MEN'S DRESS SUITS.

Although it is well known among our Technology trade that we have always made a specialty of this branch of our business, we take pleasure in reminding their friends of the fact that we have the usual line of staples and novelties, and that we do not ask extravagant prices. We make only High-class Work, as our increasing patronage among Tech men will testify.

AT THE THEATRES.—Week beginning April 22d, '95.

BOSTON MUSEUM.—Return of Mr. Richard Mansfield to Boston. He will present a new play, "The Husband," and this is also his first appearance at this house. Mr. Mansfield is one of the most accomplished of actors, and his plays are always more than worth seeing. This engagement is sure to be marked with success.

BOSTON.—The return of Eugene Tompkins' Spectacular Ballet-Revelation, "The Black Crook," produced under the direction of Lawrence McCarty. Everything new.

HOLLIS STREET.—Augustin Daly's Company of Comedians. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee, "Orient Express" and "The Tragedy Rehearsal." Thursday evening, only time, "Bundle of Lies" and "Tragedy Rehearsal." Friday evening and Saturday matinee, "Lottery of Love." Saturday evening, "A Night Off." All presented by a strong cast, including great favorites. Regular Hollis Street prices.

CASTLE SQUARE.—"Rob Roy." The fifth week of the greatest comic opera success of the season. The strongest organization of comic opera ever seen in Boston. It is De Koven and Smith's latest and greatest work. Presented with full strength of the Whitney Opera Company.
