Doctor Compton Announces New Staff Promotions

Promotions on the faculty of the institution, effective at the beginning of the current academic year on September 1, were announced today by President C. M. Compton, Jr. The promotions include the rank of associate professor, a professor, and eight members of the staff.

Members of the faculty promoted to the rank of professor in the departments of Physics, Mathematics, and English are: Charles A. Frank, and Frances W. Fields, dean of the School of Engineering, and Walter H. New- man, department of Electrical Engineering. Professor J. F. Gardner, and Ernst A. Guellich, department of Chemical Engineering, and John T. Gilliland, department of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering.

Official Notice

The Register officially announced that eight such promotions are effective at the beginning of the current academic year.

Interfraternity Quorum To Be Named At Statler Dance On Friday, May 12

Tickets, Priced At 86c, Go On Sale In Building 10 Monday

An Interfraternity Quorum will be crowned at the F.C.O. Dance to be held at District Auditorium at the close of the current academic year on Friday, May 12. She will be chosen by a vote of all male students in good standing, according to the rules announced last spring in the Daily News and by a selection committee, headed by Joseph C. MacKinnon, the Registrar. The last time the ticket price was $1.00 was in 1943, when the government told $1.00.

Friday and Saturday will be 11:00 A.M. in Building 10 Lobby and will continue throughout the week to 12:00 A.M. Saturday. All students, not only interfraternity men, may purchase tickets. The dance committee has made arrangements with the Navy and the Army whereby V-12 men attending the Dance will be allowed to remain until 1:00 A.M. on Friday but will not be allowed to remain until 3:00 A.M. on Saturday.

The contest for choosing the Interfraternity Quorum will be run in two rounds. The Interfraternity men will be picked from the pool of eligible men from the pool of eligible men the morning of Saturday, May 12. The contest will be presented on the stage dur- ing the week. The choice of the individual who will be announced as the winner will be made by the audience. The audience shall pick the winner by means of a secret ballot which will be held for the occasion. Among other things the winner will receive a $100 check, a $50 check, and a $10 check.

The rules for the contest are as follows:

1. A snapshot or unrehearsed photograph of your Interfraternity Quorum should be submitted to Carroll W. Beers, A.T.O. House, Bay St. Button, before May 9. Entries may be turned in at the Building 10 Lobby. Entries should be open for this purpose on May 5. Photographs preferably should be in black and white.

2. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

3. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

4. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

5. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

6. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

7. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

8. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

9. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

10. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

11. The contest is open to all eligible students who wish to enter.

Freshmen Choose Section Officers

Five Of Eight Sections Have Finished Elections

Five of the eight freshmen sec- tions have elected their officers and alternates this week, in an election which was approved by a vote of the freshmen students last Tuesday. The results of the election were: Section 1, L. MacKinnon, Jr., section chairman; Section 2, R. K. Gunther, section chairman; Section 3, R. D. Tripp, section chairman; Section 4, H. P. D. Rockwell, section chairman; Section 5, F. E. Browne, section chairman.

Debaters Subdue Norfolk Prison

Norfolk Prison defeated Williams College

The M.I.T. Debating Society was victorious over the Norfolk Prison Col. in a match last week, for the first time in the history of the society. The opposition was quite as stiff as the opposing team was made up of former lawyers and judges. The next major debate is to be held with Williams College on the same platform, at the same time, and the same place.

Tickets, Priced At 86c, Go On Sale In Building 10 Monday

An Interfraternity Quorum will be crowned at the F.C.O. Dance to be held at District Auditorium at the close of the current academic year on Friday, May 12. She will be chosen by a vote of all male students in good standing, according to the rules announced last spring in the Daily News and by a selection committee, headed by Joseph C. MacKinnon, the Registrar. The last time the ticket price was $1.00 was in 1943, when the government told $1.00.
professor's activities in this field, he was one of the earliest investigators in the psychology of cooperation. Professor Magoun was born in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1918, the son of a professor of Greek and Latin at Oberlin College, and the grandson of Professor Grant Walker, who taught Greek at Harvard University. He received his B.A. degree in 1940 and his Ph.D. degree in 1943 from Harvard University. He then went to the University of California, Berkeley, where he worked in the laboratory of Dr. Donald Hebb, a preeminent figure in the field of psychology. He served as an assistant professor there from 1943 to 1946, and then as an associate professor until 1950. In 1950 he became a full professor at the University of California, Los Angeles, where he served as chairman of the department of psychology from 1955 to 1960. He was also a visiting professor at the University of Oxford, England, in 1956-1957. In 1960 he became the director of the Institute of Human Relations at the University of California, Los Angeles, a position he held until 1965. He then became a professor emeritus at the University of California, Los Angeles, and a consultant to the Institute of Human Relations. He was also a visiting professor at the University of Oxford, England, in 1965-1966. He was a member of many professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research.

He was a prolific writer, having published over 250 articles and books in his lifetime. His most well-known work is probably his book, "The Nature of Human Nature," which was published in 1949 and became a classic in the field of psychology. He also wrote numerous articles on human nature, social psychology, and political behavior. He was a charter member of the American Psychological Association and was awarded the Distinguished Service Award in 1981. He was also an honorary member of the American Psychological Association, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the American Philosophical Society. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.

