In last week's meeting the IFC car ried out a two-thirds majority approval by a referendum to recommend a penalty with a series of specific rushing privileges next season.
Immediately following the vote, the IFC investigating committees de-termed to restrict the rushing privileges of the house after it was accused of "rushing

When asked why IFC would not name the names of the guilty frapenalty it is recommending, the

Undisclosed Penalty; Trophies Awarded After two weeks of examining the

At the meeting Dean Fassett pre-

PRC Changes Constitution to Fit Activities

The Public Relations Committee is re-writing its old constitution to fit its present activities. The present graduates of the 15 man PRC headed by Tom Hastings, '62, include such as the Activities Calendar, such adorned with tests and lab has a prominent place every undergrad's room, and the Froshman Booklet, which introduces every freshman to his classmates. The PRC supervises the Junior Prom Queen contest and the Faculty sports events (like last year's Faculty basketball game) which sends publicity to home town newspapers when a student gets some honor, as election to an office or a variance of other awards.

Changes Constitution to Fit Present Activities

Changes in the constitution to fit its present activities. The new constitution, when completed, will accurately describe the activities of the present Public Relations Committee. The PRC won a $200 Compton Award last spring for "Efficient Undergraduate Publicity." Most of the activities of the PRC are self-maintaining, through public service such as the Activities Calendar, are financed through Reunion.

A Message TO A.E., E.E., M.E. Graduating Engineers EMERSON ELECTRIC interviews TUESDAY NOVEMBER 17

You'll get the "GO" sign at Emerson to get right into the thick of advanced projects

"Why should a graduating engineer consider Emerson Electric?" That's what we recently asked our youngest engineers ... men who graduated in the past 4 to 24 months. They were in a unique position to answer their own questions not long ago, seeking important engineering positions.

Here are their answers ... reporting significant advantages that you should know and carefully consider.

You'll enjoy every opportunity to produce right away. You'll get into the thick of important work, actual problems, gaining firsthand experience immediately. Engineering work begins in one ... no wonder or necessity of orientation lectures, half-hearted prolabor courses, non-technical or drawing board work.

Career broaden; allows you a wide choice of challenging work ... design, research, control, testing; then moves into executive, planning and management positions. The rewards often come before you complete your project from thought through production.

To illustrate the few hands given our young engineers, a New Graduate aboard has developed two hardware components with excellent patent potential.

Engineers required? You'll find none of the usual restrictions between department heads, group leaders, and field engineers. Flexibility are non-existent. We work together closely and cooperatively in an open-door, free-spirited basis.

It is a thrill to Emerson. It is so large that you will find, yet certainly large enough to consider the career phases of an engineer. Emerson Engineering is a fine place to enter and to grow ... to offer all the advantages of a big company.

Sign up for your interview at the Engineering Placement Office. Don't pull off your future ... do it today!
