Why use Pond’s Extract?
Why not something else?

Because—

Dr. J. J. THOMAS says: “It is incomparably superior to any extract of Hamamelis I have ever used.”

Dr. O. G. RANDALL says: “Nothing can equal Pond’s Extract. I have tested others, and yours is four times as strong as the best.”

Dr. J. C. MITCHELL says: “Pond’s Extract of Hamamelis Virginica is the only reliable article I have found.”

Dr. H. W. MEYER says: “The difference between Pond’s Extract and so-called Witch Hazel is the difference between a cent and a dollar.”

Dr. H. F. MERRILL says: “I have never found any extract equal to Pond’s.”

Dr. POWELL says: “Hereafter I shall use no other than Pond’s Extract.”

And numerous others of similar purport.

No proprietary article on the market is so much imposed upon as Pond’s Extract; but the poor quality of Witch Hazel being manufactured, and the poor results obtained by using it, are fast educating the public to buy the genuine article.—The Western Druggist.

And that’s why.

YOU’VE HAD TROUBLE

With your ruler—not one of the powers that be, but an instrument for guiding the pen in drawing a straight line. You’ve found that the line wasn’t drawn where you expected. The ink also has run down from the edge of the ruler, and left an unexpected and exasperating blot. Try Starrett’s Desk Rule. It costs more than cheap rulers, and it’s worth more. It is of thin, spring-tempered steel, nicked. The thinness brings the working edge close to the paper. You draw the line just where you want it. The edge is sharply beveled, so that ink won’t stick to it. Mailed on receipt of price.
