Newest Voo Doo Is On Sale Now

Features I.F.C., Navy Sections; Margrave; The Tech News

The lastest Voo Doo went on sale this morning and will be available for purchase today and Monday. It was originally scheduled to come out Thursday but was postponed to Friday last Monday, the printers having run into trouble.

The new Voo Doo features, besides such oddities as Margrave, Bird eye, and Girl-of-the-South, a two-page spread, "Charmed," by Virginia Walter, Styx, a George F. Carman, 346, a new Navy section, and also a special I.F.C. section. In addition to the standards of Bobby Sherwood's band, and a new type of Voo Doo, "Charmed," there will be a number of non-fraternity types.

Elected President With R.O.C.

Lamar Field, 244, Chairman of the Senior Spotlights Committee announced last week that they have sent small, questionable cards to all the seniors of the coming year. These cards will be used to tell the seniors about the activities for Senior Week. Announced at the same time was the election of Robert B. Shay, Jr., 244, to the Committee to replace Arthur P. Donner, former member.

The small cards have gone on the campus and the recipient can write to the following question: "What price are you willing to pay for Senior Week?" and "Will you attend the Senior Week festivities?"

Field,calls all the Seniors Class to give careful thought to their decision between the two teams, since the small cards have already started to work out the details of these festivities.

In all instances, the electing class numbers between 350 and 550. Because of this large number it feels that this Senior Week will be even bigger as the previous year.

Rockey Society Holds Elections

Edward G. Doyle, 246, and Robert Smith, 246, were elected to the executive board. Doyle was elected president and secretary at the meeting of the Rockey Society held Monday night. He was assisted by the Parnythe League of Walker House in the election. Both Doyle and Charles W. Winfield, 346, were members of the committee that met to elect the officers. Since these officers were not elected officially temporarily since they were not members at the time of the meeting.

Boyce To Head Hotel Statler

Professional Journal To Publish First Issue

On Wednesday, Sept. 29, Carmen Boyce, 244, was appointed Chairman of the Technical Engineering News Executive Committee to succeed Clyde Snyder, 244, who resigned earlier. The appointment was made after he felt that his academic studies came first. The chairman of the wartime committee is responsible for the position of General Manager in the publication organization. Boyce has been Vice-Chairman and Editor-at-Large of T.E.N. since the 44 Committee was organized in August. The Vice-Chairman and Business Manager was appointed at that time by Mazy Dew, 244, Director.

One of the first things Boyce plans to do in his new capacity is to ask the Institute Committee and ask that plans be made for a regular schedule of publication, can be resolved. The Wartime Committee is to ask for advice from the Committee on Undergraduate Publications and then send a recommendation to the Institute Committee and ask that the publication be established. The present problem is to make a proposal, and then set up a publication board.
