This month the Bijou Theatre is placing on the stage a revival of Gilbert and Sullivan's operas. During the present week "The Sorcerer" is being played, and next week the attraction will be the "Pirates of Penzance."

Miss Margaret Mather has a fortnight's engagement at the Boston Theatre. Since her previous engagement here she has scored great successes in other cities over the country. She will be accorded a warm welcome.

Boston is to have a new theatre on Hollis Street by next summer. It seems to be an assured fact, notwithstanding all discussion one way or the other.
