The Tech.

T. D. Cook, Caterer,
23 to 27 Avon Street - - - Boston.

Wedding and other Parties receive Prompt and Careful Attention.

| Norton Brothers, Florists, | Columbia Bicycle. |
| Hotel Berkeley, Cor. Berkeley and Boylston STS. | President Arthur, in his annual message, recommends a reduction of tariff and that the national debt be not paid so fast. |
| Greenhouses at Dorchester. | Mr. Lewis, of Clerkenwell, has invented an incandescent lamp, consisting of a platinum cage in the form of a thimble, which is converted into a mass of soft, white light by the combustion of gas and air under pressure. |

Thomas Power & Co.

Manufacturers and Retailers of All the Leading Styles of

Gentlemen's Fine Boots, Shoes & Gaiters,
10 School Street, Boston.

Columbia Bicycle.

Thousands in use by doctors, lawyers, merchants, travellers, salesmen, editors, reporters, etc. Come and see them at our warerooms, and learn to ride, or send three-cent stamp for our elegant illustrated catalogue.

Boxing Gloves, Fencing Foils and Masks, Favors for the German Badges, Tights and Shirts for Gymnasium and Boating.

Pollard & Alford, 104 Tremont Street, Boston.