On May 19, the same students went out of the University's re-campus, destroying all registers which could be found.

Strike Movement Reaches Peak

The strike movement among Holadals has grown to such a point that the ap-movement against the labor draft has been an in-ated in the University of Amsterdam, and in the University of Amsterd. On Wednesday, the students of the Amsterd had returned to classes to the ple-that the crisis had ended. However, the Dutch students have been a "struggle." On Due to the pressure of the students, the draft was started, large num-and others imprisoned. As a result, the University of Amsterdam, and other uni-examined to a complete standards, with students finding or accepting any student's labor work on the campus. Now the heads of the uni-was to the German authorities that eight students had been "suspended.

Seyss-Inquart answered; he agreed to the best, only a temporary val-means to get the names and ad-they signed the declaration they would have a strike, walking out in a body.

Defiance at Leyden

From the 3rd of the formation 1943, the students of Leyden have been positively ag-protest, in defiance of the authority of their professors. The first real incident occurred at Leyden Uni-1943, when the German authorities demanded that the students must their promise not to interfere with Richard's instruction and insti-tional authority. After a series of meetings, the professors of the Hare were among them a decree ordering the closing of all institutions of higher ed-they being closed and the teaching of higher education was stopped.

Boycotted in Holland

The editorial of Holland's daily newspaper, The Times, on July 4, 1943, de"the idea of the University of Leyden, which has been included in the 100 is expected in a few days.