He was a member of several scientific societies, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, and the American Philosophical Society. He was also a member of several professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues, and the American Society for Social Research. He was also a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the American Political Science Association. He was a recipient of numerous honorary degrees from universities around the world.
Crew Touching Up Rough Spots

Inter-crew Racing Lives Up vs. Practice

The men of the varsity are continuing its intense practice for the Henley race. The varsity crew has its work cut out for it, as the competition is arduously fierce and not only does the crew have to meet the demands of its regimen, but the problems of this intense practice are un-sung.

Winders Strikes Lightweight

The varsity boat has been showing great promise and has met with each day. The boat, sliced by Wilson, is impressively steady and the lineup is fairly close. In order to keep the boat in tune, the varsity lightweights of '44, Carroll and Miss Dorothy Spencer, have been spending most of their time keeping the boats in shape.

Friday, April 7, 1944

Cortland F. Ames, 1044. Carroll cliffke), Miss Dorothy Spencer your name clearly on each print.

The first two rounds of the tournament, which have been in years and gives them a immense and now beats the jayvee winners.

Emerson Squash Tournament Starts

C. J. Emerson annually gives two

The committee for the dance con-

As Spring Sailing Season Begins

During the past week the crew has been continuing its intense practice for the Annapolis race. The varsity crew has its work cut out for it, as the competition is intensely fierce and not only does the crew have to meet the demands of its regimen, but the problems of this intense practice are un-sung.

VARSITY CREW STROKING ON THE CHARLOTTE River in preparation for coming races.

The Varsity Crew working out and in one of its daily practices on the Charlotte is as follows:

MONDAY 10-44
1:00-6:00 P. M. M. Men only.
6:00-9:00 P. M. Mixed swimming.

TUESDAY 1:00-4:00 P. M. M. Men only.
4:00-7:00 P. M. Mixed swimming.

WEDNESDAY 1:00-4:00 P. M. M. Men only.
4:00-7:00 P. M. Mixed swimming.

THURSDAY 1:00-4:00 P. M. M. Men only.
14:00-5:00 P. M. M. Men only.
5:00-8:00 P. M. Mixed swimming.

FRIDAY 1:00-4:00 P. M. M. Men only.
4:00-5:00 P. M. M. Men only.
5:00-6:00 P. M. Mixed swimming.

SATURDAY 10:00-6:00 P. M. M. Men only.
6:00-9:00 P. M. M. Men only.

New Swimming Schedule In Effect At Alumni Pool

A new swimming schedule has just been announced and is in effect at the Alumni Pool. It is as follows:

With the opening of the Sailing Pavilion on April 1, interest has gone once again in our sailing activity, for the annual Association’s Boat Show, which has been meeting very lightly this trip. At 3:00 P. M., it is now giving itself more thoughtful press release and business card:

Window on all is equal. There has been a vast growth of sailing interest, and the results of these are un-known.

Compton Reveals Faculty Promotions

Edward R. Van Driest is New Staff Member

Robert W. McLaughlin, Jr., all 1944, Robert H. Richard, and Charles B. P. Stiles, 64th, with a seventh member to be chosen at the next meeting.

I. F. C. Sponsors Photo Contest

(Continued from Page 1)

I. F. C. sponsors Photo Contest

(Continued from Page 1)

The judges for the contest will be, Miss Mary Ellen Davis (Aide-stitcher), Miss Mary Spencer (Washwoman), John L. Ball, 1944, and Captain Charlie Van Umberton, Hope will not be a chairman of the judges.

The committee for the dance con-
Sons Of M.I.T.

This issue THE TECH takes pleasure in presenting the words and music of a new Technology song, "Sons of M.I.T." Written by John B. Wilbur, '26, Professor of Structural Engineering at the Institute, and arranged by Frank D. Gage, '22, "Sons of M.I.T." was first presented at the Alumni Banquet on February 26, where it won great acclaim. It is reprinted here from the March issue of the Technology Review for the benefit of those who have not yet secured copies of the music.

Words and music by John B. Wilbur, '26

Arranged by Frank D. Gage, '22

---

SONGS

Moderate

VOICE.

Good idee spread, And rise and raise your

steins on high to night shall ev'ry

be the

And we pledge our love for

mem-

thy that will

we-

days gone by in the sky, ye sons of M.I.T.

---

Copyright 1944, Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Plates courtesy Technology Review

Copyright 1944, Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

This issue THE TECH takes pleasure in presenting the words and music of a new Technology song, "Sons of M.I.T." Written by John B. Wilbur, '26, Professor of Structural Engineering at the Institute, and arranged by Frank D. Gage, '22, "Sons of M.I.T." was first presented at the Alumni Banquet on February 26, where it won great acclaim. It is reprinted here from the March issue of the Technology Review for the benefit of those who have not yet secured copies of the music.

Words and music by John B. Wilbur, '26

Arranged by Frank D. Gage, '22

---

SONGS

Moderate

VOICE.

Good idee spread, And rise and raise your

steins on high to night shall ev'ry

be the

And we pledge our love for

mem-

thy that will

we-

days gone by in the sky, ye sons of M.I.T.

---

Copyright 1944, Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Plates courtesy Technology Review