Burton House, East Campus HouseComm Meetings Held

Election Plans Studied, Amendments Submitted In E. C. House Meeting

Burton House Comm. Passes $2300 Budget; $75 Loaned To Staff

A new method of electing House Committee representatives was the main topic at Wednesday's meeting of the East Campus House Committee. A motion was made that these men should be elected by floors instead of by units, in the hope that representatives would be better known to their constituents. The vote on this issue was held over until next week's meeting. If the motion passes, and if elections are to be held immediately, an enabling motion must also be passed. New elections would mean that some Housecomm members would find themselves running against each other.

A resolution asking for the resignation of Lounge Chairman Martin S. Lubell '54, who was absent from the meeting was also passed. Lubell was charged with negligence in his duties regarding the TV set, the magazines in the Burton Room, and the dark-room.

F. Eugene Davis '55 was appointed Chairman of the Actions Committee. The Actions Committee initiates all formal complaints to the Administration in regard to the East Campus Dormitories, and therefore is the proper group to which student grievances should be submitted.

Two amendments were offered to the by-laws: one, that nominees for election to Housecomm have their petitions to place their names on the ballots signed by at least 40% of the group they wish to represent (this

New Newspaper Delivery System Goes Into Effect

Beginning with Tuesday's issue, The Tech adopted a new method of distributing copies of the paper to Institute offices. Prior to this, all subscriptions addressed within the Institute were delivered through the regular Institute mail system. Unfortunately many offices did not receive their copies for three or four days, getting one issue the same day the next one was published.

In an effort to remedy this situation, members of The Tech staff are personally delivering the papers to all offices around the main part of the campus. Thus all faculty subscriptions should now be received on the same day the papers are published, with the exception of such remote offices as those in the Lincoln Laboratories, which are still to be delivered through the Institute mail system. It is hoped that under this new system subscribers to The Tech will receive their papers while the news is still fresh.

A 1953-54 budget totaling $2300 has been approved by the Burton House Committee. This budget was passed at the last meeting of the committee last Wednesday night, and includes a thirty-event $600 social appropriation, a loan to the student staff, and funds for the new Burton House dark-room as items of major interest.

According to Richard Peskin, Burton House representative to Dormitory Committee, the $75 loan to the student staff is the first that has been made. This loan is for the social activities of the staffers and is to be repaid out of the proceeds of staff social functions. These functions in-

by Alvin Drake '57

Professor Giorgio de Santillana of the Institute Department of Humanities toured Central Africa this summer under private sponsorship but with an invitation from the Belgian government. He studied the present social and political conditions in the territory extending from Kenya through the Belgian Congo.

This region of so-called "Dark Africa" has long been of special interest to Professor de Santillana, as he believes it to be the last true frontier in the world. He explains that only in Central Africa are there the climate, minerals, water power, and agricultural self-sufficiency capable of supporting an entire new civilization. The population is incredibly sparse when compared to what it could be. The region was previously closed to colonization because it was infested with the anopheles and the tsetse-fly and was inaccessible before the day of the motor truck and airplane. However, modern science can now make a great economic reservoir out of the entire area.

Future Development

The native population is incapable of self-leadership. Education is necessary to raise the native inhabitants to a level which would permit them

Masison Granted Illness Leave As Chairman Of DormComm After Submitting Resignation

Committee Elections Will Be Held Tuesday In Buildings 2, 4, 6 And 10

Next Tuesday, November 17, undergraduate general elections will be held. In addition to the important referendum on off-campus hazing, votes will be cast for Junior Prom Committee, Senior Ring Chairman and Senior Week Committee.

Voting will be through the preferential system, with ballot boxes located in Buildings 2, 4, 6 and 10. Voters will be required to show their registration cards. Freshmen, although they will not vote for any of the committees, will be permitted to vote on the referendum.

