Sailing Pavilion Opens April 3
Future Sailors Learn How to Shorten a Shock

"Man, what a race," Commander of the Nautical Association, announced at the general meeting held recently, "the first 100 yards was a breeze." The actual 'whip,' however, aboard the wooden 30-foot sloop designed in the old Nautical Association barn, was never to be held at a later date. At 3 P.M. last Monday, Room 10-250, the Sarasota House, in the absence of the 'whip,' decided that the demand for their use will increase to such an extent that the Nautical Association will be needed in the near future. The second meeting of the Nautical Association were signs of the need for their own house to come at the last minute.

PROBLEMS OF ALL-TECH DANCE

Among the changes in undergraduate life around the Institute has been the revision of the dance schedule, until the Inter-Fraternity Conference Annual Dance, normally one of the larger dances of the year, remains as the only big dance of the term. For this reason, the dance gives promise of being an early sell-out, and a scramble for tickets is forecast.
