T. JAY FISHER.

"You have driven horses a great deal, haven't you, George, dear?" said a girly voice from the depths of a $350 sealskin sacque last night. "Oh, yes," replied George chirping to his trotter; "I flatter myself that I can handle a horse about as well as the next one."

"Do you think you could drive with one hand without any danger of the horse running away?" came softly through the night air. An hour later we noticed George driving with one hand, and it looked very dangerous, but not that the horse would run away; oh, no, indeed! The "danger" was of a different kind. — Rochester Post Express.
