Gov. Saltonstall Will Speak Today in Huntington Hall

This afternoon Governor Leverett Saltonstall will give a lecture at 4:30 P.M. in Huntington Hall, Room 250. This talk is the first of a series of speeches on current economic, political, and social problems sponsored by the Lecture Series Committee.

The next speaker in the series will be definitely known and will be announced next week, according to Albert J. Hansell, 2-46. It is expected that this talk will be given in two or three weeks.

Walker Investigation Revealed
Form Committee Activities

Concrete results of the Walker Investigation Committee were announced at the meeting of the Dorsey Committee last Monday in the Litchfield Lounge of Walker Hall. Many reductions in fees have already taken place, and the Lounge Bar is to be opened at midnight; and meal tickets become back into use. Full course obligations are to be held on time, the Office of Price Administration will not permit it.

The dormitory tennis tournament started with the first round completed yesterday. Thirty-two players are participating in the tournament. The dormitory softball season has already come to a close with Wood the Champions and Hayden the runner-up. These activities are under the direction of John J. Voelker, 6-45, the Chairman of the Dormitory Athletic Committee.

The probability of holding an acquaintance dance on October 14 is announced by Sherwood J. Lalonde and Lawrence B. Adamson. A complimentary dinner will be given to all workers in the recreation building at Wellesley. A drive should be present. After the dinner, a meeting will be held in the Litchfield Lounge, where addresses will be heard from representatives of the T. C. A., the World Student Service Fund, and the Red Cross. The goal for the drive is $2135, necessary for the continued services of the T. C. A., including such familiar items as the Handbook, Boys' Work, Freshman Camp, the Bieder, and the Employment Bureau. This figure is lower than last year's goal of $2450.

Elections Of Class Officers Set For Oct. 11
Junior Prom, Senior Week Committees Also To Be Elected

As announced in the last issue of The Tech, the elections for class officers will take place on Wednesday, October 11. Gabe E. de Roeth, 16-44, chairman of the Elections Committee, has released further information with regard to the elections. Nomination blanks may be obtained at the Information Office, and must be returned there when filled in. The deadline for nominations is Thursday, October 5.

The elections are to be held for officers for the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes, and for the Junior Prom Committee, the Senior Week Committee, and the Beaver Key Committee.

Institute Announces Faculty Promotions

In line with the new four-year program in the humanities and social sciences which was recently announced by the Institute, Dr. Norman J. Padelford was appointed Dr. Norman J. Padelford as Professor of International Relations. Dr. Padelford, formerly a member of the Faculty of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and consultant to the State Department, will have charge of the courses in the humanities program dealing with international relations.

The Institute has also recently announced the promotion of Frederick J. Adams and Lawrence B. Anderson from the rank of associate professor to professor on the faculty of the School of Architecture and Planning at Technology.

Goal For TCA Annual Drive Is Set At $2135

Drive Will Be Held From October 2-6; Budget Items Listed

The annual Technology Christian Association drive will open on Monday, October 2, and will continue for the week, closing on Friday, October 6. This year, the American Red Cross and World Student Service Fund drives will be held simultaneously, and the drive cards will have separate donations for the three organizations.

The goal in the coming drive, $2135, is necessary for the continued services of the T. C. A., including such familiar items as the Handbook, Boys' Work, Freshman Camp, the Bieder, and the Employment Bureau. This figure is lower than last year's goal of $2450.

International Club To Hold Dance Tomorrow Evening

The Tech International Club will hold an acquaintance dance with the Wellesley Cosmopolitan Club tomorrow, September 28, at 8:00 P.M., in the Recreation Building at Wellesley. The seventy-five members are instructed to leave South Station at 7:30 P.M., or Trinity Place on the 7:34 P.M. Boston-Albany train. A special bus will be available for the return trip. The cost of admission is $1.50 for non-members, and $1.00 for members.
FOR THE STUDENTS

This afternoon the first of what is hoped will be a long series of lectures is to be given in Huntington Hall by Governor Leverett Saltonstall under the sponsorship of the Lecture Series Committee. This Committee, formed during the middle of July, is set up to present students lectures of non-technical nature, as it is felt by many that this is what the students here are lacking. Among the subjects planned by the committee are national politics, foreign relations, and post-war policies.