In general, the number of candidates on this year's ballot is below normal. This is especially true for the Senior Week Committee, which ordinarily consists of ten students, where there are only six nominees. The committee will be filled out by appointment by Inscomm President Dean Jacoby '54. There are fourteen candidates for the five positions on the Junior Prom Committee, while two students are running for the position of Senior Ring Chairman.

Besides the referendum, on which members of all four classes may vote, each committee is voted for by members of a single class. Seniors will select the Senior Week Committee from the following members of the Class of '54: Robert E. Anslow, Coley Bresee, John Warren Davis, Decker G. McAllister Jr., Richard G. Wilson and David R. Wones. Members of the Junior Class will decide between David M. Scott '55 and L. Dennis Shapiro '55 for Senior Ring Chairman.

Referendum Vote Included With Tuesday Elections

In conjunction with the general elections to be held next Tuesday, Nov. 17, a vote will also be held on a referendum to reverse the Institute Committee's recent ruling banning off-campus hazing.

Freshmen will be permitted to vote on this referendum although only upperclassmen may vote in the general election.

On October 14, a motion was passed by the Institute Committee to the effect that all off-campus hazing (especially as a part of freshmen-sophomore rivalry, rather than the hazing engaged in by fraternities)

Symphonic Band Performs Dec. 4 At Lasell College

Having just recently returned from a successful concert at Smith College the M.I.T. Concert Band is now in rehearsal for its next concert which will be held on December 4. This performance will be at Lasell Junior College at Auburndale, Massachusetts.

One of the outstanding features of the program will be a modernized version of a work entitled "Little Red Riding Hood Meets Wolfe" with David Barnes '54, as narrator. This is somewhat similar to Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" but differs in that the leading characters speak in the modern "hipster" language. Other works to be played by the 53 piece band include Funiculi Funicula by Denza, First Suite in E-Flat for Military Band by Holst, Reverie by Claude Debussy, Divertissement for Three Trumpets by Agostini, Smoke Gets In Your Eyes by Kern, El Relicario-Paso Doble by Padilla, Debutante by Clarke, Stratoswing by Walters and finally Polka and Fugue, from the opera "Schwanda, the Bagpiper" by Weinberger. An organ and extra trumpets will be featured in this number.

In the near future the M.I.T. Concert Band will give a free public concert in Huntington Hall. Works by contemporary modern composers will be performed in addition to some original band pieces by classical composers.

The Freshman Council has announced that 124 Freshman pins which have already been paid for have not yet been picked up by their owners. An additional 22 pins have not yet been purchased. The deadline for picking them up is Thanksgiving.

Charles J. Masison '54, chairman of Dormitory Committee, submitted a letter of resignation from Dormitory Committee to Dean L. Jacoby '54, president of the Undergraduate Association, last Monday, Nov. 9. At a special meeting of Dormitory Committee last night, the resignation was not accepted by the committee.

A resolution introduced by John Seiler '55, was passed which granted an indefinite leave of absence to Masison. The resolution read: "Resolved that Dormitory Committee not accept the resignation of its chairman, Charles J. Masison, but instead grant him a leave of absence for an indefinite period. During this period, an executive committee of three, one of whom shall be chairman, shall be appointed by Dormitory Committee to carry out the responsibilities of the chairman."

Doctor Suggests Move

Masison's resignation was submitted on the advice of his doctor. He is suffering from mononucleosis, and needs more sleep and rest than is possible if he continues as Dormitory Committee president.

Gerald Golden '54 moved that the executive committee members be Alex Pausley '54, Samuel Losh '54, and David Nasatir '55, with Pausley as chairman. The motion was passed. These three men will carry out the duties of chairman for the remainder of Masison's term of office or until Masison feels that he can safely take over his job again. Pausley will preside at Dormitory Committee meetings during this period.

Because of the resignation, the next meeting of Dormitory Committee was postponed from November 17 to November 24 in order to give the executive committee time to get organized.

Masison expressed his thanks to the Dormitory Committee for their expression of confidence, and said that he would be glad to reassume his duties in the future if at all possible.

