Dartmouth has been forced to resign from the Intercollegiate Base Ball League. The action of the League was apparently unjustifiable, and has called forth much discussion.

Princeton is to found a school of philosophy, and the Princetonian is our authority for the statement that Dr. McCosh is to resign the presidency of the college in order to devote himself to the new school.

Amherst is hereafter to grant the degree of Ph. D. to those college graduates of at least three years’ standing who have taken the course of study at Amherst prescribed for the degree.