This series can be either very well attended or very much ignored by the student body, depending on how well the Committee is able to interpret the wants of the students. The purpose of the group is to give the students what they want, not what the Committee thinks the students should have. Their task is one of service, not one of deciding what to teach their fellow students. The job is a difficult one, but can be done if the Committee keeps constantly on its toes and in touch with student opinion.

Every year there is some person or group who runs around at the last minute trying to find signers for nomination blanks for class elections. There is often another group which would have run if they had known how to go about it, but they never found out.

As announced last week, the class elections of all classes are to be held on October 11. Now is the time for people to decide whether or not they want to run, and whether they have any friends who ought to run. Start thinking about it now, don't wait until the last minute. In order for a student democracy to work everyone must put some thought and effort into it.

In The Spotlight

Recently the newspapers carried the tragic story of the death of Peter Saltonstall, son of the present governor of Massachusetts, as a result of enemy action on Guam in the Marianas. Sgt. Peter Saltonstall of the Marines was but one of the three children of Leverett Saltonstall who are now in the service of their country. Leverett, Jr. is a lieutenant in the Army and Emily B. Saltonstall is a member of the WAVES.

Governor Saltonstall himself served in the Army in France during the last war shortly after he graduated from Harvard Law in 1917. At Harvard University, from which he graduated in 1914, the Governor took an active part in sports. He rowed bow on the Harvard second crew in 1914 which won all its races that season, and captained that crew in the same year when it won the Royal Regatta at Henley. He played end on the second football eleven and did the kicking for that team. Governor Saltonstall also was a substitute center at hockey in his senior year at Harvard. His high spot came when against Princeton, in the longest college game on record, he scored the winning goal.

The governor still retains an interest in sports and occasionally attends hockey and football games. His favorite sports include sailing, tennis, golf, and skating. Some years ago the governor broke his neck in a fall while horseback riding.

Born 52 years ago in Newton, Leverett Saltonstall attended Noble and Greenough School in Boston before going to Harvard. His political career, during which he has been elected three times governor of this state and which now finds him as the Republican Candidate for the United States Senate, started in Six feet tall, "a lefty" with blue eyes and grey hair, Governor Saltonstall may usually be seen walking to and from the State House in the morning and evening. The Governor often rides into town on the back of his personal automobile and his sonal apparatus are numbers of his college class—

Run Tufts Course
Tech To Meet W.P.I.
A Week From Saturday

Last Saturday afternoon the Tech cross country runners practiced on the course at Tufts. There was no competition the men just running for a workout. Eleven men were out for the practice.

According to Oscar the leading men out for the sport are: Serrie, Capt. Dick Poorman, Umberger, Goldie, Dickey, Moulton, Morgan,
and Lovei. Although these men do not definitely comprise the team, they will probably make it up.

Run at Franklin Park
This Saturday the cross country men will run over the Franklin Park course in preparation for the race with W.P.I. a week from this Saturday. Again this will be just a practice session, but the final makeup of the team will be decided.

The meet with W.P.I. will be the first of the season for Tech which is hoping to defend its title as New England Champs during the coming season.

Identity of Tech J.V.
Crew Still Undecided;
May Depend On Wind

Tomorrow, the Charles River will be the scene of this term's only crew race, with Cornell, Harvard and Tech the participants. The first race which brings together the Tech and Harvard third boats will be started at 3:45, and will be followed by the J.V. race at 4:15 with all three schools entered. The big race of the day will be the varsity race at 5:00.