"Dinner Dance" Is Planned At Baker Saturday Evening

Next Saturday, November 21, a dinner dance will be held in the Baker House Dining Hall. As far as the Baker House Social Committee has been able to ascertain, this is the first dance of its kind ever to be held in a dormitory on campus. A complete dinner, including appetizer and dessert, will be provided by an outside caterer, and will be served from 6:30 p.m. till 8:00 p.m. George Graham's orchestra will provide dance music

A JUDICIAL SYSTEM UNDER FIRE II

Institute Committee's Judicial Sub-Committee met Wednesday, and for the second time in as many weeks "arbitrarily" chose to keep its meeting closed. The case under discussion was still the one concerning implied intimidation of student government members. And when questioned about his reasons for closing Wednesday's meeting, the chairman of Judicial Committee replied, "no comment". He said that his reasons were still the same as those given last week. At that time The Tech felt that the decision to hold a secret meeting was an arbitrary one. We can do no more than to consider it just as arbitrary a decision in this instance. It is, in fact, more so a case of discretionary action inasmuch as this, their second meeting, could not be excused as one of an investigatory nature. A decision was to be reached, and in the best interests of all those involved should have certainly been kept open so that all students could judge for themselves the merits of the case in question. We feel very strongly that this is the only way the student body can understand the workings of its judicial system and evaluate in their own minds, the validity of any Judicial Committee decision. This is the only workable system of "checks and balances" the students can maintain over any further arbitrary action.

Once again the witnesses specifically requested an open session but when informed that members of The Tech had requested attendance to the meeting the chairman of Judicial Committee said that such entrance would not be granted to them. Further evidence of the unfortunate results which can only come from such a veil of secrecy is the questionable position of the Faculty Committee on Discipline pertaining to this case. It is a well known fact that members of the faculty "viewed with alarm" the question of possible intimidation of student government, in which this case has been cloaked since its beginnings. One of JudComm's members quoted an administration member as saying, "if you don't do something about this case, we will". It has even been rumored that the faculty considered handling this case from the very start. Now the Committee on Discipline did not meet beforehand with JudComm to discuss this case. And although we question the wisdom of its members to express their too-quickly-reached individual opinions based on hearsay and inconclusive implications (which might very well sway Judicial Committee's decisions), their apprehensions might have been avoided had JudComm considered this case just as any other until its severity could be determined, and had they refrained from keeping the students completely in the dark with its secrecy.

A change in policy is no longer in the suggestion stage. It is an outright necessity.

SUCH A LITTLE, UNFORTUNATE WORD

It has been the habit of most college newspapers to attack with vehemence the "apathy" of its students in regard to student affairs and activities. It is a stand which The Tech had hoped it would never have to take. It was felt that such arguments would only be picayune and petty, and of such a relatively unimportant nature as not to necessitate the waste of time for comment. Unfortunately events of the past few weeks have abrogated our original conclusions.

Such controversial topics as the levying of a student tax to pay for last year's pre-Field Day activities, the Inscomm motion to ban off-campus hazing, and the question of announcing Judicial Committee decisions have undoubtedly elicited some individual comment. What bothers us, however, is that this "public opinion" is only expressed in private.

It matters little what side of the argument is taken but rather the very fact that opinion be aroused is of utmost importance to the proper operation of government. The Tech has made, and will continue to make available its "Through the Mail" column to all those who feel they have an opinion to convey. The referendum to be held next Tuesday is an even more direct outlet for student expression. It is sincerely hoped that both these methods will be utilized.

Apathy is such a little word. It takes only a little awakening to remove it completely from our vocabulary.

Spanish Speaking Institute Students Comprise Own Club

One of the largest clubs on campus is the Club Latino with its roster of over a hundred members, most of whom speak fluent Spanish. The club was founded here in the fall of 1951; it is hoped that corresponding chapters may be established soon at other major colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Club Latino is open to all Institute students, male and female, who can demonstrate a satisfactory knowledge of Spanish, as Spanish is the official tongue of the club. Other students may be admitted, but only at the discretion of the membership committee.

