Queen Gloria Sepp Rules
Tech's-a-poppin Weekend

Meet Gloria Sepp, Queen of the 1950 Tech-a-Poppin, shown with her escort, Thomas Cauley, '52, who is from Jackson Heights, Long Is- land. Miss Sepp is a student of the Shell Oil Company of Manhattan in the school. She is a junior, majoring in chemical engineering. She enjoys working with fabrics, and designing for her own clothing. Her hobbies include painting and dancing.

Tom Cauley, her escort, lives at the Pigeon Club as does her brother, George Cauley, a graduate of the Institute.

Tickets for the Friday concert will be $2.60, $1.60 and $1.20 and will be on sale in Building Two at the entrance to the Library, from 10:00 to 1:00 p.m. and in the usual place. They are also available at the TCA and the Jordan Hall box office.

Hach is Mrs. H. minor, Handel's Messiah, and Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. Handel worked the best part of this summer on "The Creation," making innumerable changes in his music. Heura for attaining the final perfection which we sought.

Presented by Handel
A combination of Genessa and the Institute's Music Department will present the test for the oratorio. Actually, this test was brought together for George Handel's Messiah. Handel's first and most famous oratorio, but it has been so much the subject of discussion as to be rather a disappointment for the production of Booking 238, 1950, under the direction of Maurice M. B. H. by Georgson, tenor, and Paul Mattt, bass, as soloists. "The Creation" has been termed a "sweeping, comprehensive, masterly masterpiece, reaching the pinnacle of Messiah-like conceptions, and ranking in this respect with Bach's Mass in B minor." Aims of

Next in a series of philosophy forums, "Ecucation for Abolitions" will be presented by the Lecture Series Committee on Thursday, April 5, at 4:00 p.m. in the Student Center. The forum will concentrate on the aims of education in any free society, and the nature of the educational system in carrying out these aims will also be evaluated.

Spokesman at the forum will be: Hunter D. Draper, President of Colby College; Professor Crane Brinton, Harvard University; Professor of Mechanical Engineering at the Institute; and President Petronelli, M.I.T.

President Draper will be a former dean of the University of Nebraska, where he will probably connect the topics of religion and education in the dis- cussion as he did in his book, "Religion and Education, and the educational situation in carrying out these aims will also be evaluated.

"I'm not as guilty as I look!"

Maybe our little over-water friend is just fishing for a compliment. On the other hand, he may have reference to all those quick-trick cigarette tests you hear about nowadays.

Well, he's not the only one who's been at sea. Frankly, how can you judge a cigarette by a sniff test? Or another cigarette by one fast puff. What's all the rush about, anyway? When it comes to making up your mind about cigarette mildness, we think you'd like to take your time.

We're as innocent as you.
