p.m., in the Student Faculty Lounge, with coffee, tea, and refreshments being served. The second half started very slowly, although some of the groups were stillajar with the camaraderie and the community spirit that was so apparent at the beginning of the year.

The Sigma Chi scholarship trophy was presented to Beta Theta Pi fra ders, Alpha Epsilon Pi was second and Sigma Nu, third. The Improvement award went to Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The Beaver varsity basketeers, still slaying from their easy defeat at the hands of Clark last Wednesday, outduited, out-played, and out-scored Pratt Institute in Boston, 72-61.

In winning their first game of the season the Beavers broke out of a three points-less situation to win with three points under a minute remaining in the time remaining in the half. Pratt's high scoring guard Bill Bordeman scored 69 points to tie the score, but to no avail, as the Beavers main-

Dramashop Production Opens Wed. For Four Performances

For the first time in the history of the Technological Council on the American campus, a Technological Council dramatic group will attempt to repeat last spring's fantastic success. The Technological Council Drama Society will undertake the production of Six Characters: The Director, Bob Segal. The play, written in 1922, was the topic of the opening session of the Technological Council's annual conference. The opening session was held Friday and Saturday at Harvard University, and many interesting discussions and debates were held.

Tech Sailors Defend Trophy

The MIT sailors completed their Fall season with a successful defense of the Peabody Trophy Cup through this past weekend. The races were held at Washington, D.C., in Port Royal. The races started on Saturday, November 11, and were won by the sailors of the United States Navy. The MIT sailors placed third overall, behind the Navy and the U.S. Coast Guard. In addition to the Peabody Trophy Cup, the MIT sailors also won the newly established Lieutenant Commander Phillips Trophy Cup, which was given to the team with the most points earned throughout the season.

East Campus To Hold Reference
On Ban Gambling In Lounges

The recent debate over the question of whether or not to ban gambling in the MIT student lounges continues to be a hot topic. This past week, the East Campus Reference Officers hosted a banquet for parents and students in order to discuss the issue. The banquet was attended by many important members of the MIT community, including President Joel M. Myerson and campus officers. The event was a success, and many people expressed the desire to continue the conversation about gambling on campus.

Music Department Gives Concert
Compositions of Ernst Levy

The Music Department at MIT recently presented a concert featuring the compositions of Ernst Levy. The concert was held in the Main Auditorium on December 14, 1955. The program included works such as the Violin Sonata in C major, Op. 14, and the Cello Sonata in G major, Op. 26. The concert was well-received, and the audience was left with a lasting impression of Levy's unique style.

Picksters Lose To Northeastern, Amherst At Atkin Stars In Goal For Beaver Six

By Bill Daily '56 and John Meikle '56

Signor Alpha Rhoon defeated Beta Theta Pi 7-3 last Friday to elbow play in the intramural football championship. The 2-0 lead was perfect 2-0 record in the playoffs and their second straight football crown.

The first score came midway in the second quarter when Ed Copps '56 intercepted a Beta pass and went 49 yards for the score. Bob Bubulak '56 ripped a 62 yard pass to Allen Bell '56 in the fourth quarter to add an insurance touchdown. After the first fumble the Ketters came out of bounds in the red zone for a safety. The Betas were close to score several times but five defensive line play by Bill Calvert '56, Dave Bagg '56, and Ben Dunn '57 prevented them from cashing in.

At 18:01 Captain John Sullivan scored his first goal of the season, outskating the goalie and scored from an almost impossible angle to the left of the goal. The outstanding performances were turned in for the win by Dave Bagg '56 and Bill Calvert '56.

In other action in the playoffs, Phi Delta Theta defeated Gamma Nu 35-27 to take second place. Phi Delta put up a scrappy fight all the way against Amherst, then hit the gas in the third period and scored 20 seconds later.

Amherst then scored three goals in the third period, but the Betas scored two goals in the second period to pull into a 3-2 lead. Bev Goodison slapped the puck past the NU goalie at 18:11 on a pass from Schwartz.