The organization helps to better accustom many of its members to their new environment, encouraging them to participate freely in school activities in order to derive full benefit from their years at the Institute.

Runners Win Third Place In New England Champs

The varsity Beaver cross-country squad captured third place in the NEIC3A Champs meet last Monday, Nov. 9, at Franklin Park. The final scores of the first five colleges in order were Massachusetts University—82, Northeastern—83, M.I.T.—97, Wesleyan—137, and Springfield—146.

Shea, Kelley Lead Field

Although the U. of Mass. led the field in scoring for the first time in years, it was B.U.'s Johnny Kelley and Northeastern's Ed Shea who led the field around the course. Shea ran right on Kelley's heels for the first three miles of the race, and then took over on the last mile to win the race by a good fifty yards with a time of 20:42 minutes. Since Kelley holds the course record of 19:38 minutes, he felt bitterly disappointed at coming in second; but Shea, who was third in 1951 and second in 1952, crossed the finish line smiling all over. Tech's Jack Farquhar '54, finished third, as he did last year. The Techmen who placed behind Farquhar were Dave Palamountain '56, 19th; Ray Smith '56 20th; Hugh Nutley '54, 26th; and Sture Bengston '55, 34th.

Frosh Place Ninth

The frosh harriers did not do as well as the varsity team, placing ninth in the yearling race with a total of 229 points. The scoring Tech freshmen were Dick Vaughan, 21st; Pete Carberry, 23rd; Bill McArthur, 54th; Andy Carlson, 62nd; and Jim Pearson, 69th. The highlight of the freshman race was the fast start of the winner, Wesleyan's Herbert Hinman, who dominated high school cross-country in New York City. Hinman got away to a 100 yard lead, which was chopped down to twenty yards before he

Interclass Regatta Won By Seniors On Charles River

by Phil Schaffer '56

On Wednesday, November 11th, on the chilly waters of the Charles River, the class of '54 won the annual Inter-Class Crew Race for the second consecutive year. To the winners was presented the coveted Richards Cup, symbolizing the spirit of crew at Tech.

Seniors Close Fast

Four crews, one each from the classes of '54 and '55, and two from the class of '56, participated in this event. Getting off to an early lead was the first '56 shell which pulled out front by a one-quarter of a length margin. They held this slight advantage for three-fourths of a mile, with '54 second, '55 a strong third, and the second sophomore shell to the rear. In a thrilling final sprint, '54 had too much for the soph shell which, up to this point, had led all the way, and overtook them just before the finish line. The margin of victory was a quarter-of-a-length over the class of '56, with the juniors third, a length behind, and the second '56 shell trailed the field.

Varsity Enjoys Excellent Year

During the fall season the varsity team has won all of its dual meets, defeating Tufts, Brown, Holy Cross, New Hampshire and B.C. Unfortunately, they had no chance to meet Massachusetts or Northeastern in dual competition. On the other hand, the freshman team lost all their dual meets by close scores except the Tufts meet, in which the Engineer frosh were really submerged. In contrast, Brown and New Hampshire just eked out a victory over the Beaver freshmen.

Phi Gam, ATO, Sigma Chi, Kappa Sigma Enter Playoff

by Paul Jay Goldin '54

After more than a month of competition, four teams reached the playoffs in the intramural football championships. Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma and Alpha Tau Omega, all gained the finals with comparatively easy wins. These teams will now stage a round-robin tourney to determine the Institute champ.

Phi Gamma Delta, playing perhaps their finest game of the season, halted a rugged Sigma Chi eight, 19-0. Once again it was the passing combination of quarterback Coley Breesee to halfback Tom Hoffman that spelled the difference. Hoffman scored twice as he got behind the secondary to take the Breesee tosses. An alert pass defense led by Jim Klapmeier, and the slashing line play of Rich Wilson and Mitch Savin bottled up Sigma Chi's seat-back, Norm Meyers, very effectively. Klapmeier provided the highlight of the game as he stole a Meyer pass and raced thirty yards to pay-dirt.

