Tremont Theatre.—Mr. John Hare, with his entire company from Garrick Theatre, London, are giving a successful season at the Tremont. Miss Neilson, his leading lady, is a most beautiful woman and a clever actress. With such a cast, and plays by Sidney Grundy and I. Theyer Smith, the theater is sure to be crowded.

Castle Square Theatre.—It is not a sensational, spasmodic, two or three weeks opera engagement which crowds the Castle Square Theatre, but a sensation, if you please, of 41 weeks' duration, all credit due to the downright merit of the company and perseverance of the management, and the double attraction this week is a very successful test of the versatility of the entire company.

Boston Theatre.—Mme. Sans Gêne at the Boston Theatre presents one of the most magnificent plays of the season. With all of the original and costly scenery, empire furniture, bric-a-brac and handsome tapestries, the production may be fairly said to be one of the most important events in the history of this theatre.

Park Theatre.—The Boston public have a treat in store for them during the coming week at the Park Theatre, when Stuart Robson opens his engagement with "Mrs. Ponderbury's Past"; when the ever-popular actor will be greeted by an appreciative and crowded house.
