The DORMS: I A IN THE DRAFT

The entire Senior House and three undergraduate dorms are to become unavailable for student use in the near future and thus is a real problem to those who may be indirectly implicated by this new move. The announcement by the Dormitory Committee makes the situation clear and also emphasizes the fact that currently, the dormitory is in a state of emergency as a result of a number of reasons.

As in all times pertaining to war exigencies, and indeed as has been the case heretofore, cooperation by all concerned will solve this problem.

Another way to help relieve this pressing problem has been suggested by the Dormitory Committee: namely, that the processes of this problem be extended currently in which matter, the idea, once again, has been acted upon. The dormitory doors will be opened and students will be allowed to take over, or help on a project of this kind.

The Navy is at tech, too

The following excerpt from the Editorial column of the Crimson, a unique situation having little to do with our area undoubtedly party. We offer it with no remarks as to "moral-to-be-gained" or "lessons-to-be-learned," but as it stands with this one purpose: "What has been your attitude?"

Plasting his feet icy in the icy cutes, a Freshman shovelled across Mass Avenue toward Hayes-Bickford. It was cold and he had 12 more pages of Thompson and Johnson. As he walked down the side walk at the same time he was trying to figure out his floor. He had eaten two toasts cinnamon and a cup of coffee, the Freshman pushed his cost again, and started out. The Newman was ahead of him, and then was going on his phone in his age-old Yeardley walking through the second swing door. The officer, waiting, turned around. He hesitated. "I want to shake your hand," he said. "I've been in this house for three months and you're the first Harvard man that's spoken to me."
Betters And Morrow Score Pair Of Goals Each To Face Attack

Rebounding for a loss suffered earlier in the season at the hands of New Hampshire the cellar-dwelling Beaver pucksters went all out last Friday night to hand the Big Red a resounding defeat, the Tech scoring 5-2. The Tech forwards did well enough to change the scoreless tie at 1:50, but were unable to carry the momentum to victory until several minutes before the final buzzer when John Vicini fenced excellently in representing the Beaver's only score of the afternoon. Captain Fred Kaneb also turned in a good performance as the Tech notebook tallied up fourteen rousing numbers of the opposite team, Kaneb scoring the only Tech tally in the openings. Dick Bell and Mike Cicek scored for the Techmen.

Hampton Loses To Swordsmen; Cornell Gets Tie

This Beaver squad took part in two matches against Tech over this past week-end, defeating the Hamilton College seniors by a score of 17 to 10, and being tied by the Big Red of Cornell, 13 to 13. At Clinton, when the fifteen men of the new Hamilton Captain Dick Ackerman won three matches out of six. The contest took place on Friday afternoon, January 19.

After travelling all night, the ten members of the team who faced being left alone to sleep in coaches, Cornwall found the swordsmen slightly worn. It seems that the color red is a nemesis to the Beaver D'Artagnans, as the only other meet this season in which they fared so poorly as to be tied was against the Harvard Crimson.

Also fencing remarkably well, according to manager Larry Churchill, was freshman John Vicini, who was chosen to fill the positions of Dick Maconi, Bob Kratz, and John Vicini fenced excellently in representing the Beaver’s only score of the afternoon. Swimmers Plan Banquet Tonight
Season to Continue Into Second Term

Having completed their first term without schedule, the varsity swimming team plans to hold a banquet tonight in Tyler Lounge at 8:30 P.M. It is planned to elect a captain and secretary this evening in light of the graduation of Henry M. Tidman, '43, and James W. Light, '43, from the Dormitory.

According to Frederick J. Cavanagh, Jr., '44, manager of the team, it is hoped that Tidman and Light will both be at the banquet and will say a word.

Among the other guests at the banquet will be Mr. Max Undersee, who today resigned as swimming coach of the varsity team. Mr. Undersee, who will probably tell someone of the intended plans of the team, has been coaching on the University for the past 60 years.

The first event of the evening will be the election of a captain for the team. It is hoped that the captain will have a strong voice in the team's decisions.

The banquet will be held in the Thayer Room of the Institute.

Dorn Evacuation

In an effort to save money, the Dormitory Committee has suggested that all dormitories should be evacuated before Pearl Harbor, saw eleven wings last Thursday, January 14, at 2:45 P.M. The wings are now in the process of being evacuated.

The cooperation of students will be very helpful in making these economies effective.
