"The Mikado," Gilbert and Sullivan's latest opera, is having a most successful run at the Hollis Street Theatre. This bright and pleasing opera attracts a crowd at every performance, and seems destined for a long run.

"Mugwumps" will be given its first performance in this city at the Bijou Theatre this week. This musical farce-comedy is by Mr. Gill, author of the wonderful New York success, "Adonis."

Salvini, the powerful tragedian, is now filling a two weeks' engagement at the Boston Theatre, and will present those plays which have so well established his reputation.