A confusing situation prevails at the Tech boathouse as the identity of the J.V. boat has not yet been established. This week time trials only served to frustrate Coach Moch as both the Lightweights and the Second Heavies have finished second to the varsity. At the mo-moment Moch plans to row the light-weights as J.V.'s if a tail wind prevails, similarly the Heavies will be the J.V.'s if there is a headwind.
Nothing has been planned to cover a dead calm. However it is known that the boat that doesn't row in the J.V. race will row as the third boat.

Tech Boating
The lineup for the three Tech boats are: Varsity: Thorkilson, stroke; Hield, 7; Kalb, 6; Rudolf, 5;
Russell 4; Hoagland, 3; Street, 2; Hunter, bow. Lightweights: Littlefield, stroke; Kinehan, 7; Mc-Kewen, 6; Frailey, 5; Schuman, 4; Compton, 3; Hoffman, 2; Huschke,
bow. Second Heavyweight: Wink-er, stroke; Stephenson, 7; Kurisis, 6; Ormiston, 5; Heuchling, 4; Belcher,
3; Edgerly, 2; Hoover, bow.

"Spirit of Victory"
The American Telephone and Telegram Company, its twenty-one associated operating telephone companies, Bell Telephone Laboratories, and Western Electric Company, continue to face unprecedented demands for telephone communication.

Never before in the country's history has there been so much evidence of the indispensable part telephone service plays in the life of the nation.
It makes a direct contribution to the effectivenss of every part of the war effort.

The sense of responsibility which telephone people call the "spirit of service" is in this war the "spirit of victory." The men and women of the Bell System, in whom this spirit lives, may be relied upon to do their utmost.

SENIOR WEEK NEWS

Number two in the series of traditional events of Senior Week is the Senior Dance. It is to be held on Friday, October 27, from 9:00 P. M. to 2:00 A. M. in the Georgian Room of the Statler Hotel. The Georgian Room is located in the mezzanine of the hotel, and is one of the nicest rooms at the Statler. The Senior Week Committee has announced that the band is still an unsettled question. The attendance at the dance is expected to be around two hundred couples. As well as having table and waiter service, refreshments will also be served. The number two event of Senior Week promises to fulfill the traditions of the past and be one of the most memorable nights of Senior Week.

J. P. USHERS

The list of ushers for the Junior Prom, to be held next Friday, has been announced by the committee. Richard N. Jorgenson, 6-45, is to be the Head Usher, while Robert D. Luce, 6-45, will be the Assistant Head Usher.

The other Ushers are: David C. Sherrick, 2-46; Everett E. Waldron, 2-46; Donald K. Walsh, 6-45; George A. Levy, 2-46; Lloyd N. Hoover, 2-46; William J. Pockman, 6-45; James E. Luce, 6-45, will be the Assistant Head Usher.

Beaver Key Race Nears Completion

Activity in the Beaver Key Softball Tournament has slackened with the approach of Fall, and there are no games to report for the past week. With two teams already in the round-robin, and a single game remaining to decide the third finalist, the tournament is in its last stages, and it is hoped that all the games can be played before the beginning of the Beaver Key Football Elimination, the first games of which are scheduled about a month from this date.

Some of the important contests, which will be played in the next week are the Phi Kappa Sigma versus Theta Chi tilt, and the Phi Sigma Kappa play-off game with Phi Gamma Delta. The first, to be played next Tuesday, will decide the third member of the finals, and the second game, at the present scheduled for Sunday, will be the first play-off game of this season.

IOCA Plans Square Dance At Harvard

The IOCA will sponsor another of its square dances this Saturday night from 8:00 to 11:30 P. M. in Memorial Hall at Harvard. Tickets, which cost 40c, may be secured at the Outing Club office in the basement of Walker Memorial. Instructors in square dancing will be given to those who wish it starting at 7:30 P. M.

Next Sunday a big Blue Hill "circus," consisting of four different trips, will be held. The four groups will meet after the trip for supper.

FRATERNITY PLEDGES

Due to lack of space in this issue THE TECH is unable to publish the entire list of fraternity pledges in one issue. The remainder of the list will appear next week along with the new men living in the M.I.T. Student House and the Lenox Club.