SAE Wins Easily

Aerial-minded Sigma Alpha Epsilon coasted to a 19-0 victory over Delta Kappa Epsilon behind the razor-sharp passing of Ev Chambers and a hard-charging forward wall. After a scoreless first quarter, Chambers found the range, as he hit Bard Crawford and Bob White with scoring passes to make the score 13-0 at the half.

The SAE defensive contingent led by Dan Lickly, Pete Hohorst and Tom Comporato, bottled up Deke ace Ernie Hinck so effectively, that the Dekes penetrated into SAE territory only twice.

Kappa Sigma, after being scored upon for the first time this season, rallied to break a 6-6 tie and crush Delta Tau Delta, 26-6. The Kappa Sigma backfield of Jim Hazard, Evan Colton and John Bowden, along with end Carl Hess contributed heavily to the Sig win. Hess scored twice on passes from Hazard and Colton, as he stunned the Delts by racing 80 yards after taking a Hazard pass. The Delts were kept in the game during the first half by quarterback Mike Tym, who filled the air with pass after pass.

The final game of the day saw an alert, defense-minded Alpha Tau Omega aggregation trounce Beta Theta Pi 24-0. George Perry, Bernie Benson and Tony Vertin, were the ATO standouts, particularly Perry, who ran for the first touchdown and intercepted several Beta passes. Most of the credit for the ATO win must go to a hard-hitting line led by center Walt Conrad. Conrad and Vertin provided the Betas with an unwanted five man backfield, as they crashed in on almost every play.

Playoffs Start Tomorrow

The playoffs start Saturday with ATO facing Kappa Sigma and SAE meeting Phi Gamma Delta. On Sunday, SAE clashes with ATO, and Phi Gam goes against Kappa Sigma.

Tech Rugby Club Defeats Harvard By 14-0 Margin

The M.I.T. Rugby Club defeated a strong Harvard team on Wednesday, November 11, on Briggs Field, by a score of 14-0. The Tech scoring was led by veteran star Chuck Johnson, who made two tries.

Johnson scored the first Tech try in the first half, but Hoffman failed to convert. The play was even throughout the first half and no more scoring occurred.

The Beavers added to their 3-0 half-time lead in the second half, when they completely outclassed the Crimson. Johnson and John Gam both made tries, and Tom Hoffman converted once in two tries. Hoffman also made a free kick to account for Tech's final three points in the 14-0 victory.

