MEN'S DRESS SUITS.

Although it is well known among our Technology trade that we have always made a specialty of this branch of our business, we take pleasure in reminding their friends of the fact that we have the usual line of staples and novelties, and that we do not ask extravagant prices. We make only High-class Work, as our increasing patronage among Tech men will testify.

AT THE THEATRES.—Week beginning March 25th, '95.

BOSTON.—Extra engagement of Joseph Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle. Persons who have never been so fortunate as to witness this great American actor in his fine impersonation of "Rip," should not allow the opportunity of seeing him to pass, as this is likely their last chance to do so.

COLUMBIA.—A grand production in the shape of an entirely new melodrama, "The Flying Dutchman," by Mr. Charles Harbury, presented by a most admirable company. The story of Vanderdeken staged in a most attractive way.

HOLLIS STREET.—Fourth and last week of Mr. Drew's successful engagement. The usual state of affairs has prevailed at the Hollis during the last three weeks, Mr. Drew having divided with the Opera the modish patronage of the city. The social world thinks highly of Mr. Drew, as can be seen by the attendance at his productions.

PARK.—Third and last week of the play of the period, "Trilby." Destined to achieve greater success than the novel. The Park is crowded to the doors at every performance, and enthusiasm displayed by the audience seems to have no bounds. Trilby could run for three months to crowded houses.
