Middle eastern countries will not be able to form any sort of union in the near future," Sir M. Firoz Kahn, delegate to the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization, stated in a speech at the New York City Student Night Tuesday night. Elna- bloved and Sir M. Firoz Kahn, con- tinued, "They would be like seven beggars forming an economic union, because of the beginning of the evening, Sir Noon gave the economic and social back- ground of his country and the posi- tion of Pakistan, and today, in the course of the evening he also commented on the United Nations operating party and Pakistan.

On the subject of the United Na- tions, Sir Firoz said, "Pakistan will continue to grow stronger in the world situation. This, of course, is largely due to its system of gov- ernment," he went on, "for their action can be swift, while that of

55 Men To Get $50 Thousand
Harvard Scholarships
To Be Awarded Grades

The second annual offering of scholarships under the nation- wide Regional Scholarship program of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization was announced last night by Donald K. Davis, UNFAO New England manager. Providing $50,000 in awards to a maximum of 55 men entering advanced student work in food production, the pro- gional Scholarship program is designed to insure "that well-quali- fied students, trained in the subject of science, will have the financial resources will be able to continue their education in the field of food and nutrition," said Dr. Davis.

Each region of the country is al- lowed a number of awards, and the plan and recipients are selected by competition on a regional basis. The members of the Regional Scholarship program are as follows:

SAFETY MEASURES

As a result of the fire and its causes, action has been taken by Westgate Council. In their last meeting, the council voted to hire an engineer from the Institute to be asked to make a fire inspection of West- gate and Westgate West dormitories. There have been numerous com- plaints concerning water heater space heaters, and wiring in the houses.

Led by Jack Garrity, former olympic star, the B.U. swimmers outscored Tech belle of 11-1 in a New England League hockey game at the Arena last night.

The B.U. team controlled the puck for most of the time but the Beavers, and got in many shots at the Tech goal. Tech's goal Woodward made many good saves to keep the score from rising even higher.

Terriers Score in Pair

Twice during the first period the terriers scored two goals within the space of 30 seconds. Garrity accounted for one of these goals. B.U. ran up a commanding 4-0 lead at the end of the first period on a perfectly executed screen shot which got by Woodward.

Throughout the second period the engineers, trying desperately to shatter B.U.'s shot, again came up empty and were tied, however, as the Huskies were

The Terriers scored twice more in the second period, with Garrity accounting for both. Garrity was named one of three B.U. stars for another fine game.
