Men's Dress Suits

Although it is well known among our Technology trade that we have always made a specialty of this branch of our business, we take pleasure in reminding their friends of the fact that we have the usual line of staples and novelties, and that we do not ask extravagant prices. We make only high-class work, as our increasing patronage among Tech men will testify.

Boston Museum.—For the first time in Boston, Mrs. Langtry will present her latest success, “Gossip,” which has created such a sensation in New York. Incidental to the play, Mrs. Langtry will wear some gorgeous gowns that are exact copies of the coming spring styles from Worth's.

Park.—Hoyt’s “A Temperance Town.” This popular play will be given by an admirable cast, including some of Boston’s greatest favorites. Those few who missed the chance to witness “A Temperance Town” last year had better take advantage of the advance sale of seats, which is large. “A play to drive away the blues.”

Hollis Street.—One week only. “Primrose and West’s Monster, Magnificent and Mammoth Minstrels.” This attraction is a novel change from the usual line at the Hollis. The company comprises the most magnificent minstrel organization ever seen in the United States or elsewhere. Over seventy people in the cast, and the entertainment is spoken of in the highest terms.

Castle Square.—“Rob Roy.” The fourth week of the greatest comic opera success of the season. The strongest organization of comic opera ever seen in Boston. It is De Koven and Smith’s latest and greatest work. Presented with full strength of the Whitney Opera Company.
