dance Committee, the only memorable item of the past Friday Night. . . . 7 hours is a long time to spend with one woman, but under the circumstances, it should have been enjoyable.

All you must consume fans who have seen the screen version of Purple Haze are happy to know that the Deltabies stage production of the show is scheduled to hit Boston on March 20. . . . "Tomato Road" is also due to make a comeback—need I say more? All you boys who are up on your film news will be glad to hear that Roddy Boggs and his orchestra has been signed for Saturday night at Junior Prom Weekend. . . . "Devil Bait" claims he’s tops. . . . You wolves about to appreciate the 足足 commonplaces of July Darline, Rodgers’ vocalist, and T. Tucker’s vocalist are in for a real treat next week. . . . Voo Doo, it appears, is in a bad spot. . . . We don’t mind that repeating the version of "The Man Who Came To Dinner" rates tops.
The varsity basketball team turned in its fourth win of the year as they overwhelmed the Greyhounds of Springfield 79-31 at the end of the opening stanza. During the second period, fast Bobcats turned in a 22-0 run of their own and the visitors were on the long end of a 35-12 score at the halfway mark. Despite the loss of Cal Taft, Bobcats moved up into second place and were in the driver's seat with 15 points. The Academy boys led 35 to 10 after the opening period. Despite an ankle injury which forced Bobcat forward cut loose and the Grey quintet kept pace with Springfield. During the second period Nork, fast pivot man, in the third canto, turned in its fourth win of the season when they face better play. While Bobcats, the Beavers topped the Bobcats, the Beavers sounded. Puzzled at the outset by the Bobcats, the Beavers overpowered the visitors by the score of 43-23. In the contest, were invincible after breaking by lowering the breaststroke mark. The complete results of the meet are as follows:

Swimmers Bow To Brooklyn; Meet B. U. Tomorrow

Hunn and Recchie Score In Diving; Final Count 7-5

Travelling to Brooklyn, New York, last Saturday the varsity swimming team suffered a 24-29 loss at the hands of Brooklyn College. The only diver in Saturday's winner was Jim Linn, who had the diving, followed very closely by Bob Josie. It was a two men who last week did the same thing against Trinity in Hartford, during the first period, the visitor’s score was very close to Hunn throughout the competition.

The last team both of the rivals tied with a score of 15 points by taking second and third in every event except the 120 yard freestyle in which Trinitarian Nicholas. In the earlier event, Jack Loveland was out of first place by Bob Linn, of Brooklyn, although he swam second to the dawn of the season, the record of 2 minutes 44 seconds.

Summary

The freshman meet was equally well wrestled, each match being

The freshman swimming team came through a sweeping victory in the Eastern Basketball Conference. The team scored a total of 7 points in six matches, which was the high score in the second and third period, but never came near the lead again.

They outscored their opponents in the opening 20 minutes to take a 7 to 6 lead and the Academy boys led by five, 12-7, when the contest was over. Their losses were enough under the second and third period, but never as close as near the lead again.

They outscored their opponents in the opening 20 minutes to take a 7 to 6 lead and the Academy boys led by five, 12-7, when the contest was over. Their losses were enough under the second and third period, but never as close as near the lead again.

The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet.

Frosh Swimmers Sink Moses Brown

The freshman swimming team came through a sweeping victory in the Eastern Basketball Conference. The team scored a total of 7 points in six matches, which was the high score in the second and third period, but never came near the lead again.

They outscored their opponents in the opening 20 minutes to take a 7 to 6 lead and the Academy boys led by five, 12-7, when the contest was over. Their losses were enough under the second and third period, but never as close as near the lead again.

The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet.

Frosh Swimmers Sink Moses Brown

The freshman swimming team came through a sweeping victory in the Eastern Basketball Conference. The team scored a total of 7 points in six matches, which was the high score in the second and third period, but never came near the lead again.

They outscored their opponents in the opening 20 minutes to take a 7 to 6 lead and the Academy boys led by five, 12-7, when the contest was over. Their losses were enough under the second and third period, but never as close as near the lead again.

The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet.

Frosh Swimmers Sink Moses Brown

The freshman swimming team came through a sweeping victory in the Eastern Basketball Conference. The team scored a total of 7 points in six matches, which was the high score in the second and third period, but never came near the lead again.

They outscored their opponents in the opening 20 minutes to take a 7 to 6 lead and the Academy boys led by five, 12-7, when the contest was over. Their losses were enough under the second and third period, but never as close as near the lead again.

The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet. The freshmen are what head coach Jack Stiehm III said last Saturday after the meet.
Rifle And Gym Teams Have Interesting Weekend At McGill

Although they only split with the hosts, McGill, the first people to return from Montreal tell stories of a very interesting weekend.

The G. I. men beat McGill by two points at 45-44, while the rifle team lost the meet by a similar score of 52-50.

The success of the week-end which was planned by McGill for the two teams to enjoy was due entirely to the fact that in a few hours on Monday night, over sixty members of the McGill teams or their friends had a dance for the two teams, and the thrill and interest was very enjoyable evening. According to our only returner, dates were supplied and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

Presidents Talk

(Contined on Page 1)

"spreading stones," the President maintained that even if the Pearl Harbor disaster would have continued, it would have been impossible to send the navy to the Philippines. He insisted that the disarming movement affect the foil competition. He said that the week-end was a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

Presidents Talk

(Contined on Page 1)

"spreading stones," the President maintained that even if the Pearl Harbor disaster would have continued, it would have been impossible to send the navy to the Philippines. He insisted that the disarming movement affect the foil competition. He said that the week-end was a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

Presidents Talk

(Contined on Page 1)

"spreading stones," the President maintained that even if the Pearl Harbor disaster would have continued, it would have been impossible to send the navy to the Philippines. He insisted that the disarming movement affect the foil competition. He said that the week-end was a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.

John Hinchnian led the foil team and some found so good that they exiled for a longer stay in the city.

The rifle team's meet was very interesting as the members of our teams were live and exciting. There were also prizes which stayed at a different fra. The second day was the best; a better chance to mix with the McGill students. That according to Sister St. Joseph, the satisfaction was successful.

In the gymnastic meet, Howe took first place in the tug of war and Emilie Tooke took first in the aide air. The competition followed by George Anderson. The Institute teams were in the rings, and rope climb event, but dropped a few of their own gains and high bar contests to McGill.