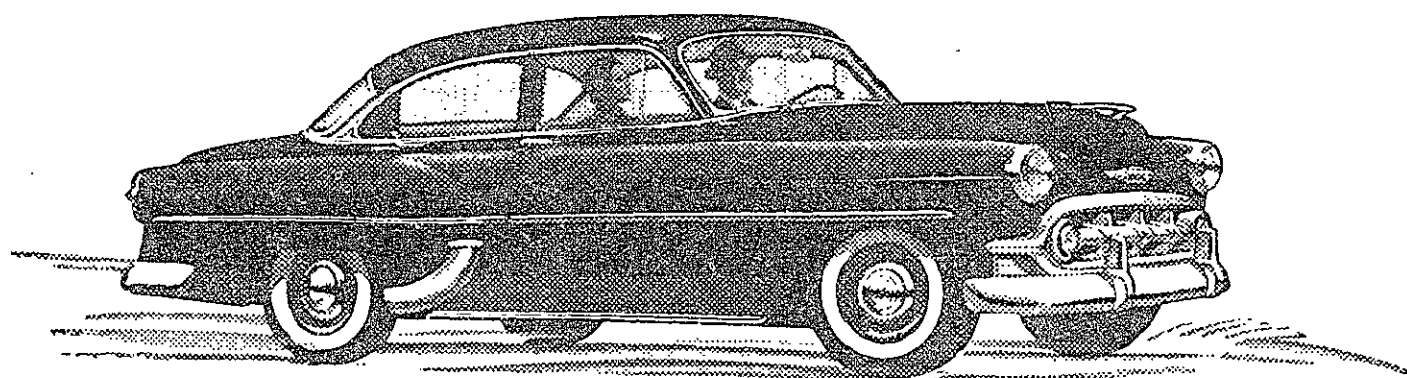

The win gives the Rugby Club a three game winning streak this fall. Prior to the Harvard game, they had defeated the New York Rugby Club twice.

does not affect the right to vote for write-in candidates); two, that members must be present for at least half of the House Committee business meeting in order to be counted present. This motion was introduced due to difficulties encountered in Dormitory Committee meetings where members have been waiting until attendance has been taken and then have left. Both the proposed amendments will be voted on next week.

World War. The propaganda films include one from the U.S.A. and one from the U.S.S.R. The American film illustrates the dangers of Nazi efforts to decrease our morale, while the Soviet film was designed to show the Russian people that everyone was helping in the war effort, including both women and children.

L.S.C. pointed out that the movies are not intended to be of present day interest, but are mainly of historical value.

clude several dances to be given during the year that will be open to the entire campus. The loan is necessary as a backlog until staff can regain its financial feet.

The appropriation for the darkroom this year is $285. This is in addition to an appropriation last year and funds from the Baker House budget and Dorm Comm. Baker House is contributing $100 towards the darkroom and Dorm Comm. is adding $150 with the understanding that the darkroom will be open to all the residents of Baker. The darkroom might also be available for East Campus residents if the proper arrangements are made between the East Campus House Committee and the other interested groups. Presumably, this would require funds from the East Campus budget, so it is doubtful that East Campus will join, since there is already a darkroom available there.

Part of the funds to be applied to the Burton House budget will come from the pinball machine. Last year it contributed approximately $400 to Burton House treasury, and it is expected that this year will be equally fruitful. However, some house officers have expressed fear that the pinball machine might be removed because of administrative disapproval. If the machine does go, the budget will be considerably affected, for the house committee has been counting on this money to make ends meet.

The exact itemized budget breakdown is: $600, social; $300, hi-fi equipment; $200, athletics; $150, records; $150, radio- and tv-set upkeep; $90, The Tech, extra subscriptions; $35, magazine subscriptions; and about $500, unappropriated.

Baskervilles

ONCE there was a ghost named Leroy, who lived in a haunted cottage near a large Eastern university. Every Friday night, at exactly seven o'clock, he'd slide under the door of Baskerville Hall (the main dorm), and give the students all the answers to next week's quizzes.

This was quite a set up. No studying, no cramming . . . and straight A's all term long. But then, one Friday, the hour came and went. No Leroy! And the following week, all the Baskerville Boys got an F on every quiz!

The Friday after that, all of Baskerville Hall waited . . . and waited. But still no Leroy! In high dudgeon, they set out to find him. Creeping into Leroy's haunted cottage . . . the Baskerville Boys found him moaning and groaning. "What's the matter, Leroy?" they asked.

Leroy wiped a ghostly tear from his ghostly eye. "The weather's so hot, every time I put on a shirt the collar curls and wilts. I haven't been out for two weeks!"

In high glee, the Baskerville Boys hurried to the local Van Heusen dealer and bought a dozen Van Heusen Century Shirts with the revolutionary soft collar that won't wrinkle ever. Regular collars, spread collars. $3.95 for whites, $4.95 for colors. "A very good investment," they thought.

Leroy was delighted. He rewarded the boys with all the answers to the following week's quizzes. Two months later, all the boys from Baskerville Hall had flunked out. Leroy's good-looking Van Heusen Century Shirts made him so popular with the co-eds, that he didn't have time for quizzes or answers.